BOULDER DAM BILL SIGNED BY PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

Ratification of Compact by Six States Only Step Remaining to Clinch Gigantic Project

PACT DELAY DEVELOPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—The Boulder Canyon dam bill reposed tonight on the statute books of the nation—the newest law of the land. Its long, tempestuous journey with days of filibuster and all-night sessions has brought to an official end today, when President Coolidge affixed his signature to the measure.

But one step now remains to be taken before its provisions are set in motion for the construction of the highest dam ever undertaken. This structure would be placed in the narrow, natural gorges which the swift Colorado River has chiseled for itself at Boulder Canyon or Black Canyon, on the Arizona-Nevada line.

Mr. Coolidge signed the bill today in the presence of a group of those who long have championed the cause. Among those gathered at the White House for this final ceremony were Senator Johnson and Representative Swing, Chicago's Republican, co-authors of the measure. The two were smiling broadly as they watched the Chief Executive slowly sign his name, pausing twice as he did so to check the name. The three actually were used to complete the writing of his name.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (P)—A material difference of opinion developed today among delegations to the Pan-American conference on arbitration and conciliation on the provisions to be placed in an arbitration treaty, and a subcommittee had to be appointed to seek a formula acceptable to all delegations.

This is made up of representatives of Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Colombia, Venezuela, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Bolivia, Brazil, Cuba, Haiti, Dominican Republic, and the Central American countries.

The Arbitration treaty, drafted in which is one of the major tasks of the gathering, had gained ascendancy in the conference proceedings today, while the conference's special committee on the Bolivian-Paraguayan dispute remained inactive, awaiting replies to questionnaires addressed to the two nations.

MARKED DISAGREEMENT

However, instead of presenting a draft of an arbitration treaty for immediate discussion by the committee, as had been expected, Enriquez, of Colombia, proposed that the committee, composed of the representatives of Colombia and the United States and W. B. Mainwaring, of Los Angeles Bureau of Power and Light, should be appointed to study the new law, all repaired with President Coolidge in the south lawn of the White House for photographs.

IMMENSE PROJECT

The Boulder Canyon Dam Act calls for the construction at an estimated cost of $168,000,000 of a high dam for the three-fold purpose of flood control, irrigation and power generation.

The dam would be twice as high as any now in existence. The struc-slaves, Indians, Aztecs, Spaniards, Mexicans, Guatemaltecos, Central American States and Colombia. It will hold its sessions behind closed doors.

The principal difference, it developed, was over the question of compulsory claims of individuals or corporations against governments should be subjected to compulsory arbitration for the purpose of settling the claims.

Olays himself insisted that all such questions should be excepted from arbitration unless a question of domestic justice were raised. He was under positive instructions from his government on this point.

Boulder Canyon originally was supposed as the site of the project, but later, after investigations engineers recommended that Black Canyon is a more suitable site. The Government, however, has known as the Boulder Canyon measure.

Construction of a canal to carry water for irrigation purposes to the Imperial Valley of California also is contemplated in which the water way would run entirely through American territory to replace the present canal which has been considered as dividing the Mexican side of the international disputes. Exceptions to this method of settlement would include matters affecting sovereignty except boundary disputes; domestic matters, such as immigration, natural-

RIFER BATTLE

Opposition to the act was directed principally by Senators Ashurst and Hayden, the two Arizona Senators, and Representative Douglas, the Arizona congressman in the House. The Californians in Congress, however, were equally unyielding in pressing the bill to passage.

The dispute involved principally the question of apportionment of water rights among the states of the lower Colorado River Valley and the question of whether the power produced by the dam should

COUNT CADORNA OF ITALY DIES

Commanded 2,000,000 Men
During World War

Was Held Responsible for Caporetto Defeat

Famed Soldier Sprang from

BORDIGHERA (Italy) Dec. 21. (AP)—The death today of Count Luigi Cadorna, commander-in-chief of the Italian Army during much of the World War, plunged all Italy into sorrow although it had been known for several days that his condition was hopeless.

The 78-year-old marshal was stricken last Monday night with a cerebral blood clot.

Cadorna organized the Italian forces for the great struggle, but later was blamed for the terrible defeat of Caporetto, in October, 1917, which was one of the worst setbacks the Allies suffered during the war.

Gen. Armando Diaz succeeded him as generalissimo and won victories which later critics acknowledged were based on the preparations made by his former chief, Marshal Cadorna.

The newspapers today emphasized that both great leaders in the war had died this year. Gen. Diaz died on February 28. The Roman newspaper Impero points out that the Fascist government restored Cadorna to his rightful place and conferred on him the high rank of marshal.

Count Luigi Cadorna was a military uniform for fifty-five years before the decision of Italy to enter the great European war brought him forward to international fame as one of the great leaders in the struggle.

The son of a man who had distinguished himself in military science, he also devoted his whole life to it, and when it was decided that Italy would engage in the war on the side of the Entente Powers against the Teutonic Allies, Count Cadorna, then chief of the general staff of the Italian army, was not only the choice of the King and his advisers as the most able military genius, but was also so acclaimed by the people.

Born September 4, 1850, he was just under 65 years of age when Italy declared war on Austria in the summer of 1915, giving him the opportunity to apply many years of tactical study to actual warfare on a large scale, becoming within a few months the directing head of an army of 2,000,000 men, which he divided between service on the Austro-Italian frontier and assistance to the English and French at the Dardanelles.

One of the most remarkable points of Cadorna's career was the avidity with which throughout his life he had studied the territory along the northern boundary, where the operations against the Austrians were to be carried out. Gen. Cadorna was a man of prodigious memory, often startling the other members of his staff by the ease with which he could enumerate in precise detail the difficulties and natural advantages of the most obscure routes, paths and passages, especially among the Alps.

FAMILY OF FIGHTERS
As one of many instances of his quick observation and exceptional memory the story is told of how, in the early days of the mobilization of the army in 1915, Gen. Cadorna, while riding by a railway station in an automobile, detected the fact that one of the cars of a military train which he saw at the station loaded with munitions was being sent along a wrong route. The mere number of the freight car sufficed for Gen. Cadorna to perceive the error—although there were hundreds of trains moving at that time with munitions of war for all parts of Italy.

The family of fighters from which Gen. Cadorna came assured him some popularity from the start. His grandfather led an army against the French battalions of the revolution when they invaded Piedmont, and then refused to serve the government that was erected on the ruins of the throne. His father, Gen. Raphael Cadorna, fought beside the French at Crémone, and was Minister of War in Tuscany before he commanded the little army that marched on Rome in 1870. It was he who suppressed two of the most bloody uprisings in the history of the new kingdom, that of Sicily and Emilia.

Luigi Cadorna entered a military school in 1860 and became attached to the general staff as a second lieutenant when he was only 18 years of age. Later he was transferred to the military division of Florence, over which his father was chief in command, but he was not allowed to accompany his father on the expedition to Rome, either because his father did not wish to be accused of favoritism or because he expected criticism of the expedition, which he did not wish his son to share.

Cadorna became a captain in 1875 and began the publication of a series of pamphlets concerning the different sections of the Italian frontier, which proved to be very interesting, not only from military considerations, but because of the clearness with which he developed his conceptions of the offensive and defensive on the hypothesis of future battles. He also published about that time a work upon the Franco-German War of 1870.

REVISED TACTICS
When he was named major in 1883 he introduced a veritable revolution into the teaching of tactics. Stupified at first at the radical departure of his instructions, the young officers of the regiment interested themselves in his teachings. The colonel, more attached to traditions, resisted at first, but was finally obliged to recognize that Cadorna was putting new life into the regiment.

Later on Cadorna had the good fortune to collaborate with Gen. Pianell, military commander of the Province of Venice during twenty-six years, and celebrated in the more recent history of the Italian army as the last and most active of generals who collaborated in the preparation of the defense of the Austrian frontier.

Pianell confided to young Cadorna work of the greatest importance on this subject, took frequent excursions with him upon the Alps and in every circumstance took into account his judgment and appreciation.

When the day of promotion arrived for Cadorna, Gen. Pianell re-

DRIVE STARTED FOR FARM BILL

Jardine's Plea for McNary
Plan Aids Backers

Leaders Seek to Avoid Early Extra Session

Feelers Out But Hoover and
Curtis Silent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—A letter from Secretary of Agriculture Jardine endorsing the McNary farm bill before the Senate today started a drive for enactment of the legislation at this session. Chairman McNary of the Senate Agriculture Committee announced he will assemble the committee to consider it during the holiday recess or immediately thereafter.

Seeking to avoid an early extra session of Congress, which was promised by Herbert Hoover in the event farm relief is not disposed of at this term of Congress, a group of Congressional leaders, including Senator Watson of Indiana, the prospective Republican leader of the Senate next session, joined in the drive.

FEELERS FROM COOLIDGE
The letter was regarded at the Capitol as an expression from the Coolidge administration for the new farm bill submitted by Senator McNary and as a desire of the present administration to get the legislation through at this time.

The "fly in the ointment" is a desire of many leaders to learn the attitude of Herbert Hoover on the bill. Feelers have been put out to get an expression from the President without success, and it seems likely that embassies will be sent to him in this connection when he returns next month.

In his letter to Senator McNary the Secretary of Agriculture indicated the bill, which would establish a Federal farm board with a $300,000,000 loan fund, and declared: "I believe that it should be passed as early as possible in order to make it applicable to the 1929 crop."

Senator McNary said if the legislation is to be effective during the approaching farm season, it will have to be passed at this session. He doubts if a bill passed even late in the spring can be put into operation in time to be workable this year.

However, Senators Borah of Idaho and Brookhart of Iowa, who played prominent roles in the campaign for Mr. Hoover, are standing pat for the extra session promised by the President-elect for farm relief. They insist that the tariff revision which will get started next month and the farm marketing legislation are related elements of agricultural relief and should be taken up together as soon as Mr. Hoover comes into power.

It is the view of Senator Watson and his band, which also includes Speaker Longworth of the House, that Congress should get the farm marketing bill into law at this session and that the tariff then can be taken up in an extra session, if necessary, next fall.

CURTIS SILENT
Busy ironing out present problems confronting the Senate with its seat over the new treaty and the naval construction bill, Senator Curtis of Kansas, the Republican leader, is reserving comment on the prospect of a farm bill at this session.

While those pressing for immediate action believe that an affirmative nod from Herbert Hoover for the McNary bill would solve their difficulties they are becoming doubtful of getting even a sign from him during the period Mr. Coolidge occupies the Presidency.

"I am firmly of the opinion," wrote Mr. Jardine, "that this bill provides the basis for a substantial and permanent relief of this, our basic industry. I do not believe that the relation of other needed legislation to this measure is such as to necessitate its delay pending the enactment or prolonged consideration of such legislation. Since it would require some time to put the provisions of this bill into operation, I believe that it should be passed as early as possible in order to make it applicable to the 1929 crop."

AITCHISON CONFIRMED AFTER TILT
Committee of Senate Also Approves Two Others for Interstate Commission

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—The nomination of Clyde B. Aitchison of Oregon to be a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission was approved today by the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee after objections to his confirmation had been withdrawn.

The committee also gave its approval to the nomination of Claude B. Porter of Iowa and Patrick J. Farrell of the District of Columbia to be members of the commission.

Objections which had been raised to the confirmation of Aitchison on the complaint that he had held up an unreasonable length of time were withdrawn after the commissioner had testified that the fault lay with the Bureau's curtailment of funds for the work. There has been no fight on the nominations of Farrell and Porter.

AGRICULTURE BUREAU COTTON INQUIRY ASKED
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—Investigation of the Department of Agriculture's estimated increase of cotton production was asked in the Senate today by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina. Senator Smith, who conducted the long investigation last year into the 1927 department statements dealing with the cotton-price decline, told the Senate that he believed the government had overestimated this year's crop by 500,000 bales. The South Carolinian said he wanted to have an inquiry into the methods used by the department in arriving at its estimate and also into what influence, if any, is exerted on cotton prices by the textile industry.

Secretary West Rejects All Public Bids on It

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—Secretary West today rejected all bids for government oil from the Salt Creek field, Wyoming, because the highest bidder refused to make bond and give information requested by the Department, and then entered into a contract with the White Eagle Oil and Refining Company and the Texas Company for the oil at a private sale.

The Interior Department announced that the sale of the oil to the White Eagle and Texas companies for 21 3/4 cents per barrel above the highest posted field price at a private sale is mandatory under the law by which the royalty oil contracts are made.

HIGHEST BIDDER
The highest of the bids submitted was by William L. Walls of Cheyenne, Wyo., 42 cents a barrel above the posted field price.

The Department had asked Walls for a full statement of his financial ability and the name of an accredited surety company willing to write a three-year bond for $250,000. Mr. Walls, after further communication with the Department, did not satisfy the Secretary that his bid should be accepted under the advertisement.

Mr. West therefore asked for bids at a private sale, disposing of the oil for three years from and after January 1, 1929.

The White Eagle Oil and Refining Company had protested the renewal of the contract held by the Sinclair interests last year. The Sinclair contract was canceled recently after the Department of Justice had ruled that a renewal clause in it made it invalid.

MORE MONEY
Invitations to bid at the private sale were issued to the Midwest Refining Company, the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, the Continental Oil Company, the White Eagle Oil and Refining Company and the Texas Company. They being, the Department said, companies known to possess adequate facilities to take and dispose of the oil.

The Midwest Refining Company and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company each offered the regular posted field prices. Continental Company submitted no bid.

The government now receives $100 per day more than it has been receiving from the sale of oil under the Sinclair contract.

HOOPER GAVEL GIVEN TO DAWES

The gavel was sent to the Senator by Robert B. Hall, cashier of the First National Bank of Hamilton, Ill., who obtained it from the present owner of the property.

TOTAL ELECTION VOTE 36,798,669

Balloting Sets New Record for United States

Hoover Passes Million Mark in Five Commonwealths

Republicans' Poll in South
Double Coolidge Count

(Copyright, 1924, by the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (AP)—Herbert Hoover's plurality over Gov. Smith in the November election was 6,423,612.

Figures gathered by the Associated Press from the election officials of the forty-eight States show these totals:

Hoover 21,429,107
Smith 15,908,467
The total vote cast, the largest in the history of the United States, was 36,798,669.

The votes not accounted for in the Hoover and Smith columns went to minor parties. Norman Thomas, the Socialist candidate, received the majority of these votes, polling 367,835. Foster, Workers' party candidate, got 48,728 and Reynolds, Prohibition candidate, got almost as many as Reynolds, 30,101 and Webb, Farmer-Labor, 6391.

PLURALITY LESSENED

Mr. Hoover's plurality did not reach the figures registered for President Coolidge in 1924, although the former Secretary of Commerce polled a much larger vote. In that year Mr. Coolidge received 18,725,016 votes giving him a lead of 7,338,513 over John W. Davis, Democratic nominee. The La Follette-Wheeler Independent ticket, however, had 4,822,854 votes.

Hoover carried forty States as against thirty-seven carried by President Coolidge four years ago. Pennsylvania gave him his largest majority, 867,790, while Gov. Smith's largest plurality was in Louisiana, where he had a lead of 113,495. While overwhelmed both in the popular vote and in the Electoral College, Gov. Smith's total was more than 1,000,000 higher than the 8,395,503 cast for Mr. Davis in 1924.

LEADS COOLIDGE VOTE

Mr. Hoover's vote was higher in every State than that of Mr. Coolidge four years ago with the exception of Rhode Island. This held true in President Coolidge's home State of Massachusetts, which was carried by Gov. Smith. The Governor's total was less than the Democratic figures of four years ago in New Mexico, Tennessee and Texas, notwithstanding the large increase in the number of ballots cast.

The Hoover column shows he received more than 1,000,000 votes in each of five States, California, Illinois, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Gov. Smith reached the 1,000,000-mark in Illinois, New York and Pennsylvania.

States of the once-solid South recorded 3,044,145 votes for the two major party candidates, almost 1,000,000 less than cast in New York State for Mr. Hoover and Gov. Smith.

Hoover polled 1,408,488 of these and Smith, 1,397,657 in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia and North Carolina, all of which had supported the Democratic Presidential candidate since reconstruction days until the present election.

SOUTHERN VOTE DOUBLED

Mr. Hoover's southern vote was more than double that of Mr. Coolidge four years ago and almost twice the combined figures for the President and Senator La Follette that year. It came within 91,000 votes of equalling Mr. Davis' total in the same territory.

The vote of 36,798,669 showed a big jump over the figures for 1924, when 29,991,417 persons cast ballots in the Presidential race. This increase was especially reflected in the South, Alabama as an example recording 248,981 ballots as against 168,562 four years ago. Other States in various sections showed a similar result.

The increase for the nation as a whole over 1924 was slightly more than 25 per cent. In the South the figures were approximately 23 per cent higher than they were four years ago.

GIANT LINER REFLOATED

Goes Aground at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—The new Panama-Pacific electric liner Virginia, largest merchantman ever built in America, which arrived here from New York this morning on her maiden voyage, was refloated at 1:35 p.m. after she had crashed into the head of the municipal pier and went aground across the channel. Two points of the ship's port after section were damaged by the crash, which Capt. H. A. T. Candy, commander, declared was unavoidable and which he blamed on a combination of wind and tide. Capt. Candy also announced that Capt. H. T. Merrivether, municipal pilot, was in charge of the ship at the time.

The Virginia was drawing twenty-six feet and twenty-one feet forward. Six hundred and twelve passengers arrived on the new 33,000-ton liner, eighty-eight disembarked here. Of the others, 351 will go ashore at Los Angeles, where the Virginia will arrive tomorrow morning, the remaining 173 travelers being destined for San Francisco.

Among those aboard are Warren Packard, director of Packard Motor Car Company, here for a three month visit with Mrs. Packard and their two children; Baroness Lucia Hermelin, young Swedish noblewoman; A. J. McCarthy, manager of the Panama-Pacific Line; E. S. Kilberg, consulting engineer of the General Electric Company; Baroness de Pallandt, Baron and Baroness de Steurs of London and Genos; Harry Ignacio Stafford, San Francisco lawyer; C. F. Smithers, formerly of J. P. Morgan & Co.; Gen. Kane and Mrs. Kane; George H. Gaskin, superintendent engineer, Panama-Pacific Line; G. Aubrey Davidson, vice-president, Bank of Italy, San Diego, and Mrs. Davidson, and E. F. Heard, superintendent of hulls, Newport Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, builder of the Virginia.

State Controller Asserts Legislature Will Not Have to Provide New Revenue

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21. (AP)—The finances of State government are in such a condition that no legislation need arise in the coming session of Legislature to provide for additional revenues, State Controller Riley declared today.

"The government's surplus is ample to care for all expenses anticipated during the coming biennium," Riley said. He added that the estimated revenues for the next two-year period have been made on a conservative basis and that there is every probability the executive budget will be balanced by actual receipts in the State Treasury.

"This estimate of revenues does not contemplate the appropriation authorized by Legislature in excess of the budget bill and the extent to which those appropriations will be made is entirely a condition of the State's surplus," Riley declared.

"The estimate is based on performances during the past two years when business has been prosperous and revenues good. As long as these conditions continue the revenues should be sufficient to meet requirements of the State government. Current expenses are not outrunning current revenues."

Lost Paintings Found in Vienna

GRAZ (Austria) Dec. 21. (AP)—Six Italian paintings, valued at $500,000, including Tintoretto's "Adoration of the Child," believed to have been stolen upon the retreat of the Austrian army from the Flare during the World War, have turned up in Vienna.

They were presented for restoration by an unnamed person. The paintings are believed to have been removed by thieves from churches and palaces in the town of Belluno. The Austrian government immediately advised the Italian government, which is sending a special commission to Graz to take charge of the paintings.

Guilt Admitted in Drug Case

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (AP)—Joseph Unger, on trial as agent of an international narcotics syndicate believed to have been financed by Arnold Rothstein, slain gambler, changed his plea to guilty in Federal court today.

Unger was indicted on four counts but on change of his plea two were merged and one was dropped. The remaining counts, possession of narcotics and conspiracy to violate the narcotic laws, carry maximum penalties of ten and two years, respectively. Sentence will be imposed on January 4.

Ex-Gridiron Star Given Freedom

TEWKSBURY (Mass.) Dec. 21. (AP)—Charles E. Brickley, former Harvard football star, was released from the State Infirmary here at noon today after serving seven months of a year's sentence for larceny.

Brickley was convicted of larceny in connection with stock transactions. He was brought here several months ago because of poor health. His parole was approved by the State Board of Parole yesterday.

Three Stations Slated for Ban

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. LONG DRY SPELL FACES KANSANS

Governor-elect Moves to

Legislators' "Booze Parties"

Officials Warned Lobbyists'
Rum Must Go

TOPEKA (Kan.) Dec. 21. (AP)—Clyde M. Reed, Governor-elect, today notified Atty.-Gen. Smith and Topeka and Shawnee county officials that he would expect vigorous law enforcement during the session of the Kansas Legislature convening next month.

The Governor-elect declared the prohibitory liquor law has been "flagrantly violated" in Topeka during legislative sessions in the past. Following a conference with the Attorney-General, J. G. Logan, County Attorney-elect of Shawnee county, and Mayor Rigby of Topeka, Mr. Reed announced he had been assured by them of their "full co-operation" in law enforcement.

LETTER MADE PUBLIC

The Governor-elect made public a letter addressed to the three officials, in which he said: "Throughout sessions of the Legislature in recent years the growing use of booze parties given by lobbyists with the intention of influencing legislation has become a matter of common knowledge and growing apprehension on the part of good citizenship. Not only is the prohibition law being flagrantly violated in Topeka during legislative sessions, but the manner of its violation constitutes a danger to public interest."

Mr. Reed quoted Gov. Paulen as declaring at the last legislative session: "The railroads and the associated industries are riding for a hard fall. One or two more sessions of the Legislature such as the last one and they will have the people ready for a revolution."

LOBBY DENOUNCED

Continuing, Mr. Reed said: "The corporation lobby has begun early this year. It has already had a big booze party at one of the principal hotels in Topeka. At this party were eight State Senators, four railroad attorneys, representatives of the Bell Telephone Company and other public utility and corporation representatives. At this party were discussed committee assignments in the Senate and plans for opposing the incoming administration in its efforts to carry out the constructive program to which the Republican party of the State is pledged."

Pointing out that he would take office at noon January 14, the Governor-elect said he had no intention of submitting to "interference from the corporation lobby by any such means as have been previously used and as it is planning to again use."

DEMAND SWEETENING

"I have no intention to permit the laws of Kansas to be openly flaunted in the capital city of the State, or elsewhere, in such a brazen manner as was done on this particular occasion. My idea of law enforcement is that it shall apply to all alike. You are therefore advised that from noon, January 14, I shall expect each of your respective spheres of jurisdiction to violently enforce the laws of Kansas and that no man shall be exempt from the operations of these laws, regardless of his political, social or financial standing."

PRESIDENT MAY KEEP HANDS OFF

Cautious Over Plan to Solve Reparations Problem

Coolidge Believes German Issue Only European

Wants Any Possible American
Agents Unhampered

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—President Coolidge is reluctant to have the United States take a hand in the latest move for a final solution of the German reparations problem. It is decided that there should be American representatives on the proposed new commission, the President hopes that all of its members will be free to air their judgment as experts unhampered by instructions from their governments.

Thus far this government has received no official communication advising of the fact that American representatives are desired on the commission. From cable dispatches it is assumed that American participation in the plan is to be requested on a basis similar to that followed in making up the Dawes commission. The three Americans on that commission, Charles G. Dawes, Owen Young and Henry M. Robinson, did not represent the United States officially, but sanction was given by the United States government to their designation.

The President would prefer that this country should keep its hands out of the German reparations problem. This is distinctly a European question, he thinks, and as such ought to be determined by Europeans. However, the President recognizes that it may be considered advisable that approval should be given to the selection of Americans on the new commission.

If such consent is given the President hopes that there will be a realization that this country does not interfere in matters of primary concern to other nations, unless it is obliged to, and that a situation of this sort required intervention in Central American countries.

The President believes that the experts of each of the countries should be left free to exercise their own judgment. He thinks that no instructions should be given by any nation to its experts that it is willing to agree to any particular determination. If an expert commission is to be selected the President feels that its members should be able to act as experts.

OPTIMISM SHOWN
BY GERMAN NEWSPAPERS

BERLIN, Dec. 21. (P)—A policy of official optimism was seen by several influential German newspapers today in the reports issued yesterday by reparations commissioners.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, organ of the industrialists, acidly remarked that the world would be told that Germany is prosperous, but that the real purpose of the optimistic tone of the reports is to create an atmosphere for the coming negotiations on reparations.

The Boersen Zeitung, a Conservative publication, spoke of "unwarrantable optimism," especially in the case of the trustee for industrial debentures. It charged him with presenting an entirely wrong picture of the situation of German industry. It argued that German industries are consuming their own substance by inadequate "writing off" and that dividends were being kept down by high interest charges on borrowed capital.

The Liberal Boersen Courier was less critical, but it observed that the arguments of the commissioners are based upon comparisons with the disastrous inflation period which brought Germany to a far lower level than foreign countries could conceive.

EARNINGS OF $189,332.83 IN LAST
REPORTED

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—Farming operations of California's eleven State institutions for the last fiscal year netted a profit of $189,332.83, according to a report issued today by Earl Jensen, State director of institutions.

The extent of production at the institution farms is given by the following figures: Milk, 842,018 gallons; eggs, 199,885 dozen; pork, 384,168 pounds; vegetables, 8,120,679 pounds; fruits, 1,877,942 pounds; beef veal, 145,406 pounds, and hay and feed 9003 tons.

Stockton Hospital realized the largest profit from its farming ventures with a net of $63,471.18. The profits of the other institutions follow: Agnew Hospital 6638; Mendocino Hospital, $30,183; Napa Hospital, $25,600; Norwalk Hospital, $23,761; Folsom Hospital, $24,427; Sonoma Hospital, $4318; Preston School of Industry, $6812; Whittier School, $6018.

NEW COAST SCHOOL FOR FLYERS PLANNED

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—Establishment of schools for the training of aviators and aeronautical engineers is proposed by the Pacific College of Aeronautics and Engineering, Inc., a Delaware corporation, which today filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. The corporation has a capital stock of 125,000 shares, 50,000 at $10 each and 75,000 without par value. W. P. Montgomery of Long Beach is designated as the California agent.

WAGE INCREASE FIXED IN GERMANY'S STRIKE

BERLIN, Dec. 21. (P)—The grant of an average wage increase of five pennings an hour was decided upon today by the arbitration court set up to consider a strike of several thousand shipyard workers in German North Sea and Baltic ports. The strike has been on for three months. The court also decided to fix the working hours at fifty a week. The workers and employers must signify their assent or refusal of the award by next Friday.

Plain Talk about TALKING FILM

By William Fox

The silent drama isn't silent any more. Into the motion picture theatre has come sound. Properly used, it will be the greatest boon to the theatre since motion pictures were invented.

MANY people think of talking pictures as a phonograph record run off in time with a film. This was the experimental method, still used by some motion picture studios.

Four years ago the Fox Film Corporation began developing what we hoped would be an improvement over the friction method of needle-on-record synchronization. By means of a vacuum tube that changes sound into light we developed the process of photographing both voice and vision on the same film. Every day now we are reproducing, side by side on the film, sound and sights just as they reach your eyes and ears. Not only in a sound-proof studio, but also outdoors we are imprisoning into celluloid action and the accompanying sounds photographically. This we called Movietone.

The talking newsreel—Fox Movietone News—began regular weekly reporting of world events in December, 1927. Its enthusiastic acceptance by the public necessitated our adding a second weekly issue in October, 1928, and a third weekly issue beginning December first, 1928. Next February there will be four issues each week of Fox Movietone News, supplied by 75 newsreel crews now photographing sound and action in every civilized country in North and South America, Europe, Africa and Asia.

By royal preference Movietone was selected as the method to pass on to posterity the voices and personalities of their Majesties George V, King of England, and Alfonso XIII, King of Spain.

Movietone is the miracle method of bringing to America—in all but the flesh—George Bernard Shaw.

Movietone has acquainted us with the voices and mannerisms of Lindbergh, Mussolini, Lloyd George and Marshal Foch.

In one week the three most honored men in America were heard and seen by millions, thanks to Movietone—President Coolidge, ex-President Taft and President-elect Hoover.

Now Movietone has graduated from fact to fiction—from life itself to the make-believe life of dramatic action. From short musical novelties and talking comedies we have come—naturally and deliberately—to the full-length feature picture, photographed indoors and outdoors in the natural settings suggested by the story.

"In Old Arizona," to be shown at the Criterion Theater on Christmas Day and in modern theaters everywhere, represents the culmination of five years of perfecting talking film and 25 years of producing motion pictures. It represents the combined genius of two directors—Raoul Walsh and Irving Cummings. It brings to you for the first time the voices of such screen favorites as Warner Baxter and Edmund Lowe, the unforgettable Sergeant Quirt of "What Price Glory."

Twenty-five years ago, I took my first modest venture into motion pictures. This month I celebrate my Silver Anniversary—and among my reasons for celebration is "In Old Arizona," talking feature picture produced at the new forty-acre Movietone City at Fox Hills, California.

Seeing it, will, I believe, make you feel like celebrating, too.

INGLEWOOD, Dec. 21.—Singing of Christmas carols on the steps of the City Hall, with a foreground of Oregonia Park's live evergreens brilliantly illuminated as Christmas trees, is scheduled here for tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Harmonious Club of Inglewood.

Two troupers will open the lengthy program of two Christmas carols, an address by the Rev. H. H. Smith, an orchestra selection by the Inglewood Harmony Boys and numerous solos.

Through the generosity of Inglewood High School students needy families in the high school district will know a happier holiday season than they otherwise would, as baskets of provisions, clothing, books and toys collected at the high school Christmas tree are distributed to them Christmas morning.

ONTARIOANS PROVIDE CHRISTMAS BASKETS

ONTARIO, Dec. 21.—Two hundred baskets of food, clothing, and toys were packed today by local women for distribution among the needy families of the community, in order that every family here might have the happiest Christmas of the colony's history.

The baskets will be distributed in time so all the families will receive them, when Santa Claus is due to make his official visit.

GLENDALE CHILDREN BRING GIFTS FOR LESS FORTUNATE

GLENDALE, Dec. 21.—The annual municipal Christmas celebration was held tonight around the tall tree on the lawn of the Harvard High School, when hundreds of children trooped forward to lay at the foot of the tree the gifts that will be distributed next Tuesday to other youngsters who might otherwise be overlooked by St. Nicholas.

The distribution of the hundreds of gifts will be made under the direction of the Glendale Welfare Council.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA FOR REDONDO BEACH

REDONDO BEACH, Dec. 21.—The annual Christmas cantata of the choir of the First Methodist Church here will be given on Sunday evening under the direction of C. H. Van Hellen. Lester's "The Manger Babe" has been chosen for the cantata and soloists are John Hall, Van Hellen, Mrs. F. J. White and Mrs. Mary Angel.

HUNTINGTON PARK
LEGION PLANS PARTY

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 21.—The American Legion here is planning a Christmas party and tree at Fairview Hall Monday night, when the legionnaires will entertain the members of their families. Santa Claus will be present to distribute gifts.

The Elks have arranged to play Santa Claus on Christmas Eve, when a large number of the members of their lodge will visit sections of the district with baskets of food, and hundreds of toys. Elks, each Christmas Eve, take this plan of spreading cheer among the needy at Christmas time.

FIRST COMMUNITY
TREE FOR BLUTH

BLUTH, Dec. 21.—Palo Verde Valley is to have its first annual community Christmas tree, on the high school campus Sunday night. Thousands of boxes of candy, toys, and other gifts are to be distributed by Santa Claus.

Practically every organization in the valley has contributed toward the community Christmas tree. The local Boy Scouts will aid in the distribution of the toys and candies for the children. A short and appropriate program, and a bonfire are planned around the tree.

TOWNSEND ORGANIZATIONS
CARING FOR NEEDY

TOWNSEND, Dec. 21.—Santa Claus came early to this district with over 1000 little folks gathered at the brilliantly lighted municipal tree at the City Hall to welcome him and to receive a bountiful Christmas in his hands early last night. The event was sponsored by the fire department and by the Chamber of Commerce.

The American Legion, all of the churches, all fraternal organizations and the Woman's Club have a series of holiday plans, not the least of which will be the distribution of Christmas dinners to every needy family.

POMONA CELEBRATES IN GREEK THEATER

POMONA, Dec. 21.—The local annual Christmas tree program, a community event, was presented tonight in the Greek Theater at Ganesha Park, some 1500 kiddies swarming around the huge tree to receive their bags of candy and gifts, while an elaborate entertainment was staged by 350 members of the Kaufman and Emerson Junior High School chorus. The affair was a huge success, efficient heating equipment having been installed to provide for the comfort of the large gathering.

Ventura Without Jail, So Woman Believed Guilty of Taking Trinkets from Stores Released by Police

VENTURA, Dec. 21.—Although she is said to have been caught red-handed in the act of "lifting" a number of articles from a local department store, and is declared to have been found in possession of stolen goods from three other local stores, the wife of a wealthy Venturan has been released by the police, partly because there is no jail in which to confine her, and partly because the police are not sure that the woman is not a kleptomaniac.

The woman was first apprehended when a clerk in the department store recognized her Tuesday as the one who had been in the day before and whom he declared had been seen stealing some small articles. The second day the clerk called the store manager, who in turn, had the police summoned, the woman, whose husband is building a fine home here, and who was dining about the city in a beautiful man already has been decorated and lighted. Community Christmas exercises also will be held in Community Church next Sunday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m.

SANTA MONICA CELEBRATES IN MUNICIPAL AUDITORIUM

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 21.—The city's annual municipal Christmas celebration was held at the municipal auditorium today. The Christmas tree was illuminated in the evening, and hundreds of bay district toys enjoyed Santa Claus and an appropriate program. More than 2500 boxes of candy were distributed.

REDLANDS ALIVE WITH OUTDOOR CHRISTMAS TREES

REDLANDS, Dec. 21.—Decorating of the great evergreen tree at the triangle, where each Christmas local people gather to sing carols, is being done now. Scores of residents have decorated their own Christmas trees in their yards this year and they add much to the beauty of the season.

Ranchers Feast
on Bear Steak

VENTURA, Dec. 21.—A black bear weighing more than 600 pounds and making a track eleven inches long was trapped and shot by J. C. Thompson, resident of the upper Ojai, in the Topa Topa Mountains. It was learned here today. While making the rounds of his traps, Thompson came upon the giant animal in a trap and shot it. It required three horses to drag the animal from the mountains to his home in the valley. Thompson has taken the head and pelt to a taxidermist for mounting. Barbecue of bear meat was held at the Thompson ranch this week attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Wild Driving
Leads to Jail

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 21.—David Johnson of Long Beach, in an effort to get away after he had crashed into a parked automobile owned by P. K. Rogers, on Belgrave street last night, ran into a tree and was caught by Rogers and taken to the City Jail. Johnson, after striking the car, backed his machine and started away, when Mrs. Rogers, who was in the house, heard the crash. She ran into the street and jumped on the running board of Johnson's car, but was pushed off onto the pavement, her knee being injured. Rogers fought up with the car after it hit a tree. Johnson was brought before Police Judge Highway today on charges of intoxication and possession of liquor. He pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge and was sentenced to six months in the County Jail. The possession charge was dismissed.

Damages Paid to Landowners

PASADENA, Dec. 21.—Checks totaling $575.112 were issued today for payment of damages to property owners affected by the widening of West Colorado street, this city's principal thoroughfare. The largest award was made to the owners of Mutual Building Company, $56,270; B. O. Kendall Company, $52,624; Union Savings Bank Building Company, $48,127; Los Angeles First National Bank, $33,948; and Carmelita Park Company, $31,920.

WAR VETERANS TO

VAN NUYS, Dec. 21.—Members of Fernando Valley Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, will install officers for the coming year in Odd Fellows Hall, January 7, next. A. C. Henry will be seated as Commander; C. H. Nicholson and Walter Burgett, Vice-Commanders; C. B. Webb, Officer of the Day; R. B. Phillips, Adjutant and O. Durham, Chaplain.

MURDER JURY DISCHARGED

San Bernardino Hopelessly Deadlocked After Two Days' Deliberation in Hold-up Shooting

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 21.—Unable to reach a verdict, the jury in the case in which A. B. West is charged with the murder of Jesse Bowles at Victorville last August was discharged today by Superior Judge Allison after having been out since noon yesterday.

The jury, it was reported, had stood 4 to 4 for conviction of West, who was jointly charged with A. N. Morisset of slaying Bowles in a hold-up. Morisset has not been arrested and West shifted the entire responsibility for the slaying to him. West denied that he had participated in the actual hold-up, but admitted fleeing from Victorville LAWDALE, Dec. 21.—Protesting the Hollywood-Palos Verdes Park and parkways project as prohibitive in cost, and outlining preparations for a suit contesting the legality of the Alondra Park bonds, an association of 150 property owners representing Lawndale, Gardena, Lennox, Elmdale and contiguous districts, was organized as the outcome of a citizens meeting here last night. P. J. Oberer, president of the Lawndale Chamber of Commerce, was elected president and the business of the meeting was taken up with the display of maps by the engineering firm of La Rine and Jacobson of Los Angeles, showing the proposed route of the project, under present plans to be routed along Cypress avenue two miles west of the Lawndale district and of the Alondra Park assessment district, where the assessments in the two zones are $1.40 and 90 cents, exclusive of the cost of improvement of the streets and park, the engineers' report showed.

The protests last night also involved the proposed Sepulveda Boulevard extensions through this district and indicated that of Henry G. Hennessey of the Associated Oil Company, holders of extensive interests in the district. Hennessey protested not only the cost, but the uncertainty of the route of the boulevard which hampers his company in their developments, he said.

The parkway project, of paramount interest in this district, has occasioned much comment and even than perhaps any other major development in recent years. It is proposed as a 225-foot major traffic artery, paved to an adequate width with brick, asphalt or concrete, at either side with several rows of trees and shrubbery plantings. The roadway would extend, according to tentative plans in the hands of the Southern Pacific Parkways Company, from the south city limits of Los Angeles, over Cypress avenue and through the unincorporated territory intervening to the city of Torrance, and thence southeasterly through a part of Redondo and the Palos Verdes estates. Several park plans among them the improvement of Nigger Slough as a public park and purchase of available beach frontage, are included in the project.

Other officers of the organization formed last night are Frank Ewing of Lennox, vice-president; Henry Krabbenchmidt, cashier of the First Exchange State Bank of Lawndale; secretary; Frank Danford of Gardena, treasurer; and the following directors: Wayne Bogart, Gardena; O. T. Johnson, Free Black, Judge; G. B. Crandall, Gardena; J. D. McCausland, Western avenue; W. L. Cook, Lawndale, and J. A. Hines of Elmdale.

Funeral Today
for Mrs. Hey

MAYWOOD, Dec. 21.—Funeral services for Mrs. Laura K. Hey, pioneer musician of Los Angeles, who died yesterday at the family residence here, will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Myers' funeral parlor at Bell. Services will be in charge of the Woman's Order of Good Will, of which Mrs. Hey was a member. She also was a member of the D.A.R. Cremation will follow the services.

Born in Clinton, Ill., Mrs. Hey was 74 years of age, came to Los Angeles from Springfield, Ill., forty years ago. At that time she was Mrs. A. B. Jenkins and was well known throughout the city. Some of her most brilliant concert performances were given at Springfield and in Los Angeles. Her husband owned the biggest music store in Los Angeles in the early days.

Besides her husband, John Hey, she leaves a son, Alvin B. Jenkins; a daughter, Mrs. Alina Hytton, of Los Angeles; a brother, B. F. Kasper of Birmingham, Ill.; and a sister, Mrs. O. P. Bray of Indianapolis.

Bell to Vote on Water Bonds

BELL, Dec. 21.—A water-bond election has been called here for January 4, for the sum of $250,000. It is announced by City Engineer Tracy Bousman. The issue if voted favorably on, will be in effect the acquisition of the present water system, owned by a private company, or the erection of a new plant.

IDLENESS FORCES
YOUTH INTO BUSINESS

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 21.—Necessity was the mother of invention in the establishment of this city's first parcel delivery system. Donald O. Anderson, local youth, conceived the plan after he had vainly tried to secure a job. The new service started off very favorably, according to Anderson, and is meeting with the approval of merchants who have no delivery system and of housewives who do not care to carry home their packages.

POLICE GIVE BANQUET

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 21.—The monthly banquet of the Huntington Park Police Association was held last night in St. Clement parish hall, when city employees and their families to the number of seventy-five or more were in attendance. The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Harry Gray, pastor of St. Clement Church.

of Friendless Victim

ONTARIO, Dec. 21.—Effort was being made here and in other Southern California communities today to find friends or relatives of John Ransom, who was found dead in a cabin at Camp Baldy, apparently victim of apoplexy.

In the clothing of the man was found a card bearing the name John Ransom, with the address 1040 Obispo avenue, Long Beach. He had been sent to Camp Baldy by a Long Beach man to make repairs to a cabin at the mountain resort.

Effort has been made by the J. B. Draper Mortuary Company of this city to locate someone who knew the man, but have thus far failed. The body was found by attaches of the camp, when Ransom failed to appear on the job of repairing the cabin.

His age is estimated at 60 years. He is 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighed about 140 pounds, blue eyes, light gray hair, and fair complexion.

School Busses'
Route Extended

ARCADIA, Dec. 21.—Eliminating threatened annexation of the South Santa Anita school district with the El Monte district, reports have been issued from the county superintendent's office that bus service for school children in the extreme southern portion of the Santa Anita district will be extended. This action is expected to satisfy complaints of petitioners who will be asked to withdraw their petitions if the service is granted.

Whether the extension of bus service will set a precedent for other districts to demand an increase in bus facilities, caused much discussion. It is said, however, that the present bus schedule can be revised to extend service without additional cost to the school district.

City Offered
More Water

MONROVIA, Dec. 21.—Offering the city a proposition whereby an interest in the Monrovia Canyon water flow could be acquired, five shareholders have offered to sell interests representing one-eleventh of inch, or a total price of $3810. Their interests represent one-eleventh of one-fifth of the entire supply delivered through the Bradbury estate.

The offer was made to the City Council by Bertha Ingersoll, eleven shares; Pioneer Nursery, ten shares; J. P. Smith, three shares; Ray Howard, one share, and C. S. Sharp, one-half share.

The five shareholders received an average flow of 1.27 inches from January 1, 1917, to May 23, 1926, according to a chart and report compiled by C. W. Gilvins, new superintendent of the water company.

SAN FERNANDO PLANT
PACKING SPINACH CROP

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 21.—With the installation of $15,000 worth of new equipment, the Fernando Cannery Company is packing approximately 1000 cases of spinach daily. This output is expected to be increased to between 1500 and 2000 cases daily as soon as the new machinery is well broken in. More than 100 persons will be employed at the plant after the first of the year and the spinach pack season extend until the middle of March.

Packing of spinach is a new venture for the local plant. Heretofore the plant has been closed seven months of the year, the season ended in November or December.

The spinach, of exceptionally good quality, is being purchased from valley growers and the crop will be approximately 300 acres will be canned.

Before being washed under high-pressure nozzles the spinach is carefully sorted by hand and carried on a conveyor belt through the washing basins and the blancher to the canners and then to the retorts, where it is cooked by steam.

Rigid daily inspections are made by an official of the State Pure Food Department.

SAN FERNANDO TO BUY
NEW FIRE EQUIPMENT

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 21.—Bids are to be asked by this city for a modern fire truck equipped with a 600-gallon pump. The City Council, on recommendation of the Chief of the Fire Department, Cliff R. Heller, decided to purchase the additional equipment. The present truck will be retained for emergency purposes.

It is expected the new equipment will cost between $7000 and $10,000. Several hundred feet of new hose also will be purchased.

FAMILY REUNION LIKE ATHLETIC CONVENTION

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 21.—The family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Poppelmann is something of an athletic get-together. Sgt. Ray Poppelmann, one of the sons, is here from the marine base at Quantico, Va. He has played football on the marine eleven for three years. Clyde and Ray Poppelmann, the other sons, are home from the marine base at San Diego, where they have distinguished themselves on the marine eleven. All three formerly played football on the local high school team.

Active Support of Plan

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 21.—Senator Ed Mueller will present a bill to the 1935 session of the State Legislature providing for establishment here of the first State-supported college of aviation in California. It was announced today. An outlay of between $750,000 and $1,000,000 will be advocated.

The State department of finance and education will decide the question as to whether or not the institution will be in conjunction with the State college, Mueller declared, and will work out details of courses to be offered.

Army and navy officials here have offered the use of their shops and equipment and the five local schools of aviation will co-operate in the project, according to the Senator. He is being assisted in preparation of the bill by the Chamber of Commerce.

Positions as government mail pilots would be available to graduates of the college, as well as many openings presented by private aviation interests. Mueller also will introduce a measure calling for establishment of an additional Superior Court in San Diego to relieve the other five of the pressure caused by the present overcrowded docket.

Crowell D. Eddy, Eightieth District Assemblyman, is to give his full support to his "save the beaches" bill which would make it obligatory for subdividers to deed a section of beach between the ocean and the mean high tide to the public when they file their subdivision maps.

Assemblyman William Harper, Seventieth District, will father a bill designed to secure adequate fees for petit jurors, who are unpaid at the present time. The next session of the Legislature is scheduled to open January 7.

Birthday Party

PACIFICA, Dec. 21.—Judge R. M. Widney, pioneer of this section, will be the guest of honor Sunday at the home of his son, A. B. Widney of Pacifica, on the occasion of the judge's nineteenth birthday. Open house will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. after the birthday cake is served. The judge will greet his friends and acquaintances in the valley.

As one of the trustees of the former vast MacFarland ranch, Judge Widney had a prominent part in the upbuilding of this section. Besides his better-known accomplishments in the early days of Los Angeles' history, Judge Widney was responsible for much of the development in and around San Fernando.

Family Hurt in Avoiding Death

UPLAND, Dec. 21.—Swinging an automobile from Foothill Boulevard to avoid striking a truck standing on the highway, nearly caused Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beesley, their 8-year-old son and 18-month-old daughter to lose their lives last night.

The Beesley automobile plowed into another machine moving in the opposite direction.

In the resultant crash Byron Beesley received a broken leg and numerous cuts and bruises, for which he is being treated at San Antonio Community Hospital. The other three members of the party were injured, but not as seriously as the son.

The Beesley automobile was demolished.

C. B. Ward of Whitewater, driver of the second automobile, was not injured. The Beesley family lives in Mill Creek Canyon.

Home Neighborhood

ONTARIO, Dec. 21.—Midnight carols by Rocky Mountain canaries are fine in the wide open spaces, but in a residence neighborhood they are not so good, especially when the carolers try to force themselves into the homes.

Consequently a complaint was on file with police today against the practice of burrowing serenading the East E-street neighborhood by night.

One woman resident was emphatic in her denunciation of midnight rhapsodies, declaring that one of the burrows came up on her front porch and brayed lustily and long. When she opened the door to shoot him away he thrust his head through the screen door and tried to force his way into the house. "Falling in this he went out in the garden and brayed his defiance."

SANTA ANA, Dec. 21.—Sentences varying from nine months to two years in the County Jail were meted out today by Superior Judge J. B. Marks to three Huntington Beach men, Robert Turner, Joe Hammond and Lonnie Segal, who were found guilty by a jury last yesterday in connection with the charge of contributing to the delinquency of two local girls, 16 years of age.

Turner was sentenced to a term of two years. Hammond got eighteen months and Segal nine months.

In passing sentence, Judge Marks delivered scathing comment upon the behavior of the defendants, particularly Turner, who was charged with the charge of contributing to the delinquency of the girls.

Following are those who stayed in the jail: Jimmie O'Connell and Billie Peterson, San Diego; Bill Kuhnner and Phyllis Murillo, San Diego; "Pinkie" Palmer and Estelle Hildebrandt, Torrance; George and Mrs. Butler, Los Angeles and George and Mrs. Garrison.

SANTA ANA, Dec. 21.—Sherman Moore, Compton youth, who was sent to Norwalk some weeks ago by a local insanity commission after he was arrested on a charge of issuing a worthless check in Orange county, was returned to the County Jail yesterday by Norwalk authorities, who informed local authorities that Moore is sane.

MILK AT VENTURA
GETS HIGH RATING

VENTURA, Dec. 21.—This city's milk supply has the high average rating of 94.8 per cent, determined through the bureau of dairy control of the State Department of Agriculture, Max Heinemann, milk inspector of the county health office, announced today, following a surprise scoring contest. The new rating is an increase of 7 per cent over that given last April. Heinemann said, and a gain of 3.8 per cent over the rating given the county previous to the establishment of the milk-control system.

Question Mark Stops in Imperial Valley En Route While Companion Ship Makes San Diego

BY BILL HENRY
"Times" Staff Representative

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 21 (Exclusive)—Uncle Sam's aerial refueling team which is to attempt, among other things, the breaking of the world's record for continued flight beginning on the morning of January 1 is somewhat separated tonight. Maj. Carl Spatz and Capt. Ira Baker in the big trimotored Fokker Question Mark are roosting peacefully among the cantaloupes of Imperial Valley tonight while Capt. R. G. Hoyt, Lieut. Elwood Quesada and Private Rockenbach and the refueling Douglas transport plane are enjoying the balmy climate Southern California offers, having slid into Rockwell Field just at dusk tonight.

The separation is only temporary, at Rockwell Field under the command of Maj. Sneed to pounce on the big three-engined plane when it arrives tomorrow and get everything ready for the record-breaking attempt.

Maj. Sneed says his duties consist of getting the planes ready for the attempt and that all details of the hazardous flight will be given out by Maj. Spatz when he arrives. Three new beautiful 220 horsepower Wright Whirlwind engines are all ready to be installed in the big Fokker as soon as she arrives and in all probability the Question Mark will be ready for flight within two or three days. Capt. Hoyt and Lieut. Quesada report that the operations which were carried out at Washington and over Dallas were very successful and are enthusiastic over the possibility of setting a record that will be difficult to beat.

En Leno el Restablecimiento del Rey
LONDRES, Diciembre 21.—El rey Jorge sigue mejorando; pero, como sus médicos lo expresan con énfasis en su boletín de esta noche, su progreso hacia la salud es muy lento. Después de los sucesos muy alarmantes de ayer, que justificaron las noticias altamente favorables dadas a la nación, previo largo examen del paciente, y con profundo estudio de su caso, el día de hoy ha sido considerablemente tranquilo en su estado. Solo los médicos de cabecera visitaron al rey, incluso Sir Hugh Higg, quien, como dirijente, seguirá visitando al enfermo hasta que llegue al momento de dejar que cierre la herida hecha para poner el tubo de drenaje.

Dilectos esta noche otro tratamiento de rayos violetas a Su Majestad; pero no se celebró ninguna consulta especial. Todos los médicos, salvo Sir Stanley Herwit, se fueron de palacio antes de las 6:30 p.m.

El boletín que apareció en la verja del Palacio de Buckingham decía así: "Su Majestad ha pasado un día tranquilo; en su estado general revierte progreso lento, pero favorable."

La prensa y el público están bajo la impresión de que el rey paciente va rumbo al alivio y ya no se nota la ansiedad que reinaba en estas últimas semanas.

Robo de Paquetes Postales Transpacíficos

ALSATIAN ROW FLAMES ANEW

Zealot Fires on Fochot at His Paris Home

Trouble in Province Dates Back Ten Years

PARIS, Dec. 21. (AP)—Charles Henri Fochot tonight lay gravely wounded because of his success as public prosecutor last May against Alsatian propagandists accused of trying to separate that province from France. He was shot down by a Strasbourg butcher this morning in the doorway of his home. Two bullets traversed his abdomen, but he had so improved tonight that physicians held out hope for his recovery.

His assailant surrendered to the police this evening. He gave the name of Georges Benoit, 28 years of age. The police said that he had admitted being a propagandist and that he had availed himself of the opportunity in Paris for a month to shoot Fochot to save Alsace and Lorraine.

PROSECUTOR BRAVE
Fochot had a fine war record with a field ambulance unit. He was gassed twice, often commended by his chiefs and decorated. He bore his sufferings with fortitude tonight.

"What does it matter if I succumb?" he asked his wife. "If my death helps to remove Alsatian unrest, I will have done my duty of having been useful to my country to the very end and even after my death."

The twin provinces of Alsace and Lorraine, lost by France to Germany in 1870 and recovered in 1918, have not been completely loyal, partly as the result of their mixed population. An autonomist movement began about ten years ago with the support of the extreme clericals. In addition to carrying out propaganda, a military organization, Schutzentruppe, was formed for revolutionary action when the time was ripe.

LEADERS SENTENCED
On December 30, 1927, fifteen alleged leaders of the movement were arrested in Strasbourg, among them the former Abbe Paschauer. With three others, including Dr. Eugene Ricklin and M. Rose, newly elected Deputies from Alsace, he was sentenced to one year in prison and to five years' banishment. Eleven others were acquitted. Their trial at Colmar ended in a demonstration in which French and Alsatian partisans exchanged blows.

Ricklin and Rose were pardoned by President Doumergue, but the Chamber of Deputies refused to permit them to occupy the seats to which they were elected while in jail awaiting trial.

The autonomists have declared for the independence of Alsace in internal affairs while remaining under the French flag. They are regarded by most Frenchmen, however, as German agents. They have also had close connection with the communists, who from time to time have caused disorders in France.

Flying Embers From Incinerator Set House Afire
Damages approximating $10,000 was caused by a fire at 328 North Stanley avenue when wind carried live embers from an incinerator to the four-family flat and garage building near by late last night.

Two automobiles were destroyed completely, while a third was damaged seriously, according to fire department reports. Four bedrooms in the rear of the building were damaged.

Harry Friedman and Louis Honig, who occupy two of the flats, told investigating officers that a fire had been started by a defective chimney in the flat building and that escaping embers ignited the buildings and the blaze was burning furiously before discovered.

Windmill Plane Survives Tests

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21. (AP)—An Autogiro airplane, recently brought to this country from England by Harold F. Pittman, president of the Pittman Aviation Company, was given its first official tests at the Pittman Field today.

With G. C. Granger at the controls, the machine, known as the Cerva Autogiro, made several flights, all of which are declared successful. The average height of the machine was about 1000 feet.

The Autogiro has a fuselage and propeller like a standard airplane but in place of wings a stout pillar supports four windmill wings, which revolve freely and without motive power, the powered propeller of the craft carrying it forward. The machine weighs approximately 1800 pounds.

For a year there had been rumors of an epidemic of influenza in Asia and Europe. But it was not until September 1918 that the first case in this country broke out. The case was on the United States Receiving Ship stationed at East Boston, Mass.

In an incredibly short time many recruits were down with the "flu," and the ship's sick bay was full to overflowing. Realizing the seriousness of the situation, and the inadequate quarters on board the ship, the Massachusetts State Guard Medical authorities volunteered their services in order that the patients might be removed to hospitals.

This work was undertaken under the direction of the late Surgeon-General, Dr. Wm. A. Brooks. A tent hospital was established on Corey Hill, outside of Boston, a corps of doctors and nurses assembled, and a detachment of the State Guard ordered out on duty to police the camp and generally aid in the treatment of the sick. The sailors from the ship in East Boston were rapidly transferred to this hospital camp.

Los Angeles Trackage Issue Disposed Of

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—The Senate Committee on Military Affairs today reported favorably the bill introduced by Senator Shortridge authorizing and directing the Secretary of War of the United States to grant a right of way across the Benicia Arsenal reservation for the Southern Pacific to perfect the construction of a railroad bridge to replace the Benicia car ferry which delayed many through trains. The bill probably will pass the Senate after the holiday recess. An identical bill in the House also will be expedited.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has approved the bridge plans.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today approved acquisition by the Southern Pacific Company of control of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company by purchase of the one-half stock interest in the company now owned by the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company.

The Interstate Commerce Commission also issued certificates authorizing the Southern Pacific Company to operate under trackage rights over a portion of the line of railroad of the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company in Los Angeles county.

The purpose of the trackage rights is to enable the applicant to switch directly to the Los Angeles Union Stockyards, instead of having it done by the Salt Lake and also to give it direct connection with the Los Angeles Junction Railway. The latter serves the so-called Central Manufacturing District, and also other industrial properties in the vicinity, but connection therewith by the applicant at present must be made either through the

What World Needs Badly, Says English Professor, Are Some Withering New Swear Words, Because Old Curses Have Lost Their Force and Face Oblivion

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—There is a good opening for a bright young man to invent some new and withering profanity. For, according to Dr. Burgess Johnson, professor of English at Syracuse University and authority on profanity, there are no effective swear words left.

Three hundred years ago if one man told another "go to the cursed one" he would take the curse off himself.

Nowadays, Dr. Johnson, who lectured at the Executive Club luncheon today, said such a curse would be merely a joke.

SOVIET FIGHTS BREAD PRICES

Scores Put Under Arrest for Illegal Sales

Moscow Assured of Ample Holiday Supply

Peasants Mail Foodstuffs to Village Folk

RIGA (Latvia) Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—In order to force down the price of bread in private shops before the Christmas holidays, the Moscow cheta made 120 arrests of shop owners together with a number of employees of government bakeries who were charged with selling bread illegally. The property of the prisoners already has been confiscated and they are being sent to Siberia, according to the Moscow newspaper Ivestia.

The population of Moscow should not get panic-stricken, continues Ivestia, reporting that the bakeries are producing two pounds of bread daily per inhabitant and while the city will not be able to eat white bread during the holidays there still will be sufficient gray and black bread.

The chief reason for the long lines before bakeries in Moscow and other cities, admits the paper, is the arrival of peasants from surrounding villages who are buying bread and mailing it to their relatives, thus creating a shortage.

The Moscow postoffice for the last two months has been sending like a bakery because of the numbers of packages mailed to the hungry in villages. A special meeting of the Moscow soviet Monday decided to order the postoffice not to accept further packages of foodstuffs addressed to villages. The ration of a pound and a half of bread for each inhabitant daily remains in force.

How the State Guard

Medical Officers Fought Influenza in Massachusetts

Open air hospital for "flu" patients during the Boston epidemic when Salicon sprang into prominence.

Meanwhile, however, influenza had spread to the citizens. Deaths occurred to an alarming degree. Every preparation known to medical science was used to fight the "flu," but still the "flu" gained. The public became panic-stricken. By Saturday of the first week the hospital at Corey Hill was full and the epidemic was spreading at a rapid and fatal rate.

AND THEN—
At this point let us go back some years so that you may understand more fully what happened later.

About 1860 an important scientific discovery had been made, known as Salicylic Acid. This preparation was found to possess remarkable medicinal virtues. Used internally it stopped pain promptly. In addition, it acted as a germicide in the blood. It was the first germicide discovered that could be safely used in this way. However, salicylic acid in its crude form was highly irritating to the stomach and therefore could be given in very small doses. So chemists and physicians undertook to find some way of controlling its good qualities and eliminating its harmful ones.

Soon many salicylic acid preparations were introduced to the medical world. Each one showed some advantage over its predecessor, but none were capable of being given in large enough quantities to accomplish their big results.

In 1900 some German chemists thought they had successfully solved the problem. They produced an acetate of salicylic acid—or as they called it a "mono-acetic-acid-ester of salicylic acid." This they introduced under the trade name of aspirin.

While aspirin marked a slight improvement over the preceding salicylates, the maximum dose that could be given in 24 hours to the normal patient was 40 grains. That is less than one third of what is actually required to sufficiently change the blood stream.

In the winter of 1917 and 1918 certain Boston chemists after long experimenting, devised a salicylate which,

"Flu" nurses at work in open air during the epidemic.

If required, could be given in almost unlimited quantities without producing disturbing after-effects. They called this new preparation Salicon. But as they were very busy, during that busy wartime period, with other important work, they took no steps towards marketing Salicon.

That was the situation when the "flu" epidemic hit Boston.

At the close of the first week of the epidemic the doctors were almost at their wits' end. It seemed impossible to make progress. The cases were multiplying. The death rate was terrifying. It was at this moment that in some way the United States surgeons heard of the preparation which those Boston chemists had been experimenting with—something that was germicidal, yet harmless, and "might work."

It was late on Saturday afternoon that they got in touch with the president of the company that devised Salicon. He was at his home. They ordered a large supply to be delivered immediately. An hour or two later this order was duplicated by the Massachusetts State Medical Officers. The new preparation was supplied as soon as possible.

To the amazement of all concerned, its administration began to control the fearful epidemic.

At last the long sought secret had been found!

For Salicon, instead of being limited, like the old-time preparations, to doses of 8 tablets, could be given in amounts of 14 tablets and even more in 24 hours. And these large doses brought about a prompt lessening of the fever, without disturbing either stomach or heart, and started patients towards recovery. Besides "flu" cases, many cases of pneumonia yielded to treatment with Salicon. This was truly remarkable, for the form of pneumonia which developed during the "flu" epidemic was unusually difficult to overcome.

The methods and medication adopted by the State Guard Medical Officers at the various state camps were so effective that commissions from the states of Illinois and Ohio were sent to Boston for consultation.

In a Boston hospital all the nurses except one took the new formula as a preventive. None but she contracted "flu."

To illustrate how successful these methods really were, here is a single instance. On a certain island in Boston Harbor 66 out of 91 inhabitants were ill with the influenza at one time. By direction of the Surgeon-General, Salicon was given to all of them. Every one recovered. This happened at a time when one out of every 100 persons in Boston was dying!

These are examples which show the wonderful efficiency of Salicon under extreme conditions. It is a most remarkable remedy for overcoming a cold. Two tablets taken at the beginning of a cold will quickly check it.

Salicon acts just as promptly in stopping headaches and other forms of pain, and is much to be preferred to most of the older forms of medicine which, when taken in doses large enough to be really efficient, almost always upset the stomach or affect the heart.

CALIFORNIA VARSITY IN STRENUOUS WORKOUT

BEAR BACKS BARE BACKS---

And so did the linemen during yesterday's strenuous workout at Tournament Park. Although it was officially the first day of winter, Old Sol beat down so heatedly upon the athletes that they had to shed their sweaters and shoulder pads. Photo shows regular line, from left to right, Phillips, Pitt, Timmerman, Gill, Riegels, Schwartz and Avery. The three backs in evidence are Breakenridge, Schmidt and Lamb, who had not yet doffed their jerseys. Schlichting, the other back, is hidden behind Avery. Below shows Capt. Phillips being assisted in removing his pads by the veteran California trainer, Charley Volk. (Photos by Paul Birte, Times staff photographer)

PRICE DRIVES BEAR GRIDDERS

Players Get Nearly Three Hours of Drill

Athletes Go to Work on New Offensive Plays

Bancroft and Norton Due to Arrive Today

BY BRAVEN DYER

Memories of six years ago were revived yesterday with the arrival in Pasadena of Nibs Price and his California varsity. The Golden Bears last took part in a strong, pulled into the Crown City shortly after 9 a.m., and a short time later the huge squad was practicing about the Tournament Park gridiron in a strenuous workout calculated to help put the athletes in condition for the Rose Bowl classic with Georgia Tech on New Year's Day. As a half-dozen scribes watched the Golden Bears in their practice session memories of a previous California varsity came to mind. It was on January 1, 1922, that the Golden Bears last took part in a New Year's struggle, and it was this game, played at the old Tournament Park, that officially closed that field to Tournament of Roses contests. That same fall the Bears came south and helped dedicate the present Rose Bowl, beating Southern California, 12 to 0.

MULLER ON HAND

There was Brick Muller, famous end of the 1920 and 1921 teams, toasting players all over the field yesterday as he helped the boys get the kinks out of their respective systems. Brick is a valued assistant to Price now. Nibs was Andy Smith's chief aid when All-American Brick was doing his stuff. After the recent cold spell, which was felt more in Berkeley than it was here, the Bears found yesterday's warm weather a trifle hot for them. In fact, as the workout progressed the boys decided something had to be done about it, so they doffed their sweaters and shoulder pads, practicing in a natural from the waist up. Even at that there was plenty of puffing and perspiring for the workout was the first genuine drill the athletes have undergone since the Stanford game late in November. Price is evidently going right out to build up some new offensive stuff. He gave four teams several plays and had them working the new formations one after another as he kept an eagle eye on each.

Thus far all the huskies of the Tornado are able to leap and roar, though several are suffering with colds in one stage or another.

U.S.C. FIVE RALLIES TO TAKE GAME

Trojan Cage Squad Comes from Behind to Nose Out Arizonans, 35 to 34

TUCSON (AP) Dec. 21. (P)—Staging a last-half rally that wiped away a 21-11 lead that the Arizona Wildcats had gained over them, the University of Southern California basketball team made a clean sweep of the two-game series with Arizona, winning tonight's game, 35-34. The score indicates just how hard-fought the tussle was, and in the last minute of play, the locals slammed shot after shot at the hoop in an endeavor to get the winning basket but none connected and the game ended with U.S.C. in possession of the ball.

The second half opened with two substitutes for the Trojans, Harris and Smith swishing the ball through the net from all angles. After seven and a half minutes of play U.S.C. had worked the score up to 24-22 and then the Cats started scoring. Goodman and Hargis shot baskets to make the score 28-23 at the minute mark. At this time Coach Harry Anderson shot Nibley back into the game in place of Boelter and he responded with a basket which followed by another and a free toss by Mortenson, made the score 28-28, with eight minutes to go. Harris, sub for Capt. Thomas, sunk a long one to give the Trojans a lead for the first time. Nibley rung up a long one and Mortenson sunk another lengthy basket to make the score 34-28 with three minutes to go. Goodman flipped a long one in to bring the score to 34-32 and Sorenson made a short shot. Mortenson got a free throw and made the score 35-32. Hargis for Arizona snapped a short throw into the ring to make the final score 35-34.

SCRIMMAGE SLATED FOR PREP ALL-STARS TODAY

Anxious to get their charges in first-class shape for the intercollegiate game with Central High School at Fort Worth, Tex., Vic Kelley and George Hobbs have ordered scrimmages for the Southern California Prep All-Stars this afternoon. The game is to be staged at the Coliseum one week from today and will officially close the local football season.

THE ALL-STARS

The Texans are bringing the leading scorer of the Lone Star State in "Ten-flat" Bob Jordan. This chap, who plays halfback for Fort Worth, has scored 111 points this season and is regarded as one of the great field since last Tuesday. Most of the time has been spent in learning plays and formations. The coaches feel that their athletes have mastered signals and plays and are therefore anxious to see how the formations work against genuine competition.

Coach Ben Winkelman and his Fort Worth athletes are slated to leave the Texas metropolis Monday night and will arrive here Thursday. The players will be quartered at the Elks' Temple, the game being under the management of Lodge No. 99, B.P.O.E.

The All-Stars have been working out daily at Loyola College. Although nothing definite has been announced as yet, it is thought that Lane will pick Tucson for his camp inasmuch as if the Stars train there they will be able to play twelve exhibition games with the Detroit Tigers, who will do their spring conditioning at Phoenix. If the Hollywooders did their training at San Diego they would be able

Star Cleveland Shortstop Has Been Struck Out But Twenty-six Times in Last Four Seasons

BY ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (P)—It may not get the headlines, but in the book of major league baseball statistics now flying around loose there is no more remarkable record than that of Joe Sewell, great Cleveland shortstop, in outguessing the pitchers.

Sewell's batting and fielding as well as his durability are noteworthy enough but his specialty at the plate is not being fanned. The Indian star slipped a hit this year, for the official figures show he was whiffed nine times in 135 games, a better record than any other American leaguer by a good margin, but still somewhat above his average.

In the last four seasons, Sewell has struck out only twenty-six times altogether in a grand total of 617 games. This is an average of about one out in 23.5.

Producing a record of 192 hits in 1926, he was the only player to hit 190 or more in a season since 1901. He was the only player to hit 190 or more in a season since 1901.

Meets will be staged practically weekly at the Coliseum from the middle of February until May 11, when the A.A.U. championships close the track season in Southern California.

Besides its two dual meets at the Coliseum, March 2, with the Olympic Club and March 30 with California, University of Southern California will participate in the A.A.U. relay carnival, February 23 and the open A.A.U. championships. Four other meets are booked for the Trojans away from home, these being Occidental at Oxy, March 23; Stanford at Palo Alto, April 6; Fresno relays at Fresno, April 27, and the I.C.A.A.A. championships at Philadelphia, May 24 and 25.

The schedule follows:
Feb. 18 or 23—Minor City League relays.
Feb. 23—A.A.U. relays, auspices of the A.A.U.
March 2—University of Southern California vs. Olympic Club.
March 30—A.A.U. high school relays.
March 31—University of Southern California vs. Olympic Club.
April 6—Stanford vs. University of Southern California.
April 27—Fresno relays.
May 24 and 25—I.C.A.A.A. championships.

COLIMA STOPS SMITH IN THIRD ROUND OF RING GO

Bert Colima, Whittier Mexican, was awarded a technical knockout decision over Warnie Smith of Kansas last night in the third round of their scheduled ten-round main event at Hollywood.

Smith, an ancient individual with a hefty paunch in the region where the pants join the shirt didn't have a chance, Colima played around with Warnie the first two rounds and in the third spasm opened up. Sharp rights and lefts applied to the Smith mid-section coupled with hefty hooks to the head, and Referee Steve Nyland stepped in between them and raised Bert's hand. The cash customers did

Bill Lane, boss of the Hollywood Stars, and Secretary Spider Baum, return to Los Angeles today after a trip to San Diego and Tucson, where they investigated the baseball plants of both cities and endeavored to choose a spring training camp for the Stars.

Although nothing definite has been announced as yet, it is thought that Lane will pick Tucson for his camp inasmuch as if the Stars train there they will be able to play twelve exhibition games with the Detroit Tigers, who will do their spring conditioning at Phoenix. CON O'KELLY RALLIES TO HOLD MALONEY TO DRAW

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (P)—Rallying desperately in the closing rounds, Con O'Kelly, fresh from County Mayo, slugged his way to a draw tonight with Jimmy Maloney of Boston in a ten-round heavyweight battle that drew a houseful of their countrymen to the Garden. Maloney weighed 199½, O'Kelly, 193½.

Although it was a different Maloney from the man the heavyweight Tom Heeny knocked out here in a round in Jim's last previous Garden appearance, the Boston giant could not discourage O'Kelly, a clever boxer but weak puncher. Maloney slugged the moon-faced Irish lad with everything he had in every round, but could neither slow O'Kelly nor force him to give ground.

O'Kelly came with a rush after Maloney tired at the close of the fifth round. He rifled left-hand shots into Jimmy's head and body, spoiled Maloney's marksmanship and managed to stop many of the hefty shots that had threatened to puncture his midriff in the early rounds.

The decision was far from popular. O'Kelly came with a rush after Maloney tired at the close of the fifth round. He rifled left-hand shots into Jimmy's head and body, spoiled Maloney's marksmanship and managed to stop many of the hefty shots that had threatened to puncture his midriff in the early rounds.

COACH ALEXANDER'S MOTHER TO SEE NEW YEAR'S CLASSIC

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 21. (P)—The white-haired mother of Coach William Alexander of Georgia Tech journeyed west tonight with the Golden Tornado football squad in the hope of seeing her son's team trounce California in the annual Tournament of Roses game New Year's Day.

"I wouldn't miss this chance for anything," said Mrs. Alexander. "I think we have a wonderful team. I don't know much about the California Bears except what you see in the newspapers and, of course, I cannot say how we will fare against them. But I think we will win."

Mrs. Alexander has never missed a football game in Atlanta but this is her first trip to a distant

MODERATE NIBS PRICE

"HOW does it feel to be up?" "Well, I'm not up yet."

Little Nibs Price, coach of the Golden Bears, was not talking in golf terms as he trudged about the Pasadena Golf Club links with some of his assistants yesterday morning.

He was speaking of the position in which he finds himself at this particular Yuletide season after two years of rather tough sledding—coach of the undefeated conference team which, after trying two of the most powerful eleven developed on the Coast, Stanford and Southern California, will represent the West at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

"I'm not up yet."

Certainly a modest way of putting it.

Many a football tutor would consider he was pretty well over the top after the tough hurdles the California team has taken this year.

But if the Golden Bears win from Georgia Tech with its record of nine straight victories and 213 points to opponents' 49 on New Year's Day Little Nibs doesn't need to answer the question, "How does it feel to be up?"

The football world will answer for him.

He will be UP with capital letters.

THE SKINNY SHADOW

IT WAS a reminder of days gone by to see Price trudging around the Pasadena links. It was there back in 1926 that Andy Smith prepared his first "Wonder Team" for the Ohio State game. It was there that Andy put his boys through their "secret" workouts. Nibs was his chief assistant.

And Andy's shadow in those days was that skinny guy, Les Henry. And Price's shadow yesterday was the same Les Henry—just as skinny. However, the passing years seem to have told heavily on Les. He could keep up the pace for no more than seven holes, and Price, Brick Mitchell, Clint Evans and Bill Monahan, the graduate manager, were forced to do the golfing without his refreshing exertions.

Brick Mitchell is the old Oregon star who coaches the freshmen at California now. He played in two New Year's games at Pasadena. He was an end on the Oregon eleven that beat Pennsylvania 14 to 0 back in 1917, and he played with the Marines in one of the service games that took the place of the college game during the war.

THE GEORGIA TECH POWER

BRICK scouted the Georgia Tech boys in their last game of the season—the one with Georgia—and he reports that the Golden Tornado eleven is as good as they make them.

In Brick's estimation Georgia Tech is more powerful than the Alabama eleven that beat Washington, and that Alabama team contained in its line-up Johnny Mack Brown, Pooley Hubert and Grant Gillis as backfield stars, and is considered by those who have seen the majority of the New Year's Day games as second only to the Notre Dame team of the Four Horsemen days.

One of the Four Horsemen, by the way—Don Miller—is a backfield coach at Georgia Tech. Has been for four years. And isn't a bit reticent in expressing an opinion on the quality of the Golden Tornado team.

He says it should have beaten his old master 35 to 0 this year instead of 13 to 0. Says it marched right down the field for one touchdown and marched right down against the 3-yard line for a first down, whereupon the quarterback promptly forced his opening, his opponents' weaknesses and called the same play three times in a row, finally losing the ball on downs on the 1-yard line. Miller says that if Georgia Tech had scored that second touchdown in the opening five minutes of play it would have been a landslide.

He concluded his argument for Georgia Tech's strength by saying that Notre Dame played only two good games this year—the one with Army and the one with Georgia Tech.

JUST A FEW RIBS

FRANK SPEER, the bulky tackle who came west with Miller ahead of the team, is on the sidelines because of three cracked ribs.

He played most of the season before the coaches discovered the extent of his injuries and kept him out of the Alabama Poly and Georgia games. However, he hopes to be in shape by New Year's Day.

Brother Speer is very noncommittal about the situation with California. He says with a broad accent that Georgia Tech is considered very good, but he never saw that real good Alabama team in play and he doesn't know whether this year's Tech eleven is its superior or not. He says he understands that is the general opinion in southern circles.

to follow the ancient and honorable custom of strolling up and down Market street, in search of souvenirs and others chose the equally ancient but less honorable pastime of riding rubberneck cars about the city.

Crossing the big river furnished a great kick for the passengers both old and young. As soon as the long train was split into three sections and headed onto the big raft, the passengers poured off the back of the Mastodon, a most appropriate name for the mammoth ferry.

Father Lumpkin, the Texas terror, satiated his humorous sensibilities by luring a group of players to the observation platform above the tops of the cars and dropping firecrackers under the several feet. That was great fun for Father and a very pain in the neck for the victims.

EVERYBODY HAPPY

For some strange reason, however, few victims objected to the horse-play very loudly. The captain of the ferry in his cabin saw the performance of the big fullback and for some reason refrained from calling a halt. Nobody was hurt, so everybody is still happy. Dutch Paist, Phil Von Weller, "Big Boy" Holt and Warner Mirel treated themselves to a nice bit of road work just after the train crossed the river and stopped at a junction. Every time the train stops the boys proceed to hop off and stretch a leg.

The team car is on the front of the train and the four above-mentioned athletes hopped off as usual. For some strange reason the train started again after a long trip is being solved by the boys were still playing hide and seek in a pile of cross ties and they did about 200 yards of rapid road work before some team-mates could open the vestibule doors on the back of the train. The difficult task of keeping a football team in training on a long trip is being solved by the individual players, according to their own delirium.

BRUIN BASKETBALL FIVE TO TANGLE WITH LOYOLA LIONS

Coch Caddy Works' University of California at Los Angeles Bruin basketball team will try its claws on the hide of the Loyola College lion on January 4, according to an announcement made by Steve Cunningham, graduate manager at U.C.L.A. The encounter will serve as a warm-up practice game for the Bruins' opening game in the Pacific Coast Conference with Stanford at Palo Alto on January 12.

The Loyola game will also serve the purpose of giving a comparison on the relative strength of the U.C.L.A. court aggregation and the University of Southern California Trojans. The Trojan canasta toasters vanquished the Loyola Lions by an overwhelming score of 43 to 14 in a game played on the 13th inst.

British Open Champion Expects Putting and Approach Shots to Win $10,000 Open

Accurate approach shots and putts that are laid dead to the center of the cup will win the Los Angeles $10,000 open golf tournament which will be held at Riviera in January, according to Walter Hagen, British open champion, who will enter the event.

The Haig, after playing the first nine holes at Riviera in the recent pro sweepstakes, is of the opinion that the coming $10,000 open classic will be played over one of the toughest layouts in the country. In particular, on a par 4, there will be plenty of work in the traps for the unwary, he says.

Heaven's analysis of the factor where the coming battle will be most fierce indicates that he, for one, feels confident of winning the Los Angeles open, according to Durward Hays, big six committee chairman. It has been the Haig's masterful putting and clever work with his iron clubs that has won him a reputation as a British national title.

age of only six and one-half strikes-out per year. Only once a month has Joe been obliged to trudge back to the bench from the plate and it should be kept in mind that he rarely misses a game. He has averaged a fraction over 150 games for each of the last four seasons, a fraction more than the customary schedule calls for.

Ty Cobb, Tim Lincecum and Eddie Collins were noted for their ability to avoid the disaster of being retired on strikes. But not over these famous batmen were as successful in outguessing the twirlers as Joe Sewell's mark of only four strikeouts in 153 games in 1928, and nine in 155 games last season probably will stand for some time to come as a record for the achievement himself.

MORE STATISTICS

While on the subject of the vital statistics, it is interesting to note the slugging records of what may be styled the big six of the American League bunting brigade—Mussel, Ruth and Gehrig of the Yankees; Goetz of the Senators; Heilmann of the Tigers; and Simmons of the Athletics. Ruth and Gehrig naturally grab off most of the spectacular homers, but their records for consistency over the five years are not quite so good as those of Goetz, Simmons and Heilmann—if you measure their performances by the "R. F. W." yardstick which in the statistical parlance means "runs, hits and RBI."

There has been no season in the last five in which Heilmann, Goetz and Simmons have failed to bat in at least 100 games for six straight years. They have made the grade for a total of 100 games for six straight years.

GEHRIG HOLDS RECORD

Gehrig has the biggest total for any one year, 173 runs produced in 1927, but both he and the Bambino were well below the 100 mark in 1928. That was the year of Ruth's collapse and Gehrig's advent as a regular. Their team mate, Bob Meusel, experienced his only slugging slump of recent seasons in 1928.

The following table shows the runs responsible for by each of the big six for the 1924-28 period:

Year	Goetz	Simmons	Ruth	Mussel	Gehrig
1924	113	129	86	108	142
1925	113	129	86	108	142

Bancroft and Norton Due to Arrive Today

eleven. The California mentor realizes that it will take something more than a stout defense to beat the Golden Tornado, and plans to spend the first three days almost entirely on offensive work.

TWO DUE TODAY

The squad numbered only forty-five instead of the expected forty-seven because Steve Bancroft and Bob Norton had one more examination to go through and were therefore compelled to stay in Berkeley yesterday and put in writing what they know about the particular subject. Bancroft is the regular left tackle, while Norton, although a sub end, is regarded as one of the most important cogs in the California variety. Both are slated to arrive this morning.

Price surprised the railbirds a bit by shifting his backfield about. He had Benny Lane, the kicking and passing full, at one halfback and Charley Schmidt, 192-pound fullback, in his usual fullback berth, but the other two positions were occupied by young men who have been looked upon as second stringers.

They were Fred Schlichling, 170-pound junior halfback, who also alternates at fullback on some occasions, and Harold Breakenridge, 160-pound senior, who earned his letter quarterbacking last year and this season. Schlichling was in the spot usually occupied by Stanley Barr, while Breakenridge called signals in place of slipperly Leland Egan.

Price was probably merely creating an atmosphere of uncertainty among his leading backs, calculated to keep them on their toes in preparation for the big game. Nibs has always used a lot of ball carriers and it is likely that eight or nine backs will be seen in action on New Year's Day.

ELIAN WITH SECONDS

Elian and Barr were on the second-string backfield, along with Fullback Jim Cockburn and Halfback Eldred Lane, who learned his football at the Davis Farm. The latter has done little playing in important games this year.

On the line, Dolphin Timmerman, 194-pound sophomore, took Bancroft's place. The latter, however, will be back at his regular spot this morning when the Bears go through the first of two workouts slated for today.

Capt. Irvine Phillips and Russ Avery appeared at their usual end berths. These two chaps are probably the college ends on a major eleven in the country. Avery hits the 200-pound mark, while Phillips is only a few pounds lighter. Georgia Tech is likely to encounter considerable difficulty stirring California's ends, and with Schmidt backing up the line, it is hard to see how the Tornado can hope to gain much yardage on straight driving plays.

Frank Fitz was at his usual tackle position, with Harry Gill and Bert Schwart in the guard posts. Captain Roy Riegels played center. He is the smallest of the linemen, but looks capable of taking care of himself in any company.

Price feels that his boys have put on too much weight during their vacation days and plans to work them strenuously until Wednesday, when he will start easing off. Some of the players are due to lose at least ten pounds.

MILLER CHATS

Don Miller, assistant Tech coach, and Frank Speer, 200-pound coach, were present at yesterday's luncheon at the Pasadena Country Club, which brought the California coaching staff into contact with local newspaper men for an informal chat. Speer, although injured recently, secretly hopes to be able to play in the Guard post. Captain Roy Riegels played center. Al Espinosa, well-known Chicagoan, was well to the fore with a 96 Tony Longo, New York pro, also about a 96. Those tied with 97's were Harold Hutchinson of Pasadena, Art Roux of Beaumont, Joe Smith of Texas, Danny Williams of New York, F. H. Cotton of London, and S. J. O'Connor of New York.

At the present writing there is hardly a person, including the thousands of mountain goats, on this island who gives anyone but Haig an inside chance to win. "The Haig" is playing brilliant golf, and he is just as likely to go out tomorrow and clinch the title as not. Smith and Cooper are both playing great golf, however, and if anybody stops "The Haig," they appear to be the logical ones to turn the trick. Cooper, who has been playing rather brilliant golf, came out of his shell today and turned in two rounds of one golf and one round of sub par golf.

SOUTLAND FROG SHINE
Southern California professionals on the whole give good accounts of themselves. Chet Beer of Bakersfield and George Martin of the Virginia Country Club, Long Beach, had 99's. Frank Nunnally and Joe Brotherton of Los Angeles had cards of 90.

Hagen plans to mix business with pleasure tomorrow morning and will leave the St. Catherine Hotel at 6 o'clock bound on a goat hunt. Ed Durant, who has chartered Don Lee's famous schooner Invader for the winter and has Hagen as his guest, will also pursue the elusive fly-cast. Hagen plans to bag a couple of goats and return by 10:30

Hancock Company Completing $300,000 Project

Two Pipe Lines Already Laid from Refinery

An outlet seaward for the products of the Hancock Oil Company is nearing realization at Los Angeles Harbor, where the company is approaching completion of a marine loading station to cost $300,000. Additions contemplated will later swell that figure materially.

Contract for construction of a 450-foot wharf will be let within a few days, following sanction by the Los Angeles Harbor Commission, and will be rushed to completion, possibly late in January.

The company recently obtained a lease of several acres from Los Angeles at Berth 215, Terminal Island. It already has completed two pipe lines to the terminal from its refinery at Long Beach. One of 8000 barrels daily will carry light oils as gasoline and kerosene, and the other heavy oils, as crude and fuel at the rate of 25,000 barrels

Nearing completion also is the company's first tankage unit, comprising one 80,000-barrel tank and three 10,000-barrel tanks. Officials stated yesterday more tanks are expected to be added soon.

The loading station will serve tank ships of various lines, officials declaring the company has no intention at present to enter the transportation field with a fleet of its own.

LINEAR PASSENGERS SHOP AT SEA BY RADIO

Christmas shopping by radio from a ship at sea has been introduced by world-cruise passengers aboard the Red Star liner Belgenland, now en route here from New York, bound around the world with 400 passengers.

It all came about by passengers remembering after they sailed, that there were a lot of friends they had overlooked with remembrances in the rush of departure.

They placed the orders as the Belgenland steamed southward, charge accounts arranged by the liner's officials ashore, taking care of the cost of purchase until the buyers return next spring, according to a wire from Winfield M. Thompson, field agent for I.M.M., aboard the steamer. The Belgenland is due here early in January.

A. G. Albertson, assistant Coast liners from the Panama Pacific Mail Co. will leave San Francisco yesterday for the new liner Virginia, due this morning with 800 passengers from New York on her maiden voyage.

Rosendo Chamorro, cousin of the former de facto president of Nicaragua, is among the passengers on the Panama-Mail liner Guatemala, due from San Francisco this morning, and sailing tonight for Central America and New York. Chamorro and his son, Adolfo, are returning home to Managua. Others include F. M. Dean, retired after forty-five years in the customs ser-

John of Havens on a pleasure trip; Ted Bissinger, San Francisco contributor to magazines, en route to New York; Harry D. Allen, on a business trip to Cuba for the San Francisco exporting and importing house of S. H. Tyler & Co.

Morgan Farley, who has been playing Jimmie Dugan with the American Legion band, is touring the country with his show.

The Trial of Mary Dugan in London, was among the score passengers arriving yesterday from the Mediterranean on the Libera liner Lema. It is his first visit and he said he is merely pleasure bent.

Others include W. L. McClure, former newspaper man, who comes back to plead France's case after viewing her struggles; Marion Mitchell, step-daughter of Maj. J. T. Tildon, chairman of the State Harbor Commission at San Francisco, who has been hunting thrills for a year in North-West Africa.

Twenty Japanese picture brides to join unknown mates in South America, Chinese and Hindu adventurers, and a sprinkling of Caucasians, were aboard the Nippon Yusen Line's Katsuragi liner to sail from Japan yesterday and out to port for Latin America. Officers reportedly encountering a typhoon three

The sixty-four-foot United States Army L-37, passed her trials at sea yesterday and will leave under her own power soon for San Francisco, to be carried on a transport to Manila. There she is destined as a service boat with the mine-laying contingents. She was built by the Harbor Boat Building Company for $35,000 after national competitive

Ten thousand tons of cargo are kuchenbach ships' portion of the cargo to be moved in or out of the port. The kuchenbachs are the Florence kuchenbach yesterday completed discharge of 4000 tons from the Gulf; yesterday saw the F. J. kuchenbach in from the east coast twenty-four hours ahead of schedule to drop 2500 tons. The Katrina kuchenbach will load 1800 for the east coast today and the Harry kuchenbach will arrive tomorrow to pick up 1400 tons for the Gulf.

Capt. L. C. Hillingsley will be on the bridge of the Lasco cabin liner Calawai sailing at noon today for Hawaii, relieving Capt. A. A. Hillingsley, remaining here for a few days. Hillingsley, a former west

BUILDING-LOAN IN BONUS CLASS

Employees Receive Season's Distribution

Ten Institutions Announce
Yule Donation

Disbursements Add to List
Already Declared

Ten building-loan associations in Los Angeles reported distributions of Christmas bonuses yesterday to their employees. The action follows similar announcements by banks, investment and brokerage houses and a number of industries in and around the city.

The bonuses, mostly based on length of service, vary in many cases. Some associations have used a sliding-scale method in determining the individual amounts to be awarded, while others have declared one-half or one-quarter month's salary. A flat rate of 5 per cent of a year's salary was declared by two others, and a percentage of profits by a third.

Pacific States Savings and Loan Company, which has eight offices scattered through the state, has now in operation a profit-sharing plan for its employees. The plan is administered by the Bank of Italy. It differs in that a percentage of profits of each office is divided among employees of the same office. The rate is 10 per cent of the net earnings after fixed charges.

C. E. Wade, president of State Mutual, announced a bonus equivalent to one-half December salaries to be distributed among twenty-five employees. Fidelity Savings and Loan, which has a staff of sixty, said Quarterly Building and Loan of Hollywood with a staff of about 100, has each awarded 5 per cent of the year's earnings to its employees. The plan is administered by the Guaranty of Hollywood, and shares in the bonus.

Pacific Coast Building-Loan has paid a bonus to its employees of $10 to a maximum of $150 per employee. The staff, which now numbers twenty-six, has been doubled during the year in service. The plan is administered by the Guaranty of Hollywood, and shares in the bonus.

"An unprecedented period of expansion in the field of building-loan associations has been experienced this year," Edward M. Zimmerman, president of the California Building-Loan League, said yesterday. "Combined resources in the state have jumped $90,000,000, making a corresponding increase in funds available for home financing."

PROFITS IN 'TALKIES' TO BOOST BELL

Ownership of Apparatus Manufacturing Concern in
A. T. & T. Hands

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. (Exclusive)—The Bell System is inclined to view the recent outline by J. E. O'Connell, president of Electric Products Laboratories, of the growth of the "talkies" as a highly favorable factor in the company's future. The plan, which is being developed by the Bell System, is to acquire the manufacturing rights in the "talkies" and to use them in the Bell System's own equipment.

For Electric Research Products, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Western Electric Company, which in turn is controlled by the Bell System, the plan is to acquire the manufacturing rights in the "talkies" and to use them in the Bell System's own equipment. The plan is to acquire the manufacturing rights in the "talkies" and to use them in the Bell System's own equipment.

Already 100 of the 20,000 motion-picture theaters of the United States have been equipped for the "talkies" and more are being scheduled to join the ranks in 1929. The Shuberts are equipping their theater chain, while abroad the motion-picture producers are planning to follow the lead of the American companies in offering the "audible cinema" as a lure for the shillings, francs and other coins of the realm of their foreign audiences.

This three-year plan is being carried out by the Bell System, which is also making plans for further expansion. The profits and royalties involved in the making of the "talkies" apparatus have been a closely guarded trade secret. They must, however, be large to justify the rapid and expensive expansion that has taken place, and will eventually find their way into the hands of the American Telephone and Telegraph via dividend payments of the Western Electric Company.

All of which means an exceedingly high rate of return on the investment of the billion and a half dollar telephone holding company.

Rumor of Huge New Merger of Banks Current

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (Exclusive) Wall street was stirred today by reports that officials of the Manufacturers Trust Company and of the Interstate Trust Company have met and discussed a plan for consolidation with the State Bank and Trust Company in a $500,000,000 deal. The rumors of this new merger come on the heels of yesterday's announcement of the merger of the Bank of Manhattan Company and the International Acceptance Bank, also a half billion dollar concern.

Although there has been as yet no official confirmation of the merger, it is expected that the terms of the deal will be announced shortly. It is believed that the combination will, if completed, adopt the name of Manufacturers Trust Company and that Nathan S. Jones, president of that institution at present, will head the new company.

The merger was reported yesterday through the Financial and Industrial Securities Corporation, of which Ralph Jones is chairman. At his office late this afternoon Ralph Jones admitted that there was a plan for the merger, but was unwilling to comment further.

An idea of the size of the merger may be had from the fact that it would unite institutions having together deposits in excess of $400,000,000 and banking offices scattered through greater New York numbering fifty-five. The deal will make the Manufacturers Trust Company one of the greatest in New York.

The State Bank and Trust Company which contributes more than $100,000,000 in the merger is headed by Harold C. Richards.

Kinner Airplane to Move Plant

Kinner Airplane and Motors Corporation has leased a new plant at Colorado and San Fernando Boulevards, Glendale, comprising approximately two and one-half acres of floor space. Robert Porter, chairman of the board, announced yesterday the company has already begun the movement of equipment to the new location to be in readiness to begin production right after the first of the year. It is expected that a production schedule of fifty motors a month will be maintained from the start. Mr. Porter said. Orders on hand, he stated, will keep the company busy for several months. The old plant at the Glendale airport will be kept for experimental and testing work.

JERSEY COMPANY BEARISH

Oil Industry Warned by "The Lamp" That New Discoveries Portend Poor Results in 1929

BY EARLE E. CROWNE

Upon the eve of closing a successful year for petroleum companies and their stockholders, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey through its official organ, the Lamp, has tossed a liberal dose of cold water on the prospects for 1929. The New Jersey company is decidedly bearish, and doesn't mince words in so stating.

From the array of arguments put forth in the article, which was released yesterday, it is possible that some of stock market operators interested in the oil shares may have to revise their plans. Many of the pool operators in the oil shares have announced that the advance would be resumed after the first of the year, but if the Standard Oil analysis is correct, only special developments, such as the consolidation of stock dividends, rights, etc., will have the power to propel the oil shares upward.

WEST COAST FEARED
New discoveries of oil fields, particularly in California, are among the chief threats envisaged by the Standard Oil company. The company is afraid that the new discoveries will result in a large oversupply of oil, which will bring down the price of oil and, consequently, the price of oil shares.

Through gains from new fields, the fear is expressed that there will be a large oversupply next year, bringing much lower price levels than have prevailed in 1928.

Speaking of the west coast, the article says:

In this region there are great possibilities in the intensive development of the intermediate and deep seas at Santa Fe Springs, where there are more than 200 drilling operations now in progress with ninety of them nearing completion. Wells so far completed have produced an average of 4,000 barrels of oil per acre. The company is confident that the new discoveries will result in a large oversupply of oil, which will bring down the price of oil and, consequently, the price of oil shares.

SANTA FE BUYS NEW RAIL CARS

Announcement of Order for 4575 of Different Types Made by Official

A new order for 4575 freight and passenger cars to be delivered to the Santa Fe Railway system in 1929 was announced yesterday at the local general offices of the company by F. J. MacKie, acting assistant general manager of the Coast lines.

In the order is included ten combination chair and smoking cars, ten chair cars, ten combination cars for Texas and Louisiana lines, sixteen seventy-foot baggage cars, fourteen mail and baggage cars, eighty-and-one-half-foot dining cars, thirty-six seating capacity, and two business cars for superintendents, totaling sixty-four. All of these cars are of steel construction and of the latest design.

The freight equipment ordered includes 2000 box cars, single sheathed; fifty-ton capacity; 400 gondola cars, mill type, seventy-ton; 100 gondola cars, hopper, seventy-ton; 500 refrigerators, car, forty-ton; 150 gondola, seventy-ton; 200 flat cars, fifty-ton; 500 stock, single deck, forty-ton; 200 stock, double deck, forty-ton; 120 caboose, all steel, making a total of 4575 cars.

Delivery of the new equipment is expected to begin soon after the first of the year, and the refrigerator cars are promised in time for the rush of the California fruit and vegetable shipments next summer.

The Emsco Derrick Board Votes to Split Up Stock

Directors of the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company have voted to change the capital stock of the company from $100 par value to no par and issue stockholders eight no par shares in exchange for each share of the old stock held. E. M. Smith, president, announced yesterday.

Dividend action on the new stock will be taken at the next directors' meeting scheduled for January 2, Mr. Smith stated. The rate on the old stock is now 8 per cent, annually having been raised from 7 per cent in the last quarter. The date at which the exchange will become effective will be announced following ratification of the split-up by the Corporation Commission.

By this change in capital structure Emsco will have 400,000 shares of no par stock. The new stock is against 50,000 shares of $100 par value, which is the total amount authorized. A few weeks ago stockholders were given the right to subscribe to one new share for each nine held at $100 a share. The stock recently achieved a high at $300 on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, and closed yesterday at $290.

PAPER CANADA'S MAIN PROP

Output Including Pulp Valued at $219,329,000 in 1927; Industry Largest in Dominion

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Canada's largest industry is in paper and pulp. Its 123 pulp and paper mills for 1927 turned out a gross value totaling $219,329,000, while the disbursements for salaries and wages amounted to a little more than $48,674,000.

In the manufacture of newsprint paper Canada now leads the world, with an output of 2,062,000 tons, valued at slightly above $122,000,000. The United States, which is second, produced 600,000 tons last year. Paper is made from pulp wood. Charles Stewart, Canada's Minister of the Interior, says Canada has much pulp left. It is estimated at 1,344,000,000 cords, widely scattered throughout the Dominion.

What effect paper production from cornstarch will have on the pulp business in the future can only be guessed.

Some believe a very pronounced one.

"We can now say that 1928 has been the banner year in automobile production," Ray Prescott, automobile statistics editor, told me.

"The total production will run around 4,000,000—about 100,000 above the record. Of this number, about 4,000,000 are passenger cars, the remainder trucks. In my opinion the first half of 1929 will see the biggest first half-year in automobile history, with a possible production of 3,000,000 cars."

Studying the figures one is impressed by the fact that since 1924 the biggest per cent increase in cars has been in the high-priced ones—not, as might be thought, in the cheaper ones.

This would indicate a high degree of prosperity, and is in itself a good index of the general well-being of the nation.

What will France do? Will she agree to accept the United States proposal for adjusting her war debt, totaling more than $30,000,000, or will she wait?

Premier Poincare is reported undecided. It is not so easy to hold out, for if France does not accept the proposal, she will have to pay more than $400,000,000 this coming year in a special post-war debt which France owes the United States, but which is now included in the form of settlement of the United States has proposed to France.

Perhaps Germany, at the proper time, will make France an offer of $400,000,000 provided the Rhineland is evacuated and the Allied troops withdrawn.

Should France accept, that would enable her to meet her $400,000,000 debt to the United States for the war supplies purchased after the armistice, and thus, with this obligation discharged, she would have the chance to demand a new war debt settlement. Germany could ship some of the gold she has been accumulating to New York to establish her credit there and float a $400,000,000 loan in America.

While this story has been going around, one writer suggests that a "transfer" of $50,000,000 in gold from Berlin to New York would be sufficient to justify the success of a German loan of the full $400,000,000 in the United States.

Utility Plans to Split Up Stock

CLEVELAND, Dec. 21. (Exclusive) Directors of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company, a subsidiary of the North American Company, have called a meeting of stockholders for January 9 for the purpose of voting on a proposition to increase the authorized no-par common stock to 3,000,000 shares, a change in the outstanding stock of 168,298 no-par common to 1,682,980 no-par shares and a change of the outstanding 8000 preferred shares to 40,000 no-par common.

There would be outstanding a total of 1,702,980 no-par common shares. This is in effect a ten-fold split-up of the present common stock and eliminates the old preferred. The regular quarterly dividend of $2.50 on the present common was declared payable January 15 to stockholders of record the 11th inst. The board authorized $11,000,000 to be spent for extensions and improvements in 1929.

Cudahy Packing Offers Rights

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (Exclusive)—Cudahy Packing Company is offering to common stockholders subscription rights to stockholders of record, January 4, 1929. For every ten shares of common stock which the stockholder owns on that date he will have a right to subscribe for one new share at par ($50).

The directors also at their meeting yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1 per share on the common capital stock payable January 15, next, to stock of record January 4.

HALF SESSION ON MARKET MONDAY

Los Angeles Stock Exchange and Los Angeles Curb Exchange will close next Monday at 12 noon, the board of governors of the respective institutions announced yesterday.

San Francisco Stock Exchange and San Francisco Curb Exchange have voted to remain open until 1 p.m. No action has been taken by the members of the New York stock and curb markets.

Children of Playgrounds
Will Appear in Program on City Hall Steps

Children of the municipal playgrounds tomorrow will present a civic pageant on the steps of the City Hall, to which everyone in Los Angeles has been invited, according to the proclamation of Mayor Cressy issued yesterday.

"The Spirit of the Christmas Message," as the pageant is entitled, will present a cast of 600 playground children and a chorus of 500 carol singers. The tableau has been designed in the Mayor's message as the community Christmas celebration of Los Angeles.

The Playground and Recreation Department has announced two performances, the first at 8 p.m. and the second at 6 p.m. The spectacle will form the climax for Los Angeles' Christmas out-of-doors program.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS TO BE PRESENTED TODAY

Christmas plays will be presented at five more municipal playgrounds at the end of a week of Christmas programs in which practically all the Los Angeles municipal playgrounds have participated.

The program today consists of the presentation of "Old Gentleman Gay" at two playgrounds, "The Tree Triumphant" at two grounds, and the operettas "Kay and Gerda" and "Santa Claus Discovered" at the fifth recreational center.

The program for today follows: 2:30 p.m., Starlette Playground, "Old Gentleman Gay." 3:30 p.m., Anderson Memorial Community House, "The Tree Triumphant." 7:30 p.m., Evergreen Playground, "Kay and Gerda." 8:30 p.m., Santa Claus Discovered.

7:30 p.m., Hazard Playground, "The Tree Triumphant." 8 p.m., Hayward Playground, "Old Gentleman Gay."

Temperature
Rise Indicates
Cool Snap End

The backbone of the cold snap in Southern California was reported breaking last night with temperatures forecast at one degree or more higher than those of Thursday night.

F. D. Young, government meteorological expert for the citrus district with headquarters at Pomona, declared that while temperatures nearly freezing might be expected in some districts, he does not believe any smudging will be necessary.

Officials at headquarters of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange declared that no damage to citrus fruits in Southern California has been reported to them.

STREET FUNDS ALLOCATED

Council Adopts Committee Reports Disposing of
About $10,000,000 for Improvements

Allocation of road and street funds amounting to approximately $10,000,000, was approved yesterday by the City Council in adopting two committee reports. One was from the County Affairs Committee, comprising Councilmen Davis, Sanborn and Foster, and disposed of $563,577 of the county goodroads fund which has been allocated to city streets.

This report was adopted unanimously. The other report was from the Allocations Committee, comprising Councilmen Lewis, Randall, Davis, Ingram and Sanborn, and dealt with the money available from the special 8-cent traffic fund. Councilman Cullen objected to the fact that the Maple-avenue project was given better treatment than the extension of Vermont avenue and, accordingly voted against the report. He was the only negative vote. The report had eleven supporters.

Poor Will Be Remembered
With Baskets

The Christmas messages of good will to men brought to the peoples of the earth with the birth of Christ at Bethlehem will be presented from hundreds of Los Angeles pulpits tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday in what will amount to a three-day celebration of the event.

Elaborate preparations have been completed by the 300 evangelical churches by the city as well as by the many Catholic, Christian Science and other denominational congregations to make this Christmas a religious festival of good cheer, devotion, mutual understanding and tolerance. The many churches will celebrate with music, sermons and pageantry, the majority of them beginning at services tomorrow morning.

Withal, the poor will not be overlooked, according to plans announced yesterday, which call for the delivery of thousands of Christmas baskets to the city's needy.

Dozens of baskets filled with Christmas dinners will be sent to the homes of the poor on Christmas Day by members of the South Park Baptist Church, according to announcement made yesterday by Rev. S. Fraser Langford, the pastor.

The choir and glee clubs of the church will participate in the city-wide carol service, sponsored by the park board, and also will sing "The Christmas Adoration" at the church tomorrow evening. Tomorrow morning Mr. Langford will preach on "The Miracle in a Manger." Mr. Langford announces that the church's free clinic is open to those in need on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

FIRST METHODIST

The cantata, "The Messiah," by 150 trained singers, will feature the services at the First Methodist Church tomorrow evening. Soloists will include Lora M. Comer, A. M. Elliott, Ivan Edwards and Fritz De Bruin. Louise Stone will be the violinist. Frederick Vance Evans will direct the singing and Albert Tuttle will preside at the organ. In the morning Dr. E. E. Helms will preach on "A Leaf From the Bethlehem Inn Register."

PAGEANT POSTPONED

Rev. William C. Isett, pastor of Union Church, announces that the pageant which was to have been given at Carthay Circle Theatre on the morning of the 27th inst. has been postponed indefinitely on account of the illness of some of those who had been rehearsing for leading parts. Mr. Isett will preach at Union Church tomorrow morning.

"BELLS OF CHRISTMAS"

Services in honor of the anniversary of the birth of the great Nazarene will be conducted tomorrow morning and evening at Wilshire Boulevard Congregational Church, of which Dr. Thomas Harper is pastor. In the morning, following a musical program, Dr. Harper will preach on "Bells of Christmas." The evening program will be featured by the cantata, "The Adoration."

"GOOD TIDINGS"

Services at 10 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. with the same music and sermon at both hours will be conducted tomorrow at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor, will preach on "The Good Tidings of Christmas Day." The evening series will include a sermon on "Christmas Eve in Bethlehem, Paris and Los Angeles," a musical program and a candle-light service by the girls' chorus. At 7:30 p.m. tomorrow Dr. Smith will preach at Hollenbeck Home.

"HOPE OF THE WORLD"

Berkeley B. Blake, field secretary for Unitarian churches on the Pacific Coast, will preach on "The Child and the Hope of the World" tomorrow morning at First Unitarian Church. A musical program in keeping with the spirit of the season will be rendered by the quartette. In the evening, following an organ recital by William J. Krav, Dr. Alfred Benishimol, principal of Belmont High School, will speak on "The Place of Religion in Education."

FIRST CHRISTIAN

A candle-light service in which forty singers will be directed by Loren Robinson will feature the services tomorrow evening at the First Christian Church. Mrs. Theo

Cost of Haulage Becomes Issue in Question as to Lowest Bid Made

Included in a number of contracts for materials to be used in street improvements awarded yesterday by the Board of Public Works was one for an oil and mineral aggregate mixture for paving. Both contractors made their price bids at their plants. It is estimated that the value of the contract is about $160,000.

Three contracts for crushed rock were awarded for delivery at different locations, one for 2500 tons a month, the second for 1200 tons a month, and the third for 2000 tons a month. These contracts, as well as all the others awarded yesterday, are to run for a six months' period from January 1.

Two cement contracts were placed, one for delivery of 1000 carloads a month and the other for delivery in less than carload lots of 2000 barrels a month. Another contract placed calls for the delivery of 400 tons of asphaltic cement a month. A total of 1800 tons a month was called for in two sand contracts awarded, and another contract calls for the delivery of 600 barrels of fuel oil a month.

Jury Disagrees
on Will Validity

Following a trial for several days before a jury and Superior Judge McClellan, the jury failed to agree on the validity of the will of the late Mrs. Mary C. Walters, who died on August 21, 1927, leaving an estate valued at $14,299.

The will was contested by three grandchildren of the deceased, Alfred J. Brunson, June Brunson, and Elmer Earl Walters, who had been cut out with $25 each. The will provided that the bulk of the estate go to three sons and a daughter.

RABBITS TO FALL IN CLEAN-UP

Great Hunt Planned in Antelope Valley to Wipe Out Pests as Asked by Ranchers Who Think 50,000 Will Be Bagged in Round-up

One of the greatest rabbit hunts ever to take place hereabouts is being planned. The hunt will be in the near future in Antelope Valley, according to L. S. Neville, chief deputy county horticulturist. It is expected that 50,000 jack rabbits will be bagged.

The hunters will be ranchers, county officials, humane officers, regular hunters and small boys.

According to the county of ficer the rabbits, unprotected by any game law, have been classed as pests by the ranchers of the valley who ask that a war of extermination be carried on against them.

Neville has asked for the aid of the State Commission for the Protection of Children and Animals in devising ways and means of killing the rabbits by means of gas after they have been driven into a huge tent. Drives on the rabbits have been held recently in sections of the valley, according to Neville. Men, women and children participated in them.

"We want the animals killed in the coming drive to be in good condition," Neville declared "because of an offer of $2.00 a dozen from packing concerns."

The money, he said, will be used to help defray the expenses of the drive.

BROTHERS MEET

Deputy Chief Shand Receives Visit from Kin
He Never Saw

When Deputy Chief of Police John L. Shand got back to his office from lunch yesterday, he found a stranger awaiting him. The latter asked:

"Is your name Shand?"

"It is," The Deputy Chief replied.

"My name's Shand, too," said the stranger. "You're my brother John, of course, although you probably did not know it until this minute."

The stranger announced himself as Charles Shand, a nurseryman of Bar Harbor, Me. He came to the United States one year ago. John L. Shand left the family home in Scotland forty-five years ago, and came to Los Angeles.

The brothers had not met until Charles arrived here yesterday. Chief Shand promptly invited his brother to visit him during his stay here—and get acquainted.

Climaxing several months of sensational investigations, the county grand jury yesterday suddenly plunged into another inquiry involving an asserted $500,000 irregularity in the city's installations and removals of patented sewer flushing devices in various assessment districts. It was learned last night from authentic sources apart from the grand jury.

The new investigation, described as one of the most important of the many the jury has conducted this year, started abruptly and sidetracked final action in several pending cases. Public information says that one witness, a city official whose name is withheld, has testified and will be recalled. A number of present and former city officials are due to be called to testify.

Thousand of City's Less Fortunate Boys and Girls
at Christmas Party

At Malakiah Temple entertained Santa Claus and more than 1000 of his young admirers last night at a Christmas party held in the Shrine Auditorium. A huge tree, elaborately decorated, was the center of interest for the children until Santa Claus appeared and took his place upon the stage.

Each child was given a shopping bag as he stepped upon the stage. These bags were bulging with toys, fruits, nuts, candies and other Christmas goodies.

The party was arranged for the children of the poorer districts, and Shriners and their ladies have been busy the past week decorating the tree and preparing the fairy palace of the snow capital for the reception of Santa Claus and his guests. This was the fourteenth annual Christmas tree party arranged under the leadership of Noble James W. Jump.

Large Stock of Food to Grace
'Newsie's' Table

With the principal items to be two tons of turkeys, with the fixin's and 3000 pints of milk, employees of Fred H. Solomon yesterday began assembling a stock of food worthy of starting a corner market for the thirteenth annual Newsboys' Christmas Dinner to be given by Solomon at his Grand-avenue ballroom Christmas morning.

In addition, the menu for the 2000 paper merchants will include hundreds of pounds of oranges, apples, pears, tangerines and nuts. Each of the guests also will receive a candy cane, a ginger-bread Santa Claus, a box of candy, an American flag and a copy of a prize-winning essay on the Constitution.

Child Killed
by Automobile

June Nottebrock, 7 years of age, was killed last night when struck by an automobile as she dashed across the street in front of 5800 Compton avenue.

According to officers investigating the accident, Joe Graovac of 1123 South Kearney street, Bell, was unable to stop his automobile when the child rushed in front of him and she was hurled to the side of the street. The girl was dead when the ambulance arrived.

The child resided with her parents at 1433 East Fifty-eighth Drive.

SANTA PAYS VISIT TO CITY

Initial Appearance of St. Nick Takes Place at Hollywood Studio Club Benefit

Santa Claus paid his first official visit to Los Angeles last night, dropping down the wide chimney at the Hollywood Studio Club on Lodi Place and surprising forty-one youngsters who thought he might miss them this year.

The Studio Club organization itself, a subsidiary of the Y.W.C.A., provided a Christmas dinner for the children starting at 6 p.m. last night. Santa Claus, who in other garbings, might be recognized as Louise Dresser, film character actress, appeared around the Christmas tree at 7 o'clock and each child was given a box of presents.

Adult guests at the Christmas party were Mrs. Cecil De Mille, Mrs. Cecelia White, W. A. Callender and Mrs. J. S. Sanders, all members of the committee of management of the club. Assisting in caring for the youngsters were Miss Marian Mel, head of the women and children's division of Central Casting Bureau, and Mrs. Rose McQuoid and Miss Ruth Campbell, also on the Central Casting staff.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

KING GEORGE has not suffered in vain.

British newspapers are candid in the regretful admission that Anglo-American relations have not been so unfriendly since the American Civil War. But I think that the critical illness of the King has induced a new feeling. We forget secret treaties and remember that, after all, the English are a fine, friendly people, and that the monarch whose life has been hanging on a thread is a simple, lovable fellow.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The party of Arizona and Florida people who went out in an airplane and slaughtered a herd of buffalo with high-powered rifles have other joys ahead of them. On the way home the Florida members of the party can stop at the Chicago stock yards and butcher a couple of steers—which would be thrilling sportsmanship by comparison.

THE AGE OF THE WORLD

When I was a little boy in Sunday-school the teacher there told us that the world was just 6000 years old. To hear her talk, one would think she still had the kettle in which the sphere was manufactured.

The Berkeley expedition which has returned from New Mexico shows a pair of attitudes toward the relics of the Miocene Age, which was a mere 7,000,000 years ago. Their interest is centered on some remarkable relics of the Permian Period, which dates back 75,000,000 years.

It is the belief of nearly all archeologists that the lost chapters of human history will be found in New Mexico, whose soil and climate preserve relics that would be absorbed by the mud and slimes of less dry climates.

GERMS OF CRIME

The seizure of $5,000,000 worth of dope in New York is a story appalling in its potentialities. Each dollar of this hidden poison is a crime in the making. It is safe to say that three-fourths of the gang murders, the hold-ups and the wanton crimes of violence start with a "shot in the arm."

WE EXPECTED MORE

The lighter side of our modern Goliaths is disappointing. One would fairly expect that Mr. Jack Dempsey, in his moments of playfulness, would be found juggling elephants by the tail; picking his teeth with the North Pole or swimming up Niagara Falls. On the contrary, we are informed—grief-laden item—that he is going back to New York to see his whippersnaps.

AND WHAT OF IT?

My idea of nothing to worry about is whether Mr. Eugene O'Neill has decided to remain in Shanghai for his nerves or go somewhere else for his nerves. In his frenzied excitement over this problem the Associated Press seems entirely to have forgotten the slight incident of a famine that threatens 50,000,000 starving Chinese, and a mobilization of troops that threatens another and still more terrible war.

ESTATE WAITS LOST MAN

Charles Gammon Wagstaff, a native of England, who left West Belkirk, Man., Can., about thirty years ago, bound for Los Angeles with a theatrical company, is entitled to $10,000 from an estate if he can be found, according to a letter received by The Times yesterday from John J. Dwyer, attorney, with offices at 40 Wall street, New York. Mr. Dwyer said Wagstaff had not been heard from since he left West Belkirk.

Bitter Words in Theodore Roberts's Will Laid to Family Clash of Early

FINAL BEQUEST SURPRISES HEIR

Nephew Receiving Estate of Actor Now Here

Bitterness Toward Family Disclosed in Paper

Document Filed for Probate Tells Cause of Acts

The fact that Theodore Roberts, beloved stage and screen actor, felt so much bitterness in his heart for most of his near relatives that he bequeathed his sole estate to a nephew, Edward R. Higgins of New York, a commercial illustrator, was as much a surprise to the latter as to the rest of the world.

"Whatever I do will be to investigate the cause of bitterness in the will which, I think, was merely a sick man talking," said Higgins yesterday after the will was filed for probate in the Superior Court.

"It may be that he felt as he did because he and I were the only members of the family who went out to shift for ourselves when young."

Higgins also added that he believes Mr. Roberts' resentment toward relatives goes back a generation and a time when he started to gain fame on the screen.

In fact, he said, that feeling probably started to generate in his mind over problems which arose when his mother and father were alive.

There is no mention of Roberts' former wife, from whom he was divorced many years ago.

Mention in his will of being in a prison cell relates to a term of six months the actor served in the Tombs in New York, when he could not pay his first wife's alimony. Some of the bitterness he carried for his relatives dates back to this period because of their failure to aid him at that time. He had no money and none of his relatives or friends would advance it to aid him in gaining liberty.

ROBERTS' ESTATE

"I thought nothing of it at the time and for that reason we did not go into the subject," Higgins declared.

The value of the estate, at the outside, will not exceed $20,000 in the estimation of Higgins, who was named in the testament to serve as executor without bond. A great portion of the property consists of a yacht, Sea Bee, worth between $8000 and $12,000, and the balance is made up of personal property and actors' equipment. Mr. Roberts, it is said, was compelled to dispose of his real estate holdings about two years ago due to a serious illness from which he had about recovered when he was stricken by influenza.

When he visited him about six months ago during his vaudeville tour, Higgins said, Mr. Roberts informed him that he became seriously ill. It was his wish that he come immediately to his bedside. Higgins said he was informed by wife of Mr. Roberts' illness but that the actor died while he was en route from New York.

The only other living relatives besides Higgins are a sister, Mrs. Grace R. Moore, and another nephew and a niece.

WILL REMEMBER OTHERS

Although no provision is made in the will, Higgins declared yesterday that he is desirous of presenting to George Fawcett, veteran screen actor, and C. B. De Mille and his brother, William De Mille, who were his close friends, many of the treasures and trinkets Mr. Roberts collected during his stage and screen career. It was C. B. De Mille who persuaded Mr. Roberts to become a screen actor and the two were personal friends of long years' standing. It was Fawcett who delivered a eulogy at Mr. Roberts' funeral at the Elks' Temple several days ago.

The arrangement of the actor from his family connections is referred to in various paragraphs of the will.

His statement is as follows: "I hereby state that a posthumous statement has one advantage in that it leaves no chance for a contravening reply or argument. I know that argument and the curse of my family for three generations that my experience comes. In speaking back from the farther shore, I hope that my words may convey to those of my blood a warning and example. In my experience I remember neither affection nor sympathy from any member of my family until such accomplishment had been achieved by me that affection became a part of pride in relationship."

DARKEST HOURS OF LIFE

"During the darkest hours of my life no word of sympathy or offer of help from any member of my family came to me, and I hungered for it as the wanderer in the desert thirsts for water."

"The pride that kept me silent as a neglected and unwashed child stayed with me through life through many vicissitudes and kept me silent even while in a prison cell. Now that I am beyond the influence of words said, if they have an unpleasant atmosphere over my memory, so be it."

EX-WIFE UNMENTIONED

"I am not unmindful of the fact that I have blood relations other than my said nephew, Edward Robert Higgins, and if I do not name

Notables Greet Overseas Visitor

ITALY'S AIR MINISTER IN SOUTHLAND

Gen. Italo Balbo and Party Make Brief Stop in City on Way to San Diego

Welcomed at the Santa Fe station by a notable gathering of civil, naval and military officials, Gen. Italo Balbo, Italian Minister of Aviation, and other distinguished members of his party paid a flying visit to Los Angeles yesterday morning.

The Italian visitors arrived at 9 o'clock on the Chief and left after a few minutes' stop by train for San Diego, where they are guests of the naval aviation authorities. It is expected they will return to Los Angeles, probably by airplane, this morning.

In addition to Gen. Balbo, the party includes Signor Caproni, designer of bombing planes; Engineer Marchetti, who constructed De Pinedo's trans-Atlantic plane, the Santa Maria, and other Italian officers, all of whom were guests of President Coolidge at the recent international conference in Washington. The party continued their trip to aviation in this country.

The Italian visitors were welcomed to Southern California by Italian Consul Capt. Gradengo, P. M. Andreani and other outstanding figures of the local Italian colony, as well as members of the Chamber of Commerce, the National Guard, a representative of the United States battle fleet and Regular Army officers.

The Italian visitors were guests of Rear-Admiral J. M. Reeves, commanding the Pacific battle fleet aircraft squadrons, at a special aeronautical review on North Island after they reached San Diego. More than 100 navy planes took part in the display. Last night the party was scheduled to remain at the Hotel Del Coronado, and this morning will pay a visit to Lindbergh Field.

The formal papers give the actor's name as Jay Nelson Roberts, residing at the Hollywood Plaza, 35 years of age. Miss Lynch is 25, and lives at 6414 Dixie street.

The culmination of the romance came as no surprise to intimates, who were aware of the couple would be married as soon as an interlocutory divorce decree granted Roberts November 1, 1934, and last year became final. Roberts filed the suit against Hope Maxine Roberts, whom he married in Salt Lake City in 1914, and charged cruelty.

Roberts came to Los Angeles about four years ago from St. Louis, where he was playing in a stock company. He has worked in films for Universal and Warner Brothers, and now is under contract with Christie Comedies. He also appeared with the Duffy Players at the Hollywood Playhouse. Miss Lynch also has appeared in pictures.

CHILDREN IN HOSPITAL

GET CHRISTMAS SHOW

A Christmas treat for youngsters in the Los Angeles General Hospital is being arranged for Monday at noon, when Lynn Cowan, master of ceremonies at the Boulevard Theater, will put on a program for children who will be confined to the hospital over the holidays. Chaplain Haring of the General Hospital is making plans to wheel convalescents to the entertainment, which will be arranged so that youngsters in the contagious ward may look through their windows at the show. Cowan will take almost the entire cast of his Yuletide revue, "Around the Christmas Tree," to the hospital. The entertainment was arranged by Ray Deussen, manager of the Boulevard, because the "Around the Christmas Tree" revue is particularly suited for youngsters.

FILIPINO CONVENTION

WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Former residents of the Philippines began arriving in Los Angeles yesterday for the second national convention of the Filipino Federation of America, which will open tomorrow afternoon for eight days.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Alexandria headquarters included members and their families from Honolulu, Washington, D. C., and numerous California cities. President Moncado said the sessions are expected to bring more than 15,000 Filipinos to Los Angeles. The convention will open at Music-Art Hall, 233 South Broadway.

AUTO VICTIM DIES

Mrs. Anna L. Taylor, 61 years of age, who was injured on the 10th inst. by an automobile driven by L. G. Wharton of 1213 Elysian Park avenue at Santa Monica and Hobart boulevards, died last night in the Osteopathic Hospital, whence she had been taken from the Hollywood Hospital. Mrs. Taylor's home was at 1215 North Hobart boulevard.

After testifying that her husband had falsely accused her of being a drunkard, Myrtle Bonillas, stage and screen actress, was yesterday granted a divorce from Capt. John S. Peters, former career army polo player, now of the films. The decree was signed by Superior Judge Schaefer.

The actress told the court that on one occasion she suffered a fall over an embankment and was injured quite painfully. Instead of sympathizing with her, Peters, she charged, accused her of being drunk. Mrs. Peters also resented her husband struck her in the presence of guests at their home.

CHINA Y.M.C.A. OFFICIAL HERE

Dr. David Yui in Southland for Three-Month Stay

Organization Work in This Country to be Studied

Conditions in Native Land Discussed by Visitor

Dr. David Yui, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in China, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday for a three months' visit during which he will study methods in the American organization.

With the declaration that the Nationalist party is well established in his home country, Dr. Yui said that a long period of prosperity is looked forward to by leaders in China.

The government is making an honest effort to stabilize and encourage business, despite the problem presented by the Manchurian situation," Dr. Yui said.

MANCHURIAN QUESTION

"Evacuation of that country by the Japanese, however, is anticipated by Manchuria's patriots because of the fact that practically the entire country is in accord on the unification plan of the Nationalist party," the educator stated.

Through efforts of the Y.M.C.A. and many other organizations, education throughout China is making rapid progress despite the gigantic task this problem presents in the provinces, Dr. Yui asserted.

MISSIONARIES WELCOMED

Further disturbances are not looked for by the visitors. He said that missionaries now are welcomed into the sections from which they were driven during the recent trouble.

Improvements of roads into the back country of China and other modern problems are receiving chief attention from the victorious political party, Dr. Yui said.

The visitor is making his home at the Figueroa Hotel while in the city.

BOYS HELD FOR TRIAL AS BANDITS

Bail Fixed at $10,000 Each for Ellsworth Sears and Douglas Bloom

Ellsworth Sears, 18 years of age, and Douglas Bloom, 19, were ordered held for trial on two counts of robbery and one of grand theft yesterday following their preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Russell. Bail was fixed at $10,000 for each, which they failed to furnish.

The two youths are accused of holding up Humbert Pierini of 1936 West Washington Boulevard on the 8th inst., and Val Rayburns of 402 South Western avenue on the 7th inst., as well as stealing an automobile from Carl H. Lundeen, 2401 West Ninth street, which they are asserted to have used in hold-up attempts. They were arrested following an unsuccessful attempt to hold up a Beverly Hills drug store, according to Dep. Dist. Atty. Armstrong.

Preliminary hearing of Sears and Bloom, 19, on two additional counts of robbery, was continued by Judge Russell at the request of Sears' attorney after the youth had posted a $10,000 bill as bail for his appearance. All three youths reside at 1818 West Eighth street, according to the police.

CHRISANDER ACTION WON BY DE MILLE

Producer Given Decision in Contract Suit Brought by Swedish Director

Following continuances from time to time, a decision was awarded the De Mille Pictures Corporation yesterday in the suit brought against the Swedish director, who asserted the company owed him $44,626 back salary. The ruling in the action was made by Superior Judge Schmidt.

Chrisander asserted that the De Mille studio engaged him to direct one picture with the understanding that at the finish of the work they would exercise an option for a year's contract at $1000 a week. If it were successful, the director further asserted that he made the picture and the company exercised the option and had him make another picture.

Cecil B. De Mille took the witness stand and testified that the engagement for the second picture was not under the option agreement at all; that the engagement was given him merely as a second chance to make good.

Accusation of Intoxication Wins Divorce

After testifying that her husband had falsely accused her of being a drunkard, Myrtle Bonillas, stage and screen actress, was yesterday granted a divorce from Capt. John S. Peters, former career army polo player, now of the films. The decree was signed by Superior Judge Schaefer.

The actress told the court that on one occasion she suffered a fall over an embankment and was injured quite painfully. Instead of sympathizing with her, Peters, she charged, accused her of being drunk. Mrs. Peters also resented her husband struck her in the presence of guests at their home.

PETRIFIED BODY CASE PLEA LOST

Deliberations of Jurors Start Today

After denial of a motion for dismissal of charges of using the mails to defraud had been made by United States District Judge Henning, in the trial of Mrs. Alice Sawyer, the defendant, Milton H. Silverberg, defense counsel, declined to present any testimony in his client's behalf, saying he is satisfied with the case as presented. The evidence will be submitted to the jury today.

Mrs. Sawyer is accused by the government with having obtained $32,000 from John L. Stutz, railroad engineer of Meridian, Miss., upon representations that she could sell the so-called petrified body of her son, Theron, to scientific foundations for from $25,000 to $350,000.

One of the later witnesses for the government was Dr. F. P. Brock of 23 Center, who testified he had communicated with the Rockefeller Foundation and learned that institution had not heard of the "petrified" body and was not interested in it.

Dr. Brock stated he had seen a letter, purporting to come from the foundation to Mrs. Sawyer, offering $150,000 for the body. The doctor declined to say whether the body was petrified.

Eunice Watts to be Freed So She May Marry

A merry Christmas is in store for Eunice Watts, 28-year-old prisoner in the County Jail. It was disclosed yesterday, for she is to be released from custody on Christmas Eve so that she may be married.

Superior Judge Edmunds is the Santa Claus, having approved the plea of Virgil Lewis, 34, of 1014 S. Watts, Attorney, on the grounds that the woman has served five years in prison and has received sufficient punishment.

Mrs. Watts is a former wife of Malcolm Louhead, airplane manufacturer, whom she married in 1918. They were divorced four years later, she stated. She is serving a term in the County Jail on two counts of forging a prescription for narcotics.

Final classification of evidence to be used against Gordon Stewart Northcott, accused slayer of small boys, was completed yesterday morning by officials and J. Clark Sellers, criminalist, representing Riverside county.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Redwine of Riverside, Deputy Sheriff Croushorn and Brewster and Sellers announced after the meeting that the State now is fully prepared to present to the jury which tries Northcott a corpus delicti in the form of human bones uncovered during the investigation of Northcott's ranch in Riverside county, where the playings are asserted to have taken place.

Norbert Savay, attorney for the accused youth and his mother, Mrs. Louise Northcott, jointly charged with him in the slaying of Walter Collins, yesterday declared there is no misunderstanding between him and Mrs. Northcott when the attorney visited the woman in the Riverside Jail Thursday.

Dep. Atty. Pitts announced yesterday that Dep. Dist. Atty. Memmes will go to Riverside the 26th inst. to aid the prosecution in preparing the cases.

Sheriff Traeger yesterday informed Riverside officials that Croushorn and Brewster are available to them for any further investigation work they intend to make on the case and as witnesses for the prosecution.

Daughter Finds Mother Ablaze

Mrs. Lottie Devore, 44 years of age, was taken to the Georgia-South Hospital from her home at 4120 South San, yesterday suffering from burns which probably will cause her death.

Mrs. Devore was found in the bathroom of her home, her clothing ablaze, when her daughter, Bobbie, 20, who said her mother was asleep when she found her. Mrs. Devore's dress, the daughter said, had ignited from a gas heater.

GIRL REPORTED MISSING

Fearing that his daughter, Mabel O'Haver, 14 years of age, had been enticed away from home by an older male companion, Alfred O'Haver of 1325 Duane street, Belvedere, appealed to police juvenile authorities to start a search for the girl yesterday. The father, according to police, said his daughter left home the 19th inst. She left no note, he said.

WIFE FREES "MILLIONAIRE HOBO" SO HE CAN CONSORT WITH "BUMS"

James Eads How, nationally known as the "millionaire hobo," also founder of the "Hobo College," was freed from the restraint of matrimony yesterday when Superior Judge Schaefer granted his wife, Mrs. Ingeborg J. How, a divorce. Mrs. How also was given the custody of an adopted son, Holger How, 11 years of age. How did not contest the suit and was not in court.

Mrs. How testified that her husband told her he would rather live with "bums and hoboes" than at home in decency and cleanliness. Belvedere, On April 4, last, Mrs. How declared. How ate his dinner and then got his coat and hat and said he was going to a hotel where all of his belongings were.

"He said he was not going to live with me," Mrs. How said. The wife said her husband told her he was going to a hotel on Fifth street where he could be closer to the hoboes.

How and his wife were married in Chicago on August 18, 1926. The wife says she spent most of the time away from home traveling around the country in the interests of the American hobo and the Hobo College. His income, she said, was a most comfortable $1000 a month from the estate of a deceased aunt.

BOY ENDS COURT DILEMMA

Lack of a Belgian interpreter halted the case of Mrs. Justin Fauconier against Pst. Fauconier for some time yesterday when called for a hearing before Superior Judge Rosenkrantz. Neither the plaintiff nor the defendant could speak English.

Attorney P. V. Ruffire for the wife and Attorney Griffith Jones for the husband told Judge Rosenkrantz that neither could speak English, but that Mrs. Fauconier needed money for food and that the husband did not want to pay her anything pending her divorce action.

But Judge Rosenkrantz wanted to hear the wife's story from her. "Is there any one in court who can speak Belgian?" asked the judge. "I can," a shrill voice answered. It was from a youth, 15 years of age, in the spectators' gallery.

The boy came forward and said they are his parents. He was sworn in as interpreter for the wife, after which the judge ordered the husband to pay $20 a month.

College Romance Revealed

Don Williams and Miss Floy C. Malcom

CUPID STOPS GRID STAR

Trojan Quarterback Williams Reported Engaged to Miss Floy C. Malcom of Long Beach

Cupid has scored a touchdown on Don Williams, quarterback of the undefeated University of Southern California football team. It was learned last night from the family of Miss Floy C. Malcom, Williams' fiancee, who is the daughter of Charles Malcom, Long Beach real-estate operator.

Formal announcement of the engagement which culminates a college romance extending over the last two years, will be made soon, Miss Malcom's mother said.

Next semester and that he and his fiancee are planning to wed soon after the engagement announcement.

The famous Trojan star, mentioned by several football experts as all-American quarterback for this season, was a former Santa Ana High School star, and was known during his three years on the Trojan varsity as the "spark plug" of his team. He is 23 years of age.

LIVES AT FRAT HOUSE

Miss Malcom graduated from an exclusive girls' school in Long Beach and entered U.S.C. three years ago, but is not on the campus this year. She resides with her parents at 1254 East Ocean Boulevard, Long Beach.

Williams is interested in property near Santa Ana and Balboa. His parents are dead and he makes his home at his fraternity house, 848 West Thirty-sixth street.

The father of Miss Malcom is a member of the Long Beach investment firm of Malcom-Davis Company. He is prominent in civic affairs there and is a former State president of the Elks lodge.

WEARS HIS PIN

Miss Malcom is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority at Southern California and has been wearing Williams' Sigma Chi fraternity pin for the last year. This was pointed out by school friends of the couple, constitutes an informal engagement in college circles.

Williams could not be reached yesterday, but friends stated that he probably will not return to school.

GRIT ENSLAVES "BAD LUCK"

Globe-Trotting Author Maintains Leg's Loss Has Resulted in His Getting All the Breaks

To be perfectly whole and to maintain an average percentage of enthusiasm for living is an achievement for most persons. But when a man 23 years of age, can regard the loss of a leg as a reason for more than ordinary good fortune, and in spite of it can win the description of "the supreme adventurer" no less a personage than Mussolini, it becomes more than an achievement.

There arrived in this city a few days ago such a young man whose eager enthusiasm and whole-souled love of life in general transcend a mere physical handicap and make him look upon his lot as a wonderful experience in which he has "gotten all the breaks."

Elery Walter, author, lecturer and wanderer, is spending the holiday season as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks, 1109 Columbia street, Pasadena, incidental to a tour which is taking him to most of the principal cities of the United States.

EARLY STRUGGLES

Left an orphan at 14, Walter found it necessary to work his way through high school and college. At high school in Seattle he was cook for a family of four and during the summers his experiences covered everything from work in a northwest logging camp to laboring in the Tampico oil fields, where he narrowly escaped death at the hands of a gang of bandits.

In 1924 he entered the University of Washington, where he was president of the 1925 class, a crew and track man and a student of Phi Beta Kappa ability. His college career was cut short by septic poisoning which developed from a bee blister and in about two years he started to Honolulu on a voyage of recuperation which ended in a trip of a year and a half around the world, covering about 77,000 miles with his foot amputated before leaving Honolulu and nineteen operations performed on the afflicted leg during the course of his wandering.

WORKS HIS WAY

All this occurred while he worked his way. He tutored English children, did publicity for chambers of commerce, wrote articles for the newspapers and even acted as courier for a party of ten American girls traveling in Europe. Almost every step of his way has been distinguished by unusual experiences and contacts with famous people and he declares that he's had a marvelous time.

"Please don't make a fuss about my leg and the operations," he said. "It doesn't depress me in the least and when you come to think of it, I've really had more good luck than bad. In some ways I think I've had a better time than I'd had my two feet. People all over the world have been fine to me and I have made some wonderful friends."

BOOK PUBLISHED

Walter has recently published a book of his experiences, "The World on One Leg," in which he recounts his adventures from the time he was 14 until his most recent trip to Europe when he had private audiences with Von Hindenburg, the Pope and Mussolini and visited in the home of Lloyd George.

Walter makes his headquarters in New York, although home, he says, is wherever he happens to hang his hat. He will be in Pasadena until after the New Year's Day football game, after which he will resume his tour.

SHE'S GLAD AS SUICIDE PACT FAILS

Young Wife in Trio Which Sought Death Reconciled to Estranged Husband

Mrs. Lucille Meyers, 22 years of age, one of the trio of persons who sought death several days ago in a strange suicide pact, is glad now she didn't die.

For yesterday she and her young husband, Victor Meyers, salesman from whom she was estranged, became reconciled. He appeared in the psychopathic court, obtained an order signed by Superior Judge Gould paroling his wife to him and left with her. So, everything is lovely again and there will be a happy Christmas in the home of the young couple.

Mrs. Meyers and Ouida Hill, 21, a former actress, residing at 3109 West Sixth street, and William Kelly, Jr., retired builder, planned, it is asserted, one of the strangest suicide pacts in the history of the city. The pact, it is asserted, was made at the suggestion of Kelly.

The two women were morbid and melancholy, Mrs. Meyers because she was estranged from her husband and Miss Hill because of illness. Kelly dropped in and suggested the pact. He entered into it, he said, because he did not want to see the girls "go out alone."

A powerful sleeping potion was purchased by Kelly which was drunk. Then a gas heater was turned on. The three all unconsciously were discovered by Mrs. B. B. Burke, mother of Miss Hill. They were rushed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where the police were successful in saving their lives.

HAWKINS WINS NEW HEARING

Sentence Execution Stayed Pending Further Evidence Concerning Probation

Johnny Hawkins, former football star at the University of Southern California, facing a term of from five to seventy-five years in San Quentin prison for burglary, started a new fight for freedom yesterday by demanding corrections in the probation officers' report, charging that it was prejudiced.

The demand was made by Joseph W. Ryan, Hawkins' attorney, in a form of an affidavit presented to Superior Judge Walton Wood. Ryan asserted that charges were filed against Jimmy Hawkins, Johnny's younger brother, with the deliberate intent of preventing Johnny from obtaining probation.

Ryan also contends in his affidavit that Rufus B. Von Kleinsmidt, president of the University of Southern California, has expressed a desire to appear in court and correct statements accredited to him and other university officials in the probation officers' report.

Judge Wood agreed to grant Hawkins a two weeks' stay of execution on his San Quentin sentence to permit a hearing on the charges.

Pastor Accused of Indiscretion in Wife's Action

In a complaint filed yesterday in the Superior Court Mrs. Mary M. Bragg seeks to obtain a divorce from George W. Bragg, asserted to be the pastor or manager of a church known as the Temple of Progressive Life.

Mrs. Bragg complains that her husband refuses to go out with her or allow her to ride in his automobile except when they go to church. The wife also accuses her husband of acting indiscreetly with female members of his congregation, particularly with Mrs. Emma Bank, his secretary.

SAMUEL AVERY RITES PLANNED FOR TODAY

The funeral of Samuel Avery, 46 years of age, will be conducted today at 1 p.m. at the First Christian Church, with Rev. Warren Graston officiating. Pierce Brothers undertakers, who are in charge, interment will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery. Mr. Avery, a salesman, died at his office last Wednesday following a heart attack. He was born in England and came to California twenty-five years ago. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Dorothy M. Avery, of 1440 West Fifty-sixth street, and a son, Henry W. Avery.

MEYER SUIT OFF CALENDAR

Action Prevents Possible Re-aring of Recent Callie Grimes-Keller Affair

Mrs. Kitty Meyer's suit for divorce asking a separation from her wealthy husband, Jacob Meyer, scheduled for a hearing yesterday before Superior Judge Willis went off calendar.

With the dismissal of the suit Meyer told the court that her husband had prevailed upon her to accept the attentions of Keller and that she had agreed to go to Europe. It was in New York, she asserted, that Keller deserted her, taking her money and jewels. She said she arrived in London almost penniless. When she returned home, she found she was divorced. She asked that a property settlement disposing of assets worth nearly a million dollars also be set aside.

Sometime afterward Meyer filed a motion asking that the decree be set aside. In support of her motion Mrs. Meyer said that she had been misled by Keller and that she had been deceived by him. She said that she had been misled by Keller and that she had been deceived by him.

The court granted the motion and the suit was dismissed. The court said that it was satisfied that Mrs. Meyer had been misled by Keller and that she had been deceived by him.

NEW PALESTINE WORK REVIEWED

Editor Bullick of Jewish Paper Visits Here

Tells of Progress Made by Zionist Movement

Will Lecture in Interest of Mizrah Branch

Momentous changes wrought in Palestine during the past two decades, agricultural, industrial and social, were reviewed last night by Gedaliah Bullick, former editor of the Daily Jewish News, New York City.

Bullick arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to head a ten-day membership drive for the Mizrah branch of the Zionist movement in Southern California. He will address various meetings while in California.

EXTENSIVE PROGRAM

"Although mainly interested in traditional Zionism," Bullick declared, "we are nevertheless working hand in hand with the more liberal wing of this great movement. We maintain two seminaries at Jerusalem, a number of schools as well as other educational institutions."

The visitor drew a glowing picture of the new Palestine, changes wrought through the Zionist movement, and which include an extensive highway program, irrigation along the Mediterranean, truck and orchard farming, as well as real-estate development.

MODERN BOOM

He spoke of a recent boom in Jerusalem which resulted in an ultra-modern suburb of that ancient city, Rommana, a town of modern houses, paved streets, electric lights and automobiles.

The Ruthenberg irrigation system is the direct result of profitable orchards drawing most of their information from Southern California growers. Just now a California method of lending oranges a golden tint is being tried out in Palestine. There are 160,000 Jews living in Palestine. Last year 12,000 immigrants from all quarters of the globe were reported.

THEFT LAID TO WOMAN TREASURER

South Pasadena Official Indicted on Charge of $12,000 Fund Shortage

Edith H. Lowry, 40 years of age, for ten years City Treasurer of South Pasadena, has been indicted by the grand jury on three counts of grand theft involving the asserted theft of $12,000 of city funds, it was revealed yesterday, when she appeared before Superior Judge Wood for arraignment under a secret indictment. She was released under $1000 bond.

Mrs. Lowry's arraignment revealed a long-hidden story of a widow's struggle to provide for two minor children, of small sums taken from taxpayers' payments to retire municipal bonds, and then of years during which the widow was forced to pay interest on the unredeemed bonds to prevent discovery, according to Edith A. Egan, deputy district attorney, who presented the case to the grand jury.

The strange part of the case, Egan stated, is that since becoming involved in the asserted theft, Mrs. Lowry has paid more than she is accused of taking to keep up the interest payments and avoid detection.

Turkey Dinner Tomorrow for Many Children

Chosen by policemen and firemen from the humble homes of the city, 2500 children will be the guests of the Breakfast Club tomorrow at a turkey dinner which is to be followed by a circus, big top and all. The children will be delivered at the Breakfast Club grounds in buses and automobiles under the supervision of seventy-five policemen and twenty-five firemen. The annual event is sponsored by the fire and police departments, the Breakfast Club and the Women's Breakfast Club, and is provided for youngsters who otherwise would have no Christmas.

Poodles Hannaford, clown, the MacFarlane Brothers, riders and ropers, Lionel Belmore, ringmaster, Elmer Meglin and Max Ashur will provide the circus, while a pair of camels and elephants from the Luna Park Zoo. Thirty-five motor buses will be needed to haul the children and twelve officers in uniform under Chief Officer Parrish will handle emergency needs. It is estimated that the youngsters will consume about a ton of turkey.

CONVICTED FORGER TO SERVE TIME

Woman and Escrow Clerk Found Guilty With Him to Get Probation Hearings

Hugh W. Nelson, convicted of twelve counts of forgery in connection with the asserted juggling of trust deeds through an escrow clerk in a local bank, yesterday was sentenced by Judge Emmett H. Wilson of Superior Court to serve from five to seventy years in San Quentin prison.

E. Gertrude Jones and N. L. Rutledge, the escrow clerk, both of whom were convicted with Nelson, filed motions for a new trial which were denied. They then filed application for probation, which will be heard January 7, next.

The three are asserted to have sought to defraud property owners by means of juggling trust deeds applying to property sold on terms.

Do go into Schwabacher-Frey's particularly interesting store at 726 S. Broadway and look over their very worth-while table of articles marked from 50 cents to $21. Gifts most acceptable will find priced in small lots at special rates are offered there will be found a container for waxed paper—mightily useful in the kitchen for the children's school lunches—then a pie knife, a salt, pepper and flour set any woman would feel acceptable, and "umptine" other equally desirable articles. It's the bargain table of the season, that's certain!

Candy-making lessons are given personally or by mail, while glass fruit and all candy supplies in small lots at special rates are offered by the Liberty Candy and Supply Company, fourth floor of the Grant Building, 355 South Broadway—Phone T.U. 4154. Call personally or write for booklet.

Any old downy coverlet you own which is badly in need of renovating and recovering can be made like new by the Western Feather and Down Works, 1205 Washington Blvd. (Westmore 9854). Their prices haven't been changed in years. Inexpensive they are while the workmanship cannot be improved upon. Do give them a trial!

When peeling potatoes, quinces or other hard fruit or vegetables, place a piece of adhesive plaster over the forefinger and thumb to prevent cuts and discoloration. To remove the plaster, simply place it in a bowl of water and it will come off easily.

The rush is on! Parties galore are planned for every day and all are merry and bright for it is Santa not coming next Tuesday morning and haven't we plenty of Coca-Cola in the ice box for friends who drop in to see what the jolly old fellow brought? Coca-Cola in the special home package of twelve bottles for 50 cents is certainly popular. We just couldn't get along without it, could we? If you haven't bought a carton yet call up your grocer now and get several dozen bottles or more.

Do you really know what happens when you die? Then read what science has actually discovered concerning after-death and loved ones gone beyond. You will be amazed at these facts taken from the wonder book of the age, "The Great Unknown," by J. R. Richardson, T.K. Send 10 cents in stamps to pay mailing. Pioneer Press, Dept. T, Hollywood.

To prevent onions from making the eyes water—Scalding water poured over onions will prevent the eyes from watering. Or, try holding the onion under cold water while peeling them, or wear a pair of automobile goggles. To peel an onion properly, hold it with a fork, cut off the top and bottom and the outer skin will then come off easily.

One of the finest things about Hughes ice cream is that it is always uniformly delicious—if anything it improves as it goes on. In other words the more you eat the better it grows, which is certainly as it should be. You know they get good things in Hughes Ice Cream, such as pure thick cream, real fruit juices and oh, such good chocolate and vanilla! Of course, you have looked up your near-by dealer and found that the yellow and white sign led the way to this most excellent dessert.

To freshen old lemons that have become acid and dry, and make them fresh again, put them in a pan of hot water and keep the water at an even temperature, without boiling, for about two hours.

Wife Freed for Secret Beating

Henry Lovins, interior decorator and art teacher, wanted to eat his wife, but he did not want the neighbors to hear him doing it so he locked the doors and shut the windows and then told her if she made any noise he would kill her. Mrs. Minnie Lovins told Superior Judge Collier yesterday when applying for a divorce.

Mrs. Lovins said that her husband became dissatisfied with her married life six weeks after the ceremony was performed on February 18, 1926, when he began nagging her. A property settlement made between the two was approved by the court after which Mrs. Lovins was granted a decree of divorce.

More holiday liquor poured into the police vats of intoxicating beverages yesterday when Officers Cadell and Howry of the police squad arrested John Stewart, 28 years of age, of 6420 Hollywood Boulevard.

In Stewart's automobile at that address the officers reported finding twenty-five gallons of assorted liquors. Stewart was held for possession of liquor.

The Italian Vineyard Company to whom we are indebted for Quasi cooking aids, which include Quasi (pronounced Gwah-stee) sweet cherry flavoring and Quasi cooking sherry—take this occasion to wish their many friends a right Merry Christmas and glad and prosperous New Year! Which wish I am sure, we all reciprocate and in turn extend our best wishes and thanks to them as well for giving us these splendid aids as well as delicious adjuncts to our cooking. This week being turkey week, suppose I give you a recipe for turkey a la king—which you will find use for some day during the coming week. It is as follows:

TURKEY A LA KING

Two tablespoons butter, ¼ cup mushroom caps, ¼ cup chopped green peppers, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 cup hot stock (made by cooking in water the bones, skin and trimmings of roast turkey), ¼ cup hot cream, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups diced turkey, ¼ cup shredded pimiento, 2 egg yolks or 1 whole egg, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons Quasi cooking sherry.

Melt butter, add mushrooms and green peppers; cook 4 or 5 minutes over low fire (do not brown butter). Stir in flour, turkey, pidge, cream and pepper and cook until thick. Place pan over hot water; add turkey and pimiento. When heated through, stir in beaten egg yolks; cook several minutes; add lemon juice and sherry and remove from fire.

Copy this recipe or send to the Italian Vineyard Co., 1235 Palmetto St., Los Angeles, for your copy of "Treasured Flavors," the free recipe book given to all who write in for it. Then go in or telephone to any Italian grocery for a bottle of Quasi cooking sherry and sweet sherry flavoring. All three will be needed frequently during the ensuing days. Don't you agree with me?

To warm over and freshen muffins, biscuits and rolls, sprinkle them lightly with water and place in a pan in which they are, in another pan containing water; heat in the oven for a few minutes and they will be as fresh as when first baked.

For Mr. Turkey's dressing you must have the finest poultry seasoning procurable so here goes for just the right suggestion: Go to any first-class grocer and procure a box of Ben Hur poultry seasoning. . . . don't accept a substitute for it must be Ben Hur or none! . . . and for the following reasons:

The Ben Hur brand is a blend of high-class herbs and spices which have been selected with utmost care for their extreme pungency. You will instantly be aware of a finer, richer flavoring in these herbs—different as it is from any other kind you ever used—and better by far. This is due to the unusual care taken in the blending. Oh, but it makes your fowl good yet for seasoning of every kind you will have need for it. We'll wager after once using Ben Hur brand of poultry seasoning no other can take its place!

Save time in shelling peas—Wash them well and boil them in the pods; the pods burst open when done and can be skimmed off, while the peas go to the bottom. The flavor will be much better than peas with shelled peas. A sprig of mint added to fresh green peas while cooking gives them a delightful flavor.

You need Morton's Iodized Salt for table and cooking purposes—and to prevent goiter in your family. You see, we eat salt, the necessary amount of iodine in our drinking water and consequently we are apt to develop goiter, which is prevalent in this part of the country—so we have been told. There, now what easier way to acquire this desired iodine than in the salt we must use daily. There is only a small amount in it so that it won't be tasted, nor does it show in appearance, but it truly does the work effectively and pleasantly. Now Morton's Iodized Salt is becoming more popular every day because it proves its worth by being so beneficial to your grocer. Send you a carton at once and then send to the Stratton Salt Co., 914 Mateo st., for the free booklet entitled "The Prevention of Simple Goiter by Means of Morton's Iodized Salt." It's a most entertaining pamphlet!

When washing spinach put salt in the first water and not many cleanings will be necessary. Cook spinach uncovered to retain its bright green color.

To peel turnips quickly, cut them in slices and the slices can then be peeled much quicker. When boiling turnips, add a teaspoonful of white sugar to the water to improve the flavor and lessen the odor.

More Holiday Cheer 'Poured'

More holiday liquor poured into the police vats of intoxicating beverages yesterday when Officers Cadell and Howry of the police squad arrested John Stewart, 28 years of age, of 6420 Hollywood Boulevard.

In Stewart's automobile at that address the officers reported finding twenty-five gallons of assorted liquors. Stewart was held for possession of liquor.

STUDENT'S RITES TODAY

Funeral services for Emma Viola McGuire, 21 years of age, 4863 Sunset Boulevard, will be conducted at the chapel of Graham & Isbell, 915 West Washington street, at 1 p.m. today. Interment will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Miss McGuire was a university student. She came here three years ago from Kansas City, Mo. She leaves her mother, Mrs. Lulu Parker, with whom she made her home.

The Far East is becoming greatly interested in aviation.

Photographer Pleads Guilty

Everett Frank Bender, photographer, who was arrested following complaint of the parents of Wanda Irene Anderson, 17 years of age, that she had become temporarily blind after taking tablets which Bender gave her to "brighten her eyes" before taking her photograph, pleaded guilty to possession of liquor yesterday before Municipal Judge Reed and was given the alternative of paying a $50 fine or spending 100 days in jail. He told the court he will not be able to pay, and was taken to jail.

'HOOT' GIBSON THROWN FROM HORSE AND HURT

"Hoot" Gibson, screen actor, was thrown from his horse yesterday in one of the scenes of "Birds of a Feather," now in the making, and suffered a sprained ankle, which will confine him to his home for some time. Gibson only recently recovered from a severe attack of influenza. His right foot, it was explained, became entangled in a stirrup while he was stunting on his horse and the actor was dragged a considerable distance over rough ground. Work on the picture has been halted pending Gibson's recovery.

COOL WEATHER DELAYS FIRST-STREET VIADUCT

Although the new First-street viaduct was opened to railway traffic on Wednesday, it was announced by City Engineer Shaw yesterday that it would not be ready for vehicular traffic until about the 30th inst. The reason given for the delay is that the cold weather has prevented the setting of the concrete under the tracks of the Los Angeles Railway Company.

Accused in Court

Howard Wilson, who was arrested following complaint of the parents of Wanda Irene Anderson, 17 years of age, that she had become temporarily blind after taking tablets which Bender gave her to "brighten her eyes" before taking her photograph, pleaded guilty to possession of liquor yesterday before Municipal Judge Reed and was given the alternative of paying a $50 fine or spending 100 days in jail. Holiday Duties

Final Version	Dad's Darling
It seems there were two Irishmen named Ole and Sven, who had just seen the widdy drop her mits in the collection box. Ole started to appropriate it.	Suitor: I seek your daughter's hand in marriage, sir. I love her devotedly and I would suffer deeply if I caused her a moment's sorrow.
"Bodad an' bad cess, lay off," counseled Sven. "That mite be Lon Janney."	Father: You're dead right, young fellow. You sure would suffer. I know that girl.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—After the World War there were certain British statesmen who wanted to check the growing independence of the British dominions and, reassert the supremacy of the London government. Lloyd George and Churchill even went so far as to try to force a war with Turkey and pull the dominions into it. At that critical moment, and other moments, the British statesmen were reminded that the dominions were members of the League of Nations and therefore were nations which would make their own decisions on national matters.

[Will Irvin, who is accompanying President-elect Hoover on his visit to Central and South America as the special correspondent of The Times and the American Newspaper Alliance, in the following article, presents a detailed account of how the United States Marines supervised the election in Nicaragua. The election preceded the most notable political event in that country in many years. It began with two factions ready to resort to arms and ended with 90 per cent of those registered voters and both sides agreeing afterward that the election was fair and honest.]

light in their touch, and the many keys of his instrument. His wooden shirt is open at the neck. His eager, lean face, turned by the heat of many an Arctic night, his meditative and deep-set eyes under bleached, scraggly eyebrows, look far away as he plays some of the plaintive songs of his own land. A pipe is tucked in his teeth and the smoke from it drifts up past the light, a dim blue spiral.

Old Martin Renna, the sailmaker, looks the way, leaning on the sewing machine, a small creature with his leather cheek on each side of his beaked nose, his eyes blinking continuously as if he were about to fall asleep. But Martin always blinks. "Walrus" we call him.

SHIP BUCKING

There is something very fine about this man whose life has been spent wrestling a living from the eternal ice of the North, a gentleman and a country more marked because of his rugged strength. He plays a gay song, his gray eyes smiling at us as he moves his head in time to the music and our bodies unconsciously sway and our feet tap the floor.

The whole forecastle sways side-wagon as the ship runs up on a tide and slides off again, and a rumbling, tearing sound comes through the planks. No one pays any attention to it. We are used to it now. Through the open door to the larger forecastle which runs almost to midships can be seen the companionway steps, coming down from the hatch. The smoke blows through and flows upward to be torn apart in eddies by the cold air rushing down. The long mess table is on one side.

In this large room everyone, including Commander Byrd, sits, and around the sides are bunks for fifty men. Lights come from a few bulbs illuminating the forward end. But the room fades away into a dense shadow from which comes the sound of men arguing or laughing as they wait their turn at table. Dishes clatter and there are cries for more soup and demands to know what the biases become of the butter.

ALWAYS SLEEPING

Even during the meals some of the men are sleeping there, curtains of nondescript material cutting off some of the lights. They sprawl in twisted positions, legs drawn up and one arm thrown over the side. Bags there are everywhere underfoot and clothing hangs from lines in the semiobscurity.

A few men oblivious of the noise are reading in their bunks. If they have enough light, or are sitting near the hatch on a pile of bags smoking, sewing on clothes or writing letters which will be sent home some day.

Plane Ready to Attempt Endurance Record

QUESTION MARK AT SAN DIEGO

Lieut. J. H. Hopkins and Lieut. R. H. Clark, Engineering officer—Lieut. R. O. Harris. Communications officers—Lieut. Arthur Smith and R. J. Adams. All of those named are here from Washington with the exception of Lieut. H. A. Halverson, who is stationed at March Field, and Lieut. Woodring, Erickland, Moon, Hopkins and Clark from Rockwell Field. Lieut. Woodring is the only survivor of the Army's ill-fated, but justly famous, "Three Musketeers."

ADAMSON'S PLANS

Plans announced by Mr. Adamson, who is acting for Assistant Secretary of War Division in connection with the flight and who is spokesman for the party, are unchanged in general plan as announced several days ago in Washington.

Those who live in Los Angeles, however, and who want to see the plane refueled in mid-air either will have to stay up late New Year's Eve or get up very early New Year's morning, as all refueling will take place near San Diego, with the exception of one refueling operation which will be made within a few minutes after the initial "take-off" at dawn January 1.

The start will be made with only a few gallons of gasoline in the tanks of the Question Mark.

As soon as the two planes have reached an altitude of about 3000 feet over Mines Field, contact will be established between them and more than 200 gallons of fuel will, in the course of a few minutes, be transferred from the Douglas C-1, piloted by Capt. Ross Hoyt, to the Fokker Question Mark, with Capt. Eaker at the controls.

From then until the motors fail or they are forced to descend through some unforeseen cause, the Question Mark will fly the 100-mile course between Mines Field and Rockwell Field, San Diego, harring the possibility of bad weather, in which case the plane will go east of the mountains and make Imperial Valley the southern end of the "beat."

THREE TIMES DAILY

Three times daily at dawn, noon and dusk, the refueling plane will go into the air to meet the Question Mark, and will transfer fuel. An extra large load will be transferred at dusk, so that refueling will not be necessary at night.

The present world's record for duration made by means of refueling is held by Adjt. Louis Crocy and Sergt. Victor Groenen, of the Belgian army, who flew continuously for forty hours and seven minutes at Tirlemont, Belgium, June 2, 3 and 4, 1923. The previous record of thirty-seven hours and fifteen minutes was made at Rockwell Field by Lieut. Lowell Smith and Paul Richter in 1923. The record for the longest sustained flight by heavier-than-aircraft is sixty-five hours and twenty-five minutes, held by Ristich and Zimmerman, two German flyers.

The probable performance of Maj. Spota's expedition is indicated by the emblem on the side, a question mark. Estimates, which are really nothing more than guesses, vary from seventy-five hours to as high as 300 hours, which latter possibility would make the plane up for better than a week.

The plane will cruise at about ninety miles an hour, so that about 3000 miles a day will be covered. All the refueling will be done at night, a point which will be stationed at San Diego unless weather forces the use of the Imperial Valley route, in which case Lieut. Moon and the San Diego delegates, in Plane No. 2, will do the work.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22. (AP)—Today was the coldest Sacramento has experienced in forty years, N. R. Taylor, in charge of the United States Weather Bureau here, declared today. The temperature dropped to 25 degrees during the morning hours, did not go above 32 degrees, point, until 1 p.m., and rose to 35 degrees during the mid-afternoon. Taylor estimated the average at 30 degrees. One day in 1883 the temperature averaged 28 degrees, Taylor said that the cold weather is likely continue.

HUSBAND SUES BRIDE ON PROMISE OF CASH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (AP)—Charging that his wife never paid him the $40,000 she promised him immediately after their marriage, P. Tremaine Lord, manager of a San Francisco apartment-house, today sued Mrs. Florence Gertrude Lord for that sum. They were married in Sacramento, July 7.

REPARATION AID PLAN PROPOSED

TWO DRAFT IT Premier Poincare of France, and Ambassador Von Hoesch, German envoy at Paris, drafted the details.

The first of the five numbered paragraphs reads: "It is highly desirable in the common interest that, besides the experts to be designated by each of the six governments which participated in the above-mentioned Geneva decision, a citizen of the United States should also take part in the work of the committee of experts."

The experts, like those of the Dawes committee, should be independent, with international reputation, recognized authorities in their own countries and not bound by instructions from their governments.

There will be two delegates from each country which will have the privilege of additional substitute delegates, and the committee will meet in Paris "as soon as possible."

It will have the right, however, to decide where it wishes to sit later.

TASK OUTLINED The experts will be entrusted with the mission of elaborating "propositions for the complete and final settlement of the obligations growing out of the treaties and accords between Germany and the creditor powers."

The various governments are free to appoint delegates or to suggest them to the reparations commission for appointment. Germany herself is to name her experts.

Premier Poincare issued a separate communique reiterating that France's acceptance of any reparations revision is possible only on the basis of the conditions already outlined at Geneva and in the Premier's public addresses. This position has been conveyed to all the interested powers in a memorandum of October 28, last, which will be published later.

SAVANNAH (Ga.) Dec. 22. (AP)—The United States Coast Guard cutter Yamacraw today was steaming to a point 130 miles southeast of Savannah to join the steamship Gulf Coast in an effort to aid the barge Iniquity, reported stranded.

Reports from the Gulf Coast said the barge had grounded upon the rocks and that the ship was standing by to save the crew of the barge if necessary.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 22. (AP)—Disasters from Tampico today said that the American tanker Mervana which ran aground off that port on Thursday has not changed its position. Because of heavy seas the crew has not been rescued. The vessel is not believed to be in any immediate danger.

Subsea Vessel Blast Kills Two

NAPLES, Dec. 22. (AP)—Two petty officers died of injuries received to night in an explosion on board the submarine H-2. Another was injured. Fire which followed the explosion burned for hours, but finally was extinguished.

The submarine H-2 was built in 1915 by the Canadian Vickers Company of Montreal for the Italian navy. It is one of six of the Holland type owned by that country. Its displacement is 361 tons on the surface and 441 tons when submerged. It is 150 feet in length and is equipped with one thirty-caliber gun and four torpedo tubes. Diesel engines are used for propulsion on the surface and electric motors when submerged. Its surface cruising radius is 2000 miles.

RADIO HOOK-UP Due Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (AP)—The Pacific Coast will be linked permanently to the nation-wide radio network of the National Broadcasting Company at 9:30 o'clock Monday night, when a twenty-four hour circuit from Denver to San Francisco will go into operation for coast-to-coast service.

The new circuit services two intermediate transmitters, KSL at Salt Lake City and KOA at Denver. Amplifiers in five states check the transmission.

"SIGN OF THE LEOPARD" HAS OPENING IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Dec. 22. (AP)—Edgar Wallace's "Sign of the Leopard" had its premiere at the Kuenster Theater tonight. After a rather dull playdacted production was enthusiastically received and the author received curtain calls. The management of the theater until April 1, 1926, has been taken over by Hooper Frank, an American, who has lived here for some years and who has been correspondent for American musical and theatrical weeklies.

"Boston Billy" Gang Suspect Taken in Trap

KANE, arrested at midnight on the request of Edward Sherman, private detective, who trailed him here, is said to be the last of the gang. The leader, James P. Monahan, now is serving a sentence in Sing Sing prison.

Kane faces seven indictments for murder and also is charged with participation in robberies, which, police say, include theft of the Jesse L. Livermore pearls in 1927 at New York. Other robberies laid to his gang are those of the J. Pierpont Morgan, Percy A. Rockefeller and J. P. Thayer homes in New York.

(Although admitting his identity, police said, Kane did not say he was connected with the gang.)

Third Supply Bill in Senate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—The third of the annual supply bills was reported to the Senate today, that carrying approximately $112,000,000 for the State, Justice, Commerce and Labor departments. The committee added $68,640 more, than was voted by the House.

Increases recommended to the Senate in the bill presented today were $10,000 additional for transportation expenses of diplomatic officials; $33,640 additional for promotion of commercial aircraft; $15,000 for promotion of the citrus fruit industry and $10,000 for the Alaskan general fund for construction improvement and repair of buildings and roads.

Two Trainmen Killed in Wreck

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Dec. 22. (AP)—Two trainmen, George H. Heyder, engineer, and M. E. McEllen, express messenger, were killed and a number of passengers were reported injured in a collision today between a Yazoo and Mississippi Valley motor car and a freight train near Tchula, Miss.

Tug Seized With Liquor and Men

CUBANS IN APPROVAL OF SUGAR CONFERENCE

HAVANA, Dec. 22. (AP)—Dispatches to the newspaper El Mundo from Santa Clara state that sugar planters of that Province have voted to endorse the recent decision of the National Sugar Mill Owners' Association to send delegates to the Washington sugar hearings next month. The Cuban committee desires to co-operate with the special committee of the House Ways and Means Committee at Washington in its survey of conditions and in its consideration of future action in tariffs applying to Cuban sugar.

FACHOT STRUGGLING TO STAVE OFF DEATH

PARIS, Dec. 22. (AP)—Charles Fachot, Public Prosecutor, who was shot yesterday by an Alsatian autonomist, is making a brave fight against death tonight and it is believed he has a chance to pull through. The vigor and courage that he is showing are giving great hope. The government had conferred the grade of Commander of the Legion of Honor on him.

CONVICTS LOSE CHRISTMAS GIFT

Miller Likely Only Prisoner to Get Parole

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—Convicts in Federal prisons who hoped Santa Claus would bring them pardons are going to be disappointed this year, for the Department of Justice announced today that the practice of recommending Christmas pardons had been abolished.

It has been the practice of the department to permit wardens of Federal penal institutions to recommend a few convicts for pardons at Christmas, but the practice, it was said, was abused.

The department said the only application for parole before Atty.-Gen. Sargent which might be acted on before the holidays is the recommendation of the parole board that Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, be granted his freedom. It was believed, however, that the routine work in connection with Miller's parole could not be completed in time to be approved by the Attorney-General before next Tuesday.

TOY DIET PERILS LIFE OF INFANT

Child Swallows Tiny Metal Motorcycle Prize in Box of Popcorn

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22. (AP)—A week ago Frank Brooks, 18 months of age, of Asco, W. Va., eagerly opened a box of popcorn and swallowed a tiny metallic toy motorcycle, which came as a prize in the package. Physicians and surgeons have tried unsuccessfully all week to dislodge the toy from the child's throat and tonight the boy was in a serious condition at a hospital here. Surgeons say that his condition will not permit an operation.

With Miller's parole could not be completed in time to be approved by the Attorney-General before next Tuesday.

SALVATION ARMY COUNCIL

Commander Evangeline Booth Sails to Attend Meet to Settle Organization Control

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Commander Evangeline Booth, chief executive of the Salvation Army in the United States, sailed for London on the Olympic early yesterday morning on a journey that may end in the removal of her brother, Gen. Bramwell Booth, as international head of the army and in her election to succeed him.

What is described as the most important event in the history of the Army now exists as the result of the failure of eight years' effort in a "reform" movement within the army headed by Commander Booth to persuade her brother to give up the autocratic and dynastic powers now vested in him by the constitution. This not only gives to him sole control of the organization throughout the world as long as he lives, but also empowers him to name his successor and hand down his power in hereditary succession.

Gen. Booth, who is 72 years of age, has been in failing health for two years. It is understood in army circles on this side of the ocean that he has been unable to attend to his duties since that time and that he is suffering from nervous prostration and neuritis. Under the present system of government he is empowered to inclose the name of his successor in a sealed envelope to be opened after his death. This was done by his father, William Booth, founder of the army, who appointed his son as general in this manner.

Commander Booth is understood to have followed his father's example; to have written the name of one of his children on a piece of paper and the next Congress which possibly might be more friendly to Vane. A recent poll of the special committee showed that several of the Senators were averse to pressing the inquiry of whether Vane's asserted excessive campaign expenditures disqualified him for joining them, because of the Pennsylvania Senator's long and trying illness.

REED IMPLACABLE
The action today, therefore, indicates that Senator Reed, the implacable Missourian, who has maintained that the investigation "should be cleaned up" finally has had his way and intends pushing it to a conclusion. Reed's intentions were concurred in at a specially called meeting of the committee.

One part of the letter to Vane, read: "Your communication and the communication of your physicians referred to in the early part of this letter, clearly show that shortly after May 19 you could have appeared before the committee because you were able to make the long trip to Kansas City and participate in the proceedings of the national convention. Nevertheless you gave the committee no notice of your inability to appear and now ask for a continuance without stating any time at which your appearance can be reasonably expected."

PRINCETON DEAN DIES IN ACCIDENT
Prof. Fine, Who Took Job of Woodrow Wilson, Hit While on Bicycle
PRINCETON (N. J.) Dec. 22. (P)—Prof. Henry Burchard Fine, dean of the department of science at Princeton University, died today from injuries suffered when he was struck by an automobile while riding a bicycle.

Prof. Fine, who was 70 years of age, had been a member of the Princeton faculty since 1881. When Woodrow Wilson relinquished his position as head of the university to become Governor of New Jersey in 1910, Prof. Fine, then dean of the faculty, was appointed acting president, which post he held until 1918.

While on his way to visit his brother, John D. Fine, headmaster of Princeton Preparatory School, last night Prof. Fine was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Cedric Bodine of Monmouth Junction, N. J. He died at Princeton Hospital of a fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Bodine told police that Prof. Fine turned his bicycle across the road in front of her car. She was not held.

Prof. Fine was one of the leading mathematicians of the country. At various times he headed the board of athletic control.

Onion Growers Given Present
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (P)—President Coolidge today proclaimed an increase in the duty on onions from 1 cent to 1 1/2 cents a pound. The new schedule will become effective January 21.

The President's action was taken under the flexible provisions of the tariff act of 1922, after an investigation by the tariff commission.

Some members of Congress have called recently at the White House to urge that the President take prompt action on the recommendations of the commission. The commission inquired into costs of production in the United States and in Spain, the principal competing country. Figures were not obtained directly from Spanish producers, invoice prices being used as evidence instead.

CADETS TO BE GIVEN MILITARY TRAINING
REGULAR ARMY OFFICERS TO HAVE CHARGE OF FIRST SCHOOL

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22. (P)—Three hundred members of the cadet military corps in six California high schools are to receive nine days' basic training under Regular Army officers at the San Luis Obispo National Guard camp beginning April 23, Adj. Gen. Mittelstaedt announced today. The general declared that this will be the first time high-school cadets have been included in a training-camp program.

Decision to provide such training was made at a meeting held here today between Gen. Mittelstaedt and the commanders of the six schools affected. They are Lieut.-Col. F. N. Galt, Porterville; Lieut.-Col. E. D. Hermida, Sacramento; Maj. K. F. Poulson, Dinuba; Z. S. Leymel, Fresno; Glenn Mercer of Galt, and P. E. Onyett of Oroville.

BANK DEFAULTER OBTAINS PROBATION
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Five years' probation was granted today to W. F. Fellman, who embezzled approximately $8000 from the San Rafael branch of the Bank of Italy while teller there, on the representation that he has a new position, a wife and child to support, and will repay the money from his salary.

STATUS OF BILL STILL IN DOUBT

Question on Muscle Shoals Measure Unanswered

Department of Justice Data Do Not Clear Situation

Coolidge Failure to Pass on It Cause of Uncertainty

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (P)—The question whether President Coolidge killed the Muscle Shoals bill or allowed it to become law by failing to sign it at the far end of the last session of Congress still was undecided today after a Department of Justice memorandum on pocket vetoes was transmitted to Congress.

The ninety-nine page statement, dated October 10, last, and forwarded to the House with a brief letter of transmittal by the President, contains no conclusions and merely goes into the history of bills sent to the President within less than ten days of adjournment of Congress and remaining unsigned.

Instances are cited as far back as 1815 where such measures were not allowed to become law, but the only reference to Muscle Shoals is the fact that the measure still is at the White House as a pocket memorandum "pocketed" attached.

Lewis Deschler, House parliamentarian, expressed the opinion, however, that the "weight of the case and precedents cited tends to bear out the conclusion that a bill not signed within the ten days' limitation as prescribed by the Federal Constitution does not become law, irrespective of whether the ten-day limitation is at the final adjournment of Congress or between sessions of Congress."

The Muscle Shoals bill was received at the White House May 28, 1928, three days before Congress adjourned. Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, has contended that Congress merely was in recess after May 29 and until the second session of the seventeenth Congress began and that the failure of the President to sign the bill automatically places it on the statute books. A case involving this point is pending in the Supreme Court.

San Francisco Will Conduct Garbage Quiz

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Mayor Rolph announced today the public health committee of the Board of Supervisors will launch an investigation immediately into charges sent the grand jury last night by the Seafarers' Protective Union, that hundreds of thousands of dollars in graft payments have changed hands in the last few years through the methods by which garbage disposal contracts are handled.

California Girl Given Honors

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (P)—Miss Louise Boyd, member of one of California's pioneer families, is back at her home here today with two scarlet ribbons on her coat. The ribbons represent the Cross of the Legion of Honor of France and the Cross of the Order of St. Olav of Norway.

They were conferred on Miss Boyd for her part in the search for eastward from the Italian dirigible Italia and for the American rescue party lost in the Arctic wastes. Miss Boyd with a party of friends was on an exploration trip in the motor yacht Hobby when word of the disaster reached her. She took Norwegian pilots on board, obtained airplanes and turned her vessel over to a searching party. The decorations are marks of recognition by the French and Norwegian governments.

Buyers' Guide to Face Scrutiny

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—The Railroad Commission announced today it will investigate the publication of a "buyers' guide" issued for advertising purposes by the Southern California Telephone Company. The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether the commission has jurisdiction over the advertising rates charged by the company or the publication.

Recently the Supreme Court decided that advertising space in directories issued by the telephone company comes under the control of the commission. A hearing will be held in Los Angeles January 3, next, by Commissioner Carr.

Bank Cashier Defies Robbers

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 22. (P)—A bank cashier carrying $14,000 today refused to be held up at the door of the Hays National Bank in Haysborough, and two bandits fled after firing four shots at him.

The cashier, Murray Coon, and a teller who accompanied him, were not injured.

Madman Stabs Four in Chicago

CHICAGO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—John Rechlow of Winnetka, Ill., a recent emigrant from Russia, ran amuck among crowds of Christmas shoppers in the Loop today. He stabbed four persons, one of them a policeman before he was overpowered.

House Floor Leader Urges Congress Meet in April
Farm Relief and Tariff Could Be Taken Up Together
He Says, Though, That It All Depends on Hoover

BY ROBERT A. ARMSTRONG
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—Simultaneous consideration of farm relief and tariff legislation at a special session of Congress early in the Hoover administration was advocated by Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican floor leader of the House, in a statement today.

He suggested that the Senate could act on a farm bill while the House was taking up the tariff "and with no other business being considered rapid progress would be easy for each."

Tilson predicted that a session of Congress convening on April 15 would find House passage of a new tariff measure one month late. In the same period, he believes, the Senate can pass and send to the President a farm-relief measure.

READING PUBLIC MAY PROTEST

Senator Urges That "Record" of Congress Be Printed on Waste-Crop Paper

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—Printing of the Congressional Record on paper made from waste-crop products of American farms is proposed in a joint resolution introduced by Senator Schall, Republican, Minnesota.

More than $75,000 worth of spruce paper is imported annually, the resolution said, while corn stalks, rice, wheat and flax straw with a potential value of $75,000,000 from which paper of finer quality could be made, rots on American farms because of lack of necessary manufacturing facilities.

farm relief is taken up. It can be done during the early months of the new administration in half the time that would be required six months later and I venture to say that a better bill can be passed earlier than later. Before the present session of Congress opened I said that if the tariff is to be revised by the next Congress the Ways and Means Committee of the House should hold its hearings before the end of the present session. Plans are complete for doing this so that a tariff bill can be prepared within six weeks after March 4 and later to be reported to the House for action.

WASHINGTON'S ACTIVITY HALTS

Governmental Machinery Idling for Holiday
Many Officials on Way Home or Preparing to Go
Coolidges Start for Georgia Island on Christmas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—Government machinery slowed to a virtual halt today in preparation for observance of the Christmas holiday.

Many officials have left the capital or will leave before Tuesday to hang their stockings in widely scattered places. Of those who plan to remain here, the majority are members of Congress from Western States who will not have time to make the trip to their homes and return for the reconvening of Congress on January 3, next.

Congress itself recessed for ten days after a short session today. President and Mrs. Coolidge expect to leave on Christmas Day for Santa Fe Island, off the coast of Georgia. It will be their first Christmas away from Washington since Mr. Coolidge became President. The date for the President's return to the capital still is uncertain, some doubt having been expressed as to whether he will arrive in time for the reconvening of Congress.

OLD THREE "R'S" GIVEN GO-BY

Brain Band Leader Needs to Know Anything Else to Get Job

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—If one can lead a brass band, spelling, arithmetic and such do not matter, so far as qualification as band leader in the Indian Field Service is concerned.

In announcing today that such talent is needed, the Civil Service Commission specified that the duties are to give instruction in brass band music and to direct a brass band. The three "R's" go by the board, for all the applicants "have to do is to show that they can lead a brass band."

The entrance salary is $1140 a year and information may be obtained from representatives of the commission at city postoffices.

EARLY TREATY VOTE EXPECTED

Senate Leaders Voice Their Hopes to Coolidge
Pact Precedence Over Navy Measure Anticipated
Dual Consideration Program Explained to President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—Hope of early and favorable action on both the Kellogg antiwar treaty and the cruiser construction bill, after the holiday recess, was expressed to President Coolidge today by Senate leaders.

Confidence of Chairman Borah of the Foreign Relations Committee, who is sponsoring the treaty in the Senate, in its ability to draw support has led the leaders to believe the pact may get to a vote ahead of the naval bill.

The arrangement for dual consideration of the two propositions was explained to the President today by Senator Curtis of Kansas, the Republican leader; Senator Watson of Indiana, the prospective leader succeeding Curtis when he becomes Vice-President, and Chairman Hale of the Senate Naval Committee.

JUSTICE SOUGHT FOR CALIFORNIA HERO

Again Is Memorialized Fremont Heirs, Robbed by Nation He Defended

By FLOYD J. HEALEY
Times Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Once again the Congress is to be asked to let sunshine through the clouds that for sixty-five years have befogged the name of California's immortal, Gen. John C. Fremont, who with the Bear Flag revolt and who fought to keep it from the clutches of Mexico and internal strife.

Eventually, State and Federal courts agreed with the general confession that the nation had been illegal because it had not been through the medium of a formal Presidential proclamation and because its terms had been permitted to lapse.

HERO SINGLED OUT

By 1870 Congress got around to the controversy by deeding back to the owners much of the appropriated territory, but the act by which this was accomplished contained a clause reserving the ground which has become Fort Mason. Which was exactly the ground which had harbored the Fremont home and it is contended, part of land once owned by Gen. Fremont, George H. Frisbie and Emilie Orlier. Heirs of the latter three have joined the new move. The property questioned now is estimated to be worth between $2,500,000 and $5,000,000.

DYING ARM FALLS

His falling weapon fell from his exhausted hands into those of his widow, Jessie Benton Fremont, daughter of the powerful Senator Benton of Missouri, whose wealth and influence had been his son-in-law's support during the early trials of exploration which Fremont headed into the West, ranging from the Oregon Trail to the Rio Grande.

In 1901, Mrs. Fremont died, dropping the banner of the dullest but still living cause into the lap of the California Legislature. The latter memorialized Congress.

For twelve successive sessions Congress considered the matter. For twelve successive sessions a favorable committee report was returned. For twelve successive sessions adjournment was taken without action.

Then came an interlude to 1925, when Senator Fremont, mining in Cuba, gathered the documents of the past, including a favorable but unofficial letter from a former Justice of the United States Supreme Court—Stephen Field—and decided one year's work would come a presentation that could not be defeated.

FIGHT GAINS FRIEND

After three years of effort instead of the one he anticipated, and the expenditure of something like $50,000, he has found a new champion. In the inland property was a gift listed on 1893 maps as Alcatraz Square. There is no record of transfer to the government or any other body or individual. So San Francisco wants it back. City Attorney O'Toole has advised the Supervisors the city has a just and valid claim because the appropriated property never was recorded in California nor with the Land Office.

If San Francisco can get back Alcatraz Square, the Fremont, Haskell, Eggleston and Orlier properties will revert, too. Fremont has said he will donate the park site if the other property is recovered.

WOLF AT DOOR OF POORHOUSE

Specter of Poverty Appears to Pursue Victims to Last Refuge

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Keeping the wolf from the door has become almost a literal necessity to indigents at the San Mateo County Relief Home. Supervisor Hickey reports to his colleagues that packs of coyotes are "running through the adjoining hills like sheep," having been driven out of the higher reaches by prolonged cold.

On his recommendation the board asked the State Department of Agriculture to do something about it.

TELEVISION WILL HAVE OWN BANDS

Radio Commission Allots
Special Broadcast Areas for Experimentation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (P)—The Radio Commission decided today to set aside a special broadcast band for television experiments and development. The commission also decided that it will not renew licenses of individuals or companies who have been conducting television experiments in the regular broadcast bands. These licenses expire January 1.

Radio engineers have found that television experiments in the regular broadcast bands have caused considerable interference. The frequencies to be set aside for television purposes have not been selected.

Mexican Reds Protest Visit

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 22. (P)—In protest against any possible visit to Mexico by Herbert Hoover a group of men and women carrying red banners and singing the Internationale invaded editorial offices of Mexican newspapers shortly before midnight.

The demonstrators shouted, "Hoover no, viva Sandino." They also carried "mura Morrow" (down with Morrow).

The group first entered the editorial rooms of El Universal and then went to Excelsior and other newspapers. They were headed by Diego Rivera, a Mexican painter, who is general secretary of what he calls the Mexican division of the Anti-Imperialist League. The league was created to "wage war to the death against Yankee imperialism." Its motto is "for the union of Latin-American peoples, to expel the Yankees from Latin America." The demonstrators were members of the Anti-Imperialist League and the Hands-off Nicaragua Committee, both of which are affiliated with the Communist party.

Auto Dealer's Body Identified

TUCSON, Dec. 22. (P)—The body of a man found in a small canyon near Rillito Gorge, six miles north of Tucson, has been positively identified as that of O. L. Mize, Tucson automobile salesman, who is believed to have been "given a ride" by Mexican bootleggers here after he was lured from his home Wednesday night by a man who offered to pay cash for a large automobile if he could obtain it that night.

Modiste Held on Theft Charge

BERKELEY, Dec. 22. (P)—Barbette Hammel, former fashionable San Francisco modiste, was held to answer on a grand-theft charge when her case was called in Police Court here today.

As she left the courtroom she was arrested by a San Francisco detective on new grand-theft charges preferred by the State Labor Commission.

Mrs. Hammel was returned from Los Angeles recently to face charges of a Berkeley jeweler that she gave him $2750 in worthless checks for a diamond ring. The labor commission has been investigating charges of former employees of Mrs. Hammel that she failed to pay their wages as models in her shop.

DEPORTED FELONS STOPPED AT BORDER

NOGALES (Ariz.) Dec. 22. (P)—Three ex-convicts of San Quentin penitentiary who were deported from San Francisco on the 8th inst. were arrested here today when they attempted to slip across the American border. The men are Ricardo Milliam, Joseph Piero and Enrique Gonzales. Following their arrest they admitted their identity and said they were deported from San Francisco and taken to Mazatlan on the west coast of Mexico, from where they best their way northward to Nogales. Federal authorities said they will be taken to Tucson this time.

SIR JAMES BARRIE SUFFERS FROM CHILL

SECOND WAVE OF 'FLU' FEARED

History of 1918 Epidemic
Shows Two Attacks

Percentage for Week Great as Peak of 1920

Mortality Much Less Than in Previous Years

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (P)—The possibility of a second and more severe wave of influenza following the present outbreak was discussed today by public health officials who began considering plans for studying the situation at first hand with a view to preventing such an occurrence.

While their program for this was not completed, Federal authorities indicated they will seek to add to their knowledge of the disease through both laboratory and field studies. These studies will be carried on by public health officers in several representative areas in various parts of the country.

The percentage of cases in the United States for the week ending the 15th inst. was 1.5, "as great as it was at the peak of the epidemic of 1920."

IN TWO WAVES

At the same time they noted that the most severe epidemic of recent years, that of 1918, came in two waves, the first mild and the second one of severe cases. While they see no reason for public alarm they said the second wave is "always to be considered."

The studies under consideration will be undertaken, they explained, in the hope that the information gained will prove helpful in combating a second wave.

Data collected by Federal and local health authorities and by scientists during the 1918 epidemic in the United States constitute the most complete study of influenza outbreak available. The studies contemplated will serve to round out this and other information on the subject.

MORTALITY LESS

Statisticians of the Public Health Service completed a chart today showing that if the number of cases for the week ending the 15th inst., 200 per 100,000 population, continued throughout the year, the annual percentage of cases would be 10,000 per 100,000 population. They have no indication, however, that the rate will continue to increase.

Comparison between the number of cases this year and during the 1918 outbreak is impossible, officers say, but add it is their opinion the 1918 outbreak was considerably longer.

Officers are still puzzled at the great number of cases in this outbreak, and the relatively negligible mortality. Reports from several large cities showed 1145 deaths from influenza and 5606 from pneumonia during the period between October 28 and the 15th inst. There were 500,000 deaths from influenza and pneumonia, it was stated, during the 1918 epidemic.

Million-Dollar Gift Withdrawn by Rockefellers

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 22. (P)—Because at no little in the last four years has the University of Minnesota indicated whether it would accept a proposed $1,000,000 gift from the Rockefeller Foundation, that organization has withdrawn the offer.

The gift was offered the university in 1924 to establish a medical center here, combining the work of both the University Hospital and the Minneapolis General Hospital. Decision of the Rockefeller Foundation was contained in a letter today from President Louis B. Coffman of the university to the local board of public welfare. The letter quoted Dr. George F. Vincent, president of the foundation, and former president of the University of Minnesota, pointing out that failure to accept the offer had resulted in its withdrawal.

PAN-AMERICANS NEAR TASK'S END

Adjournment Anticipated
Before New Year

Bolivia-Paraguay Peace Pact
Still Expected

Delegates Work to Conclude
All Treaties

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (P)—Determined to adjourn not later than the end of next week, delegates to the Pan-American arbitration conference strove earnestly today toward the conclusion of the treaties for which they gathered. The conference has been in session since the 10th inst. and Secretary Kellogg, its chairman, expressed confidence that sufficient progress had been made to assure adjournment before the New Year.

Endeavors to reconcile Paraguay and Bolivia following their boundary clash are still in abeyance pending replies from both countries to inquiries addressed to them by the parley's special committee two days ago. The replies, however, are expected hourly, and Victor Maurius of Peru, chairman of the special committee, said he expects to call a meeting for Monday. He based this on information that word from both countries will arrive by tomorrow, and that the tenor will be such as to facilitate the committee's task.

A subcommittee of the committee on conciliation treaties met today, to complete a draft of such a pact. The principles to be incorporated

Dr. Maurius was confident that the conference's activities in mediating the tangle would be completed shortly.

RUMANS HEAR NEW POLICY SENATE FAVORS BENICIA GRANT

Peasant Party Government Through Address of Throne Pledges Many Reforms

BUCHAREST, Dec. 22. (P)—The program of governmental reform which Julia Mahlu, head of the Peasant party Cabinet, has projected for Rumania, was presented at the opening session of the new Parliament today. It was embodied in the speech from the throne read by Prince Nicholas who, clad in an admiral's uniform, acted on behalf of the regency for the boy King, Michael.

Conspicuous in the long list of internal reforms is a promise for rational protective measures against an influx of foreign goods. The document also calls for decentralization of the government and a policy of local autonomy for the various provinces of the kingdom. Reorganization of the army, the police, the gendarmerie and other public services is promised.

FOREIGN LOAN
Prince Nicholas announced that there are no obstacles to prevent a favorable foreign loan that could be used for stabilization of the currency and the rehabilitation of roads and industries. The speech pledged continuance of the policy of cultivating good relations abroad and the audience heard in this a precursor of a settlement of the Bessarabian question with Russia.

The opening ceremony itself was a brilliant affair. It was preceded by a solemn Te Deum at the national cathedral attended by the regents in rich robes of state, high church dignitaries in full ceremonial garb, including ancient mitres; military and naval officers in brilliant uniforms and women glittering with jewels and radiant in expensive finery.

WIDE CONTRAST
In contrast to these were the deputy peasants in immaculate white homespun, richly embroidered in rainbow hues.

After the cathedral ceremony the entire company proceeded to the Parliament House. There were frequent cries of "Long Live King Michael," but these were dwarfed by the hurrahs which greeted Maniu when he entered the chamber followed by his Peasant Cabinet.

Representatives of thirty-four nations were present in official regalia. Conspicuous in the diplomatic reception was Charles S. Wilson, who became American Minister here two months ago.

Occupying obscure places in the chamber were members of the once powerful Liberal party and government. Vintila Bratianu, who lost the premiership to Maniu, sat quietly in a seat which I. Mihalache, present Minister of Agriculture, occupied for ten years while waiting for the Peasant party to come into power.

It was explained to the Senate that in return the railroad will give the government 140 acres surrounding the arsenal and build two new arsenals on the reservation. Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, sponsored the measure.

ESPEE WILL PUSH
CONSTRUCTION WORK
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Southern Pacific officials announced today after passage by the Senate of the Benicia arsenal right-of-way bill that as quickly as the House concurs construction work will be started on the new railroad bridge across Carquinez Strait. The bridge is designed to replace the ferry now in use and will result in great saving of time for trains.

Hoover May Go to Two Churches in Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Herbert Hoover, a "bright" member of the Orthodox Friends, a branch of the Society of Friends, will attend their church at Thirtieth and Irving streets, on his return to this city after his inauguration, according to an announcement issued by the church.

The meeting has obtained the services of Dr. Augustus T. Murray of Leland Stanford University as minister.

Members of the other Friends meeting-house in the city, located on J street, have recently made plans for the enlargement of the meeting-house as an accommodation to the visitors attracted by the president's presence. It was not made clear today whether or not Mr. Hoover will continue his practice of attending meetings at both meeting-houses on different days, but it is indicated that he will continue this custom.

Chicago Vote Scandal Closed

CHICAGO, Dec. 22. (AP)—The election conspiracy case against fifteen members of Morris Elmer, Twentieth Ward Republican committee, ended when counsel for the convicted conspirators paid out more than $8000 in fines.

This action, writing fine to an extended court fight growing out of the alleged terrorism on primary day last April, was taken by the defendants who decided to abandon plans to seek new trials. Their motions were withdrawn and the fines paid.

The defendants were convicted of kidnapping, assault and election frauds. Charges of conspiracy to murder Octavian Granady, negro opponent of Elmer for ward committee, were not upheld.

Elmer and his son, Judge Emanuel Elmer, were indicted with their henchmen. They obtained separate trials. Their cases are pending.

Walter Eckersall Declares West Coast Football is Best Played in United States

TECH WILL EXTEND BEARS TO THE LIMIT NEW YEAR'S

Pund Best Center in the Country and Mizell and Thomason Rate With Outstanding Backs

CHICAGO, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—Although the football season of 1928 has passed into history and clean-cut champions have been determined in most sections of the country, followers of the great intercollegiate sport will watch with interest the results of the two games to be played on the Pacific Coast during the holidays.

Decisive contests suffered by mid-western and far-western elements by those from the Pacific Coast Conference are still being talked of by those who follow the game. The best of football on the coast cannot be underestimated. I have followed the game for many years and I have seen the best players developed every year on the coast.

I have seen the best players developed every year on the coast. I have seen the best players developed every year on the coast. I have seen the best players developed every year on the coast.

It may be the last trip of a southern eleven into the Far West. At a meeting of the Southern Conference held recently, it was voted to play a benefit game in the Southwest every New Year's Day for the benefit of the Shrivers fund. Such a struggle should attract considerable interest in the section, but it hardly can be expected to supplant the tournament of Rose which will appear as a fixture.

On Saturday, a great delegation of star players selected from fifteen middle western and eastern universities will meet a similar team of coast warriors in San Francisco. All profits of the game will go into the Shrivers fund to aid for crippled children.

Among some of the players on the Stanley-Kidd eleven are Howard Harper, captain of last year's Carnegie eleven and practically a unanimous all-American selection. Howland can kick, run and pass. He is a clever field general and a splendid wolver of punts. Al Weston of Boston College, one of the undefeated eleven in the country, and George Leverage of Northwestern are other quarterbacks.

Charles Chuck Bennett of Indiana, a sterling back, and O. Letourneur of Carnegie Tech will start in the halfback positions with Walter Johnson of Northwestern at fullback. The other backs are Blue Howell of Nebraska and Dick Owsen of Lafayette. Both are excellent line plungers and blockers. Just the type to say the way on running plays.

Kenneth Haycraft of Minnesota, another all-American selection, will be one of the ends. The Gopher was one of the greatest wing players in the conference in 1927. He is an unassuming knock to get out into the open to receive forward passes and he is always in the vicinity of the ball. Tony Sweet of Carnegie Tech, Luke Johnson of Northwestern and Delph of Penn State are the other ends selected.

It will be the fourth of this season. Coast teams have been victorious in the three already held. Hanley and Kerr recently bled every effort to win Saturday's game and to accomplish their purpose by taking the game to Palo Alto, the home of Stanford University, for the final repetition.

On New Year's Day in the Rose oval at Pasadena, Georgia Tech, champion of the Southeastern Conference, will play a fifteen-game schedule in the southern division of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Baseball league, according to O'Gwyn Wilson, graduate manager and general manager of the Association.

ALL-AMERICAN COACHES

WHEN it comes to all-American coaching staffs no teams that have played in past New Year's Day games ever had anything on the California and Georgia Tech aggregations. This becomes an interesting note of the fourteenth annual pigskin classic when one stops to ruminate on the situation.

For example, there is Fincher, the Georgia Tech line coach, who was an all-American end when he was playing football for his Alma Mater back in 1920. And there is Don Miller, the backfield coach of the Golden Tornado. He was one of the Four Horsemen at Notre Dame, and was picked by some experts along with his three ruffing mates—Stuhldreher, Crowley and Leyden.

But California has a slight edge in this all-star stuff with Walter Gordon, Dan McMillan and Brick Muller to draw from. Gordon was placed on Walter Camp's third all-American in 1918, and the big black guard was really the first Pacific Coast man ever recognized by the late father of the all-American teams. McMillan made the grade at tackle on the second team in 1920, and Muller was placed on the third team in 1920 and the first team in 1921. Gordon and McMillan are line coaches, and Muller works with the ends and shows the backs how to toss forward passes.

It was Brick who heaved the famous pass that broke the spirit of the Ohio State team eight years ago. This was a perfect pass—a tremendous shot—and it was caught by Brodie Stephens on the goal line, but with the passing years I note a great tendency on the part of the enthusiastic undergraduates, and the old grads, as well, to exaggerate the extreme length of Brick's heave.

MULLER'S PASS

IMAGINE the matter always will be a subject of dispute. No two persons ever described the distance exactly alike. Everybody was positively paralyzed in the excitement of the moment. Nothing like Brick's spurnously long pass had ever been seen before. You had to rub your eyes to convince yourself you weren't "seeing" things.

And by this time Mr. Brodie Stephens had scored a touchdown on the play and Crip Toomey had kicked a goal to make the score 14 to 0 in California's favor. And then the statisticians began figuring up the distance of Brick's toss, and they have been figuring ever since.

The play was a masterpiece. It was a delayed double pass in which Muller finally got the ball, and running for back of his line of scrimmage, turned and rifled it to Stephens, who began sprinting furiously for the goal posts the minute the play started.

The play started near the right sidelines, and Brick's pass was somewhat diagonal, which, of course, adds to the distance. None of the Ohio State men, who had the Big Ten crews by their phenomenal last-minute forward passes, thought it was humanly possible for any man to throw a football that far, and no nobody paid any attention to Stephens. He was alone when he caught the ball.

As a matter of cold fact, the line of scrimmage was on Ohio State's 37-yard stripe and Brick ran back past the middle of the field. He was approximately twenty yards behind the scrimmage line which is quite a distance behind the forward wall, if anybody asks you, but he wasn't far enough back to make the pass seventy yards.

FAMOUS NUMBERS

THAT 26-to-0 defeat of Ohio State was California's only victory in a New Year's Day classic because the Bears' best effort the following year only resulted in a scoreless tie—a 0-0 game with Washington and Jefferson.

There were some famous jersey numbers in the 1921 conflict, and eight years later you will see the same numbers—but worn by a different set of Bear heroes.

For example, there was Muller's No. 8, which now graces the broad back of Charley Schmidt, the fullback and son of the former Detroit catching star. There is the No. 11 of Archie Nibel, the kicking star, which is now worn by Steve Bancroft, the biggest lineman on the coast. Charley Erb's No. 7 is the property of Newman, a halfback. And Toomey's No. 13 belongs to Harry Gill, a sub tail. Sport's No. 16 is that of Davis, an end, and Stephens' No. 26 belongs to Lindgren, a guard.

There were other dazzling numbers in that 1921 game, but those mentioned were the most conspicuous throughout.

FEQ MURRAY CHEERS

FEQ MURRAY, who must have had the time of his young life when Stanford was beating Army in his adopted town of New York, burst forth in a letter from the big city with some remarks on the point-a-down proposal. In brief he indicates some education on what constitutes a down will be necessary in eastern circles before the system can become a success. He writes as follows:

"Was much interested in your column of December 7 in re: Pop Warner's suggestion of giving each team one point for first downs. That might work all right in California where they know their onions, but it would not work here in the East where nobody can keep track of first downs. Listen to these statements from four morning Sunday papers of December 22, the day after the Stanford-Army game:

"Number of first downs made by Stanford was 22, according to the Times; 26 according to the Tribune; 20 according to the World, and 21 according to the Telegraph. On the other hand, the Times gave the Army 11 first downs; the Tribune, 8; the World, 9, and the Telegraph, 8.

THE OLD BLADE GETS HOT

et rival, Henry Gulick of Bridgeport, Ct., by six strokes. Gulick had 82, 82, 84—188.

CLASSY START

Starting out with a par 4 and then taking five 2's in a row, Hagen took a 28, four less than par, to register 62, 62—124, for second place. That leaves Smith and Horton relatively in the same position at the end of fifty-four holes, as Smith had a 69 to Hagen's 84 yesterday.

The final eighteen holes will be played tomorrow morning, with the first threesome scheduled to get off the first tee at 9:30. And what a battle it promises to be.

At the thirty-six-hole mark with Smith's 121 leading Gulick, Hagen and Charlie (Beau) Guest, who were tied for second place with 124, the field was split to forty-nine players. Scores of 137 qualified for the final thirty-six holes.

Only three amateurs remained in the field and it remained for Fay Coleman of the California Country Club, Southern California amateur champion to give the pros a battle. Fay found himself today and finished thirty-four holes with 63-61-118, to tie for fourth place with Johnny Rogers of Denver. Danny Williams of Shastamont, N. Y. was fifth, 65-63-60-190, and "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Buffalo, N. Y. who was second yesterday, slipped badly and registered 67-64-131.

The 193's included Tom Stevens of the California Morris Dotts of Tacoma, and Billy Burke of Port Chester, N. Y.

MANY FLOURDER

Johnny Golden of Paterson, N. J., runner-up in the Sacramento $2500, and Al Espinoza of Chicago, are just about out of the big money with cards of 186. Gwyn Bowen of Portland, who was tied for first place with Smith yesterday, also returned to normal and played all over the course for a total of 194.

On the famous second hole, he turned in a 9, and had a 73 for his second eighteen, which just about eliminated him from the running.

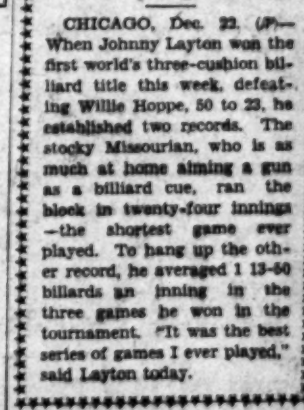

Under his present plan Coach Alexander will hold heavy practice Monday and Tuesday with scrimmages and that will be the program until Saturday, when tapering off will begin, and Monday will see slight relief before the game. Coach Robinson, former all-American end at Auburn University, has under his wing the reserve squad of the California players, and he will lead his outfit against the varsity teams in scrimmages.

Despite the keenness of the competition, Southern California golfers are keeping well to the fore. Eddie Leach of Pasadena, who has been shooting brilliantly, but not consistently, turned in a card of 185, as did George Martin, Virginia Country Club pro, and both have a shot at the $2500 prize money. Willard Hutchison, also of Pasadena, had a 191, along with Art Roach of the Hacienda Country Club, and T. E. Collier, young pro from Great Britain.

Chuck Ward of the Brentwood Country Club, who won the medal in the qualifying round, shot 190. He is playing fine golf and is likely to nose out some of the professionals.

Layton Sets Cue Marks in Taking Title

CHICAGO, Dec. 22. (AP)—When Johnny Layton won the first world's three-cushion billiard title this week, defeating Willie Hoppe, 50 to 23, he established two records. The stocky Missourian, who is as much at home aiming a gun as a billiard cue, ran the clock to twenty-four innings—the shortest game ever played. To hang up the other record, he averaged 113-60 billiards an inning in the three games he won in the tournament. "It was the best series of games I ever played," said Layton today.

TECHMEN WORRIED BY FLU

Three Star Backs Under Doctor's Care as Train Nears Pasadena

two special cars at least six are suffering from bad colds and most of them have symptoms of flu. Stumpy Thomason, the little giant, is just about to navigate about the train, and the club physician is working on him night and day to stave off the disease while Bob Durant, first-string quarterback, is running a slight fever, and "Fats" Lumpkin, the sensational sophomore fullback, is still weak from the ravages of the bug.

COACH CALM

From all outward appearances Coach William A. Alexander is just another tourist without a care in the world, but he is working just the same. His charges are being left severely alone on this trip. There is not even a skull drill on the trip and no stops are being made for workouts on route. Absolutely nothing is to be done in the matter of training until Monday, when the squad will workout for the first time on California soil.

Coach Alexander has expressed his desire to hold his practice sessions each afternoon if arrangements can be made with sufficient authorities. Coach Alexander is now in Pasadena making arrangements for practice sessions and also trips for the team.

Under his present plan Coach Alexander will hold heavy practice Tuesday and Wednesday with scrimmages and that will be the program until Saturday, when tapering off will begin, and Monday will see slight relief before the game. Coach Robinson, former all-American end at Auburn University, has under his wing the reserve squad of the California players, and he will lead his outfit against the varsity teams in scrimmages.

BOYS PLAYFUL

But for their signs of illness the squad is in good shape, considering the trip. They managed to keep in good humor and went to sleep very little from the ride thus far. Big Vance Marree, the giant sophomore tackle, is the clown of the trip and he manages to keep the rest of the squad from snoring by playing pranks upon them, and shooting firecrackers in the aisles of the team car. Such gentle play is varied at all stops by heated fights with pebbles, gourds, tangerines or other ammunition that happens to come.

Accompanying the team are Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech; Dean W. F. Skiles, Dr. D. M. Smith, Dr. J. B. Crenshaw, athletic director, and Fred A. H. Armstrong, the newspaper man making the trip from the South are Morten Blake, sports editor of the Atlanta Journal, Ed Danforth, sports editor of the Atlanta Georgian, and Dr. Newman, sports editor of the Birmingham News; Ralph McGill, sports editor of the Nashville Banner; Frank Reck of the American Boy and the writer.

ANGEL SECRETARY BACK TOMORROW

Boots Weber, secretary of the Angels, will arrive home tomorrow from Chicago, where he stopped off to visit friends while on his way back from the minor leagues' convention at Toronto. Oscar Reichow, Angel business manager, is not returning with Weber, as he is extending his visit in his old home town, the bullet-swept city of Chicago.

While in the East Weber, Reichow and Marty Krug, who arrived home last week, purchased seven new players to strengthen the Los Angeles club for the 1929 race.

Under his present plan Coach Alexander will hold heavy practice Monday and Tuesday with scrimmages and that will be the program until Saturday, when tapering off will begin, and Monday will see slight relief before the game. Coach Robinson, former all-American end at Auburn University, has under his wing the reserve squad of the California players, and he will lead his outfit against the varsity teams in scrimmages.

Despite the keenness of the competition, Southern California golfers are keeping well to the fore. Eddie Leach of Pasadena, who has been shooting brilliantly, but not consistently, turned in a card of 185, as did George Martin, Virginia Country Club pro, and both have a shot at the $2500 prize money. Willard Hutchison, also of Pasadena, had a 191, along with Art Roach of the Hacienda Country Club, and T. E. Collier, young pro from Great Britain.

Here's Brick Muller, famous California end of seven and eight years ago—one of the first western all-Americans—showing Benny Lom, present Bear backfield flash, how he used to do it. Brick heaved the record loss of fifty-seven yards or thereabouts in California's 38-0 victory over Ohio State back in 1921. Lom has done practically all the mauling for California this season. Lom is standing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)

In baseball, as in football, there are two distinct styles of play. A team may rely either upon power, or it may depend upon deception.

The first system means trying to get a flock of runs. The second means building up a total by playing for one run at a time.

It was the old Baltimore Orioles who developed this second system to great efficiency. That team, with such men as McGraw, Jennings, Keller, Kelley and Robinson, was adept at getting a man to first and then bringing him around the bases and across the plate. Those players were masters of the sacrifice and the swinging bunt. They knew how to protect the runner and how to hit back of him. They worked the steal and the double steal. They played baseball with their heads.

Any pitcher who faced them was in for trouble. McGraw and some of the others were so skilled at feinting off good balls that a large part of the time they reached first on a pass. McGraw one season is said to have reached first in some manner or other on every one of the 144 times he was put in the line-up.

In these days of the lively ball, it rarely pays to play for one run. If a pitcher starts to blow, the offense has three or four chances to get a run.

Teams such as the New York Yankees led the way in this. They are a power attack, based on the theory that no pitcher can hold them in check for nine innings. He may hold them for eight, but all they ask is one inning of hitting. When they do start to hit, a pitcher is on his way to the showers and the ball game is as good as over.

Ruth scored 163 runs last season. Gehrig scored 132. They each batted in 145 runs and Bob Meusel batted in 112. Gehrig scored 118 runs. Ruth made fifty-four home runs. What need is there for sacrifice hitters with such clouters following each other as they do?

Under ordinary conditions, a sacrifice would be as useful as fishing for a minnow on a whaling trip.

It is noticeable that of the seven players who were credited in American League averages with twenty or more sacrifice hits, not one was a Yankee. Clancy of Chicago had twenty-nine sacrifice hits; Kane of Cleveland, twenty-five; Lind of Cleveland, twenty-two; Lind of Cleveland, twenty-seven; Sewell, twenty-three; Summa, twenty-three; and Myatt, twenty-one.

St. Louis had twenty-two sacrifice hits. Judge of Washington had twenty-three, and Gohlins of Cleveland had twenty-one. Cleveland and St. Louis appear to have profited most by the sacrifice; Philadelphia and New York have a sacrifice average.

But this is not true when all the members of the team are taken into account. As a class, St. Louis did make the most sacrifice hits, with Detroit next. New York made the fewest sacrifice hits, with Detroit third.

On the other hand, New York hit for the most total bases, with the Athletics second and Detroit third. Boston hit for the fewest total bases, with Chicago second. Chicago stole the most bases, with Detroit second and Washington third.

There is a story that a Red Sox fan, knowing that the Red Sox fans were not comparing me to some one of the great players whose name I was taking.

Buddy possesses a large quantity of courage. If he did not, he would not be playing professional baseball today for he has over all an accident all but crippled him for life, when a mere boy. Located near his home in Ellenville, Miss., was an ice-house. One day a horse carter of acid fell and broke burning several employees and forcing them to rush for medical treatment. A few minutes later, Buddy, drawing his little express cart, appeared at the rear door to buy a chunk of ice.

No one answered his rap on the door and in went Buddy. He stepped in the acid and fell upon his knees in the liquid fire. His screams were heard. Some one rushed him. He lay on his stomach for six months because of his terrible burns.

AMERICAN'S MOST VALUABLE

Have a look at Mickey Cochrane, brilliant catcher of Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics, who was voted the most valuable player in the American League for the 1928 season. With the honor went a $1000 check, which should have come in handy when Mickey was doing his Christmas shopping. Cochrane went up to the majors from the Portland Beavers. (P. & A. photo)

Cage Champs Tackle Four Local Teams

Southern California basketball fans will have a chance to see the Cook Paint Company quintet, national A.A.U. cage champions, in action next month, when the powerful Kansas City squad invades this section for a series of four games.

The Cook Painters, who won the title by defeating the Kansas City A.C. 23-22, in the final game of the annual tournament at Kansas City, are bringing their title-winning squad to the Coast intact. Stars of the team are Holl, center; Peterson, forward; and Mosby, guard.

The Cooks will be here January 21, 22, 23 and 24, next. Their first game here will be against the Studio A. C. five and will be played at Glendale. The Hollywood A. C. and Pacific Coast Club of Long Beach will be opposed on the following nights. The January 24 date is still open, but it is expected that either the L.A.C. or Alhambra A. C. will furnish the opposition for their final appearance in Southern California.

McNahan and Nemer loom as the regular forwards. The center berth is still disputed by Spaulder and Campbell, the latter a transfer from Utah. The Romans have trimmed Fairfax, Minor City League leaders, twice this year and figure to be in the running for the title.

NEW TOLLER MENTOR Bill Blissett has taken over the coaching duties at Manual since Mott Blair departed to take over a position with the city school system. Blissett has a strong offensive trio back this year in Piper, Sturn, forwards, and Finch, center. In Morehouse, Cohen and Gordon, the Tollers have three capable guards.

Although it's probably a bit previous to do any comparing of the Coast League clubs as they line up now, inasmuch as there are still a couple of months to go before spring training begins, it certainly looks right now as though Bill Lane's Hollywood Stars are in much better shape for the coming race than are the Seals and Senators, who were the Seals' leading rivals in 1928.

Golfers Prepare for San Gabriel Journey

LONG BEACH OPEN NEXT ON MIDWINTER PROGRAM

Annual Championship Scheduled to Start Over Virginia Course on Thursday; Women Stars Enter

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE
"Times" Staff Representative

AVALON, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—With the Catalina $2500 open golf championship winding up tomorrow, the golfing gentlemen, both amateurs and "pros" who have been battling over the nine-hole course since Wednesday, are already turning their attention towards the tournaments ahead.

Two major championships are scheduled for next week, the third annual amateur-pro golf tournament at the San Gabriel Country Club, Wednesday, the 26th inst., for a purse of $1000, and the Long Beach $5000 open, which will be played over the Virginia Country Club and Long Beach municipal courses, the 27th inst.

MRS. HARRY POISSER.

An amateur-pro tournament on Thursday, the 27th inst., will start the ball rolling. The feature attraction will be the appearance of four noted feminine stars, Miss Virginia Van Wye, runner-up in the national open; Mrs. Harry Presser, women's western champion; Mrs. Gregg Laffey, California State champion, and Miss Kathleen Wright. They will be paired with professionals.

The thirty-six-hole qualifying round for the Long Beach tournament is scheduled for the Long Beach municipal course.

Following the local tournaments will trek southward to play in the La Jolla $2500 open, January 2 and 3; the San Diego $2500 open, January 3 and 4; and the $1000 Agua Caliente open, January 7.

The Agua Caliente tournament will be the first ever held by the Mexican club and is in the way of an introduction to the $25,000 open scheduled for the winter of 1936 when the eighteen-hole course now being constructed will be ready for a championship event. The $1000 tournament is being called a "Tom Thumb" championship as the event will be played on a nine-hole miniature pitch and putt course.

Coming back from the south the professionals will then compete in the prize tournament of the year, the Los Angeles $10,000 open championship at the Riviera Country Club, January 11, 12 and 13.

The Pasadena $4000 open over the new Pasadena municipal course will wind up the season.

"TIMES" GOLFERS PLAYOFF AT SUNSET FIELDS
Walter Mead and Carl Retherman, who tied for first place in the "Times" Golf Association championship at Sunset Fields Tuesday, will play off the tie over the No. 1 course Thursday.

SAN GABRIEL GOLFERS STAGE TOURNAMENTS

Twenty-five matches were played at the San Gabriel Country Club yesterday between club members seeking prizes in the president's, vice-president's and directors' cup tournaments. Besides the cup play a sweepstakes event was staged over the club course with Vic Forsythe, the cartoonist golfer, taking the laurels in Class A with a 74-70 card. The play in the cup matches will go into the second round on Monday. Yesterday's results follow:

PRESIDENT'S CUP
R. M. Richardson defeated Frank Marshall by default.
J. W. Wallace defeated A. J. Quenell, 4 and 3.
Archer defeated C. H. Pollock, 4 and 3.
Sam Russell defeated J. E. Smart, 1 up.
J. J. Sullivan defeated Frank Olson, 2 and 1.
J. C. Richardson defeated C. H. Pollock, 1 up, 19 holes.
H. W. Warner defeated L. S. Dick, 2 and 1.
J. H. Bachman defeated E. A. McMillan, 4 and 3.
J. C. Richardson defeated Frank Marshall, 1 up.

INTERLEAGUE SOCCER TILTS AT LOYOLA THIS AFTERNOON

Today's interleague soccer attractions billed for Loyola Field promise to be one of the best tilts of the year. All-star teams from the Los Angeles Soccer League and Southern California League clash in the feature game of an interesting double-header. Spanish-Americans and Victorians, both from the Southern California league, will open the program at 1 p.m.

Aside from the interest as an interleague fixture, the game today is the first step that has been taken to further cement the soccer friendships in and around Los Angeles. The affair should produce warmer feeling between the two organizations and help to place the sport on a much higher basis than ever before.

The Southern League representatives look on paper to be a strong squad and should give the fans a real smart exhibition. Several players on the Spanish-Americans and Victorians would add more strength to the team, but cannot play, owing to their game being played on the same field as the opening attraction. Parkinson at center forward for the Los Angeles team will find plenty of trouble in getting away from the Southern California halfback line of Duff, Cameron and Johnny Tucker.

METZGER TELLS INSIDE STORY OF DRAMATIC GOLFING BATTLE BETWEEN JONES AND FARRELL

BY SOL METZGER

There has never been another golf duel like the one between Johnny Farrell and Bobby Jones in their play-off for the United States open crown last June at Olympia Fields. Never did the tide of battle sweep back and forth as it did that Sunday afternoon, nor the drama hold so long.

For fourteen holes during their morning round the fight was an even one, then Jones finished the last four one stroke under par to find himself 3 down at lunch. The game of the slender, black-haired pro from the Quaker club seemed unbeatable over that stretch, as he produced four successive birdies to take the lead.

But it remained for the afternoon for the drama to reach its height, for heart throbs to be strongest. Then two weary and frayed competitors had fought off the field to finish on even terms during the three preceding days of contest furnished thrills that kept a huge gallery stirred to the depths.

Farrell was off at the start that afternoon. Three puts from 10 feet away on the first hole cost him two strokes of his previous lead. The second cost him the balance of it. That marked the third time during the struggle that Johnny had taken the lead. It also marked the third time that Bobby had overtaken him. So, it began to look as though the slender, fine-looking pro was doomed. His great golf was always matched by a splendid rally by Jones. He seemed unable to shake off the Atlantic.

Square at the ninth they so struggled on to the long twelfth, where Johnny pitched over the green and Bobby took the lead, the first time that day. At the short thirteenth Farrell played one of his caddies, as fine a shot under pressure as a golfer is able to produce. His pitch to this short one-shotter was almost an ace. His 2 caught Jones.

So went the battle until the short sixteenth where Bobby's pitch for the back of the green, where the pin stood, trickled over into the long grass. Johnny's was on, 15 feet short. Bobby shipped back 6 feet short and when he played his third put would have thought from the quiet of that huge jam of humanity that the news of a calmly had stricken everyone's speech. That putt started for the cup, then skidded a bit to the right, missed it by an eyelash and scored a few inches from the hole. A great sigh arose. Farrell was 1 up.

There are two kinds of nerve in golf. The kind that permits a player to come from behind, and the other. This other seems, if records count, to exact more courage from the heart and soul of the competitor than the former. It consists of being able to hold a slight margin of lead over the balance of a competitive journey. Now Farrell was to be put to the ultimate test.

The seventeenth at Olympia Fields is a 383 yarder that turns a hit around a corner to the right. The green is set amid trees on a rise. It is topped at all sides. It was this tortuous hole that had cost Roland Hancock the title the day before, when he came to it a few strokes to the good on the field.

Farrell's tee shot here hooked into the matted rough at the left of the fairway. "He's cracked," you hear on all sides. Bobby sent a corker straight down the middle. Surely the strokes lost would be regained.

Johnny had a hard problem. Not only was his ball in the rough but he had a big trap to shoot over to reach the green. Out came his ball. It was so dead-on-line for the pin that when it struck short of it and trickled forward those standing near gasped with amazement. They thought Johnny had stopped to let beyond Jones was thirty feet to the left. He sank that putt for a half. (Next week—the final hole of this match will be described.)

LOS ANGELES OPEN DRAWS TWENTY-ONE GOLF TITLES

Twenty-one national golf titles will be represented in the fourth annual Los Angeles $10,000 open tournament which will be held at Riviera on January 11, 12, 13. They are divided among nine fairway stars, with the lion's share going to Walter Hagen.

Hagen, who will enter the Los Angeles classic a strong favorite by virtue of nine national championships tucked under his belt. Leo Diegel tops the list of the list with four national titles.

Hagen's record has made him dean of the pros and twice captain of the American Ryder Cup team. He has two United States open titles, having won them in 1914 and 1921; the British open championships for 1922, 1924 and 1928; and four consecutive American P.G.A. wins registered during the period 1924-1927.

Leo Diegel has to his credit four national laurels. The "Flying Dutchman" has made a specialty of snatching honors in Canada. He won the Canadian open in 1924 and 1925, the Canadian professional title in 1928 and the American P.G.A. championship in 1928.

Those who divide the remainder of the national titles are Tommy Armour, United States open winner for 1927 and winner of the Canadian open for the same year; George Von Elm, United States amateur champion for 1926; Willie Hunter, British amateur champion for 1921; Gene Sarazen and Cyril Walker, winners of the United States open in 1922 and 1924, respectively; Al Watrous, Canadian open winner for 1922; and MacDonald Smith, Canadian open champion for 1927.

Explorers who discovered genuine smoking contentment

The great number of men who are switching to cigars are smoking explorers. They try this brand, then that—seeking permanent smoking enjoyment. These explorers, young and old, have found in the Robt Burns Panatela genuine smoking pleasure. A filler of pedigreed tobacco, the richest gift of Cuban soil, brings to the Robt Burns Panatela a rare fragrant flavor, a cool mildness. Foil-wrapped. Ten cents. Try a Robt Burns Panatela.

COZZENS HANGS UP "ACE" AT RANCHO

Fred H. Cozzens, an official of the Ford Motor Company, negotiated the sixteenth hole at Rancho yesterday in a single shot. The sixteenth is a new 110-yard hole, and Cozzens, playing with his wife, dropped his tee shot neatly on the green, and it rolled straight into the cup. It is the first hole-in-one made on the new sixteenth, according to club officials.

AFRICAN BALL LEAGUE
Africa has a baseball league, known as the "Ligue Tunisienne de Baseball," which was formed by an American, Dr. C. G. Kelly. The teams take American names and are mostly made up of Jews, Indians, Frenchmen and Arabs. It is said the men are excellent hitters, and that the Arabs are even faster on the bases than American players.

SAGEHEN FIVE TO OPEN UP AGAINST SAN DIEGO TEAM

CLAREMONT, Dec. 22. (Exclusive)—"Beefy" Heath's 1935 edition of the Sagehen basketball squad makes its official appearance on January 12, the first Saturday following the reopening of college after the Christmas holidays which have just started for Pomona. Heath takes a squad of twelve blue eagles to San Diego where it runs up against the strong State College quintet in the first Southern Conference clash of the season for both teams.

The Southern California Conference race opens a week earlier than that for most of the teams, but inasmuch as his boys don't return from vacation until January 8, Heath had to start a week late.

Pomona will probably meet its chief opposition in Whittier, Occidental and San Diego State this year. La Verne College fought the classy U.C.L.A. Bruins to almost the same extent as did Pomona in a practice game and must be reckoned as a strong team. The University of Redlands is also expected to produce a formidable quintet.
